Crisis-consciousness and the Novel Eugene Hollahan, 1992 This book examines the emergence of modern consciousness as consciousness develops historically in one cultural form prose fiction narrative The book represents a critical history of crisis arguably the most characterizing single word in the modern world and a major figuration or trope Eugene Hollahan has studied the history of this important word within the development of the English language novel from Samuel Richardson to Saul Bellow After establishing a heuristic model for such a critical history Hollahan tracks the word characterized by George Eliot in Felix Holt the Radical as a great noun through two and a half centuries of narratives by major novelists with contextualizing excursions into discourses in related fields such as autobiography philosophy theology and social science Hollahan contextualizes his study of English language narrative fiction by examining the writings of crisis rhetoricians in the eighteenth century Thomas Paine nineteenth century Thomas Carlyle J S Mill and J H Newman and twentieth century Karl Barth Edmund Husserl T S Kuhn and Richard M Nixon Such varied and powerful crisis rhetorics establish a matrix of language and ideas for the crisis centered novels Hollahan surveys These novels include major works by Samuel Richardson Walter Scott Jane Austen George Eliot George Meredith George Gissing George Moore D H Lawrence E

M Forster James Joyce Lawrence Durrell Robert Coover and Saul Bellow Hollahan's description of the crisis trope interfaces with various critical issues such as canonical inclusion reader response and deconstruction On the whole his book acknowledges current critical issues but endeavors to remain basically a critical history It attempts to demonstrate that the crisis riddled modern world and the crisis conscious novel are analogous and coeval Crisis begins as Aristotle's term for logical plot structuring becomes Longinus's term for emotional exacerbation and eventually enters into a variety of critical and narrative formulations Matthew Arnold's cultural centrality Henry James's existential aestheticism Lawrence's self defining sexuality Marshall Brown's revolutionary turning point Paul de Man's error ridden criticism Floyd Merrell's cut into the primordial flux Durrell's reborn self and Bellow's analysis of hysterical escapism Broadly speaking Hollahan argues that any crisis trope will enable or even necessitate a unique confluence of writerly and readerly skills In Louis Lambert Balzac urged What a wonderful book one would write by narrating the life and adventures of a word The story Hollahan narrates fulfills Balzac's expectations as it depicts writer after writer working out influential representations of human life in terms of crisis consciousness centering upon George Eliot's great noun crisis Historically Hollahan demonstrates such consciousness comes to define modern humanity BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved Bellow James Atlas, 2012-08-08 With this masterly and original work Bellow A Biography National Book Award nominee James Atlas gives the first definitive account of the Nobel Prize winning author's turbulent personal and professional life as it unfolded against the background of twentieth century events the Depression World War II the upheavals of the sixties and amid all the complexities of the Jewish immigrant experience in America which generated a vibrant new literature Drawing upon a vast body of original research including Bellow's extensive correspondence with Ralph Ellison Delmore Schwartz John Berryman Robert Penn Warren John Cheever and many other luminaries of the twentieth century literary community Atlas weaves a rich and revealing portrait of one of the most talented and enigmatic figures in American intellectual history Detailing Bellow's volatile marriages and numerous tempestuous relationships with women publishers and friends Bellow A Biography is a magnificent chronicle of one of the premier writers in the English language whose prize winning works include Herzog The Adventures of Augie March and most recently Ravelstein
