Rescue of Business in Europe Bob Wessels, Stephan Madaus, European Law Institute, 2020-01-30 This edited volume is based on the European Law Institute's project The Rescue of Business in Insolvency Law which ran from 2013 to 2016 The project sought to investigate and articulate the essential features of well functioning procedures for the rescue of distressed but viable businesses Although the focus was primarily on the design and implementation of formal procedures that is those provided by law the project also required consideration of the interaction between such procedures and informal solutions to distress given the obvious cost advantages of the latter The ELI project was not confined exclusively to restructurings since these are only one possible route to maximising the value of a distressed but viable business an auction procedure in which the business is sold on a going concern basis to a new owner is one obvious alternative The ELI project encompasses various aspects of both public constitutional law and insolvency law that may have a bearing on the functionality of formal restructuring procedures

GDPR and Biobanking Santa Slokenberga, Olga Tzortzatou, Jane Reichel, 2021-01-05 This open access book focuses on the discrepancies in biobank research regulations that are among the most significant hurdles to effective research collaboration The General Data Protection Regulation GDPR has established stringent requirements for the processing of health and genetic data while simultaneously allowing considerable multi level exceptions for the purposes of scientific research In addition to directly applicable exceptions the GDPR places the regulatory responsibility for further defining how the Member States strike a balance between the individuals rights and the public interest in research within their national legal orders Since Member States approaches to the trade off between data subjects rights on the one hand and appropriate safeguards on the other differ according to their ethical and legal traditions their data protection requirements for research also differ considerably This study takes a comprehensive approach to determine how the GDPR affects regulatory regimes on the use of personal data in biobanking research with a particular focus on the balance between individuals rights public interest and scientific research In this regard it has two main goals first to scrutinize the GDPR research regime its objective and constitutive elements the impact it has on biobanking and its role in a changing EU landscape post Brexit and second to examine how various exceptions have been operationalized nationally and what challenges and opportunities this diversification entails The book not only captures the complexity GDPR creates for biobanking but also sheds light on various approaches to tackling the corresponding challenges It offers the first comprehensive analysis of GDPR for biobanking and the most up to date overview of the national biobank regulatory frameworks in Europe

National security through technology Great Britain: Ministry of Defence, 2012-02 This White Paper divided into two parts lays out the Government's policy objectives in relation to National Security through Technology particularly in relation to technology equipment and support for UK defence and security Part 1 UK Defence and Security Procurement sets out the Government's aims for the procurement of technology equipment and support to meet the UK's defence and security needs Part 2 The UK Defence and Security Industry looks at the wider UK perspective including growth skills and emerging sectors within the context of defence and security procurement policy and at government action to encourage UK based companies to fulfil defence requirements here and develop successful exports The publication follows up and develops themes and issues raised in the Green Paper Equipment support and technology for UK defence and security consultation paper Cm 7989 ISBN 9780101798921 published December 2010 A second publication published alongside this White Paper Cm 8277 ISBN 9780101827720 contains the Government's responses to the original Green Paper

The Defence Contribution to UK National Security and Resilience Great Britain. Parliament. House of Commons. Defence Committee, 2009 In March 2008 the Government published The National Security Strategy of the United Kingdom Security in an interdependent world NSS Cm 7291 2008 ISBN 9780101729123 Part dealt with the contribution of the armed forces to the overarching security policy of the UK and the Defence Committee set out to examine how the MoD and the Armed Forces interact with other departments and agencies to ensure the safety and security of the UK The report looks at the developing area of Parliamentary scrutiny of national security welcomes the proposed creation of a Joint Committee on the National Security Strategy but does question which minister will give evidence to that Committee The vital role of the ministry of Defence is outlined and the contribution must be appropriately understood directed and resourced The Committee recommends that the Government investigate how the Territorial Army could be used in civil emergencies rather than always resorting to regular troops It is essential that all activity relating to national security is appropriately funded from an indicative national security budget The NSS should also make a clearer connection between the strategy and industry and the Committee welcomes the Government's engagement with the UK Security and Resilience Industry Suppliers Community Current issues examined include the London 2012 Olympic Games maritime security the Committee comments on only six

Royal Navy ships being dedicated to this and the level of action taken to address identified threats to aspects of critical infrastructure such as ports the impact of current operations and the extent to which UK forces are stretched or overstretched

The Routledge Handbook of European Integrations Thomas Hoerber, Gabriel Weber, Ignazio Cabras, 2022-02-27 The Routledge Handbook of European Integrations fills a significant gap in the European studies literature by providing crucial and groundbreaking coverage of several key areas that are usually neglected or excluded in European integration collections Whilst still examining the largest and most influential institutions bodies and highly funded policy areas as acknowledged dominant topics in European studies it crucially does so with much greater balance by devoting equal billing to areas such as culture in European integration or new technologies and their impact on the EU Organised around three main sections culture technology and tangibles the book offers an authoritative encyclopaedia to alternative areas in European integration from media football Erasmus and tourism to transport space AI and energy retains coverage of the dominant topics in European studies such as the Eurozone the Common Internal Market or European law but in balance with other areas of interest and provides an essential companion to existing scholarship in European studies The Routledge Handbook of European Integrations is essential reading and an authoritative reference for scholars students researchers and practitioners involved in and actively concerned about research in the study of European integration studies The Open Access version of Chapter 14 in this book available at <http://www.taylorfrancis.com> has been made available under a Creative Commons Attribution Non Commercial No Derivatives 4.0 license

UK National Intelligence Services Handbook Volume 1 Strategic Information, Activities and Regulations IBP, Inc., 2016-12-20 2011 Updated Reprint Updated Annually UK National Intelligence Service Handbook Protecting Europe against large-scale cyber attacks Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee, 2010-03-18 The issue of large scale cyber attacks on the internet has moved up the international agenda recently This inquiry looks at how States and their major organisations can defend themselves and their critical information infrastructures CIIs against such attacks Whilst individual States bear primary responsibility for their critical national infrastructure CNI the infrastructures are heavily interdependent The Internet is a global network of networks and individual States cannot be viewed in isolation The Committee therefore concludes that continuing intervention at EU level was appropriate and that all Member States have an interest in bringing the defences of the least protected up The Committee also looked at ENISA the European Network and Information Security Agency and they believe that with a widening of its mandate it can play a more significant part in the developments envisaged Global Security Great Britain: Parliament. House of Commons. Foreign Affairs Committee,2008 This report is the fourth in a series on global security and examines the foreign policy aspects of the United Kingdom s relationship with Japan the Republic of Korea South Korea and the Democratic People s Republic of Korea North Korea The current political and economic scene in Japan and South Korea is outlined The regional relations of Japan and South Korea are then examined including those with the United States and China trade agreements and regional security forums The focus on North Korea covers the nuclear programme human rights food security regime reform and stability North South Korea relations and military matters The involvement of Japan and South Korea in international affairs is also scrutinised including climate change development assistance and the United Nations The report concludes with a review of economic and cultural relations between the UK and Japan and South Korea

ECIW2009-8th European Conference on Information Warfare and Security Henrique Santos,2009 2007 Great Britain: Parliament: House of Commons: Science and Technology Committee,2007-07-17 Vol 1 Report is also available ISBN 9780215035080 Global Innovation Jonathan Reuvid,2020-07-30 Companies planning to expand their export business base or to enter international markets for the first time need to focus their strengths and match them with market opportunities The process of interaction integration between people companies governments and nations is driven by international trade and investment which in turn is aided by technology and innovation A company s success is likely to be founded or reinforced by innovation which will need to be protected and supported by expert advice or partnerships Global Innovation offers encouragement to innovators advice on essential preparation for exporters and export strategy including a five point approach to identifying priority markets The book is spilt into three parts Part One ENCOURAGING INNOVATORS Part Two PREPARING TO EXPORT Part Three ADDRESSING TARGET MARKETS The book also includes details of priority markets for export such as United States France Japan Germany China and more With foreword by Chris Southworth Secretary General ICC United Kingdom and contribution from key industry experts such as Coventry University Basck BExA Patentgate TAO and Chartered Institute of Procurement and Supply to name a few this is an indispensable guide for business to expand their goods services process and IP s into the global market Modernising European Union labour law Great Britain: Parliament: House of Lords: European Union Committee,2007-06-27 In its Green Paper about the need for labour market reform the European Commission argued that the increasing diversity of 21st century working relationships means that existing labour law is no longer adequate This report brings together the evidence from a wide range f experts and representative bodies about these issues as they affect the UK labour market It finds that the evidence does not support the Commission The consensus is that the relatively light regulation of the UK labour market is advantageous and that problems of social disadvantage and structural unemployment are better addressed by measures aimed at tackling poor skills and social inequality rather than changing labour law The report therefore recommends that efforts at EU level should focus on the promotion and sharing of good practice rather than the introduction of new legislation European Business Neil Harris, 1999-11-11 European Business 2nd edition explores the interaction between European business and their environment using up to date case studies Drawing upon a range of disciplines including economics organizational behaviour finance and business strategy it explores how and why modern businesses behave as they do and how and why the business environment is changing A central theme of this substantially updated second edition is the position of Europe within the global economy Also comprehensively examined is the developing nature of the European Union and the movement towards market economies in Central and Eastern Europe
