Secrets of Successful Pranayama T. Abrehamson, 2013-03 What is Pranayama Pranayama is yogic breathing a great variety of practices Prana refers to a Vital Energy an Energy not yet often recognized by Western science but which some Eastern thinking believes to be pervasive Life Force might be one acceptable interpretation Thus to think of Pranayama as merely yogic breathing exercises is an oversimplification that omits the most important aspects of the practice With Pranayama you may harness Universal Energy by regulating your breath This is of course an extremely important assertion You can test its validity Why Should You Practice Pranayama On one level Pranayama can make you Feel Great utterly calm and quiet light yet grounded and confident and empowered and it is a wonderful lead in to Meditation It opens the body for improved progress in Yoga poses This is all nice yes but relatively minor On a higher level Pranayama is Life Transforming It links you up with the Universe You trend in the right direction Things start to knit together to slot into place more easily Your day and your life can flow more smoothly You can become open to becoming more purpose full At first hearing all this can sound incredibly mystical otherworldly But Tom Abrehamson's personal experiences are in harmony with those of others over the centuries With Persistent Practice Your life will change for the better Spontaneously effortlessly and permanently You are becoming whole Becoming what you should be You are forging an instrument of Will The Big Question Why is just working with our breath so hugely spiritual Because it Enables us To Connect To Yoke Up Yoga How does it do that It strips away intervening blockages It Purifies us It allows Connection and Flow Breath is a Key that Unlocks us Your Study Manual

Secrets of Successful Pranayama is not a quick fix handbook It is not an executive summary with bullet points It is not Yoga Lite It is a study manual It is a reference book you can chew on productively for years Pranayama is not about instant gratification It is not like a pill you pop for an instant fix It is like a cream that you rub into your skin each day for long term self betterment The book consists of four helpful sections The FIRST section introduces you to Pranayama and to the Guidebook The SECOND tells you how to set up your own practice The THIRD tells you what to do during your practice The

FOURTH tells you some benefits to expect A Living Teacher or a Guidebook There are a myriad of cautions about progressing into Pranayama without being instructed in it by a living teacher Tom agrees in large part More important to his mind however is the question Why should the wonderful benefits of Pranayama be available only to those fortunate enough to live close enough to an experienced teacher The aim of the Guidebook is to make Pranayama accessible to anyone anywhere Give someone a Yoga Class feed their Day Give someone a Yoga Guidebook feed their Life Everything you need to know to practice beginning Pranayama is set out here And in coming years you will find guidance for Intermediate and Advanced practices in Volumes II and III That said Tom is firmly convinced from experience with the students in his classes workshops and private lessons that instruction from a living instructor is the very best way to insure you are on the right track And with that in mind he has tried to make the Guidebook as crystal clear as possible There is a tremendous amount of gobbledygook out there Your Teacher should be able to answer with clarity two questions What are we doing and Why are we doing it
