Southeast Asian Security in the New Millennium ,1996 South Asia Security Manan Dwivedi, 2009 The academic work titled as South Asia Security is a honest striving to delve into the notion of security in the South Asian Region which is under the arc of the Indian subcontinent The Book objectifies the differentiation between the traditional and convention notions of security which is avowedly power centric with the new tenet of Comprehensive Human security which entails the concerns of sustainable development Human Rights Gender Empowerment along with the notions of Globalization and all pervading tenet of Interdependence with the advent of neo liberal institutionalism The book aims to posit the traditional bilaterals in the South Asian firmament in the larger than life matrix of new age convergence and Interdependence

Security in the New Millennium Rajesh M. Basrur, 2001 In South Asia the expanded people centric conception of security is gradually finding voice Yet the older elitist notion of security remains well entrenched within the power structure of state and society In this volume eminent scholars from the region break out of the mould and draw attention to the diverse facets of security from the standpoint of the average South Asian man woman and child They explore vital security issues relating to economic well being ethnic identity religion gender and political legitimacy In doing so they seek a more comprehensive and democratic basis for the understanding of security in the region South Asia in 2020 Michael R. escalation to be contained by a mutual desire to avoid the nuclear threshold One only needs to look at the Kashmir conflict for confirmation of this paradox with serious crises coming more frequently with more severity since the nuclear tests of 1998 Sustained efforts along the line suggested by the contributors of this volume are a crucial step toward reducing nuclear risk on the Subcontinent Violence, Terrorism, and Human Security in South Asia Ajay Darshan Behera, 2008

Southeast Asian Perspectives on Security Derek Da Cunha, 2000 The conventional understanding of strategic issues in the modern world has been very much a Western driven phenomenon That is to say Western strategists thinkers and writers have tended to establish the principles of strategic concepts and to develop theories around them While there is utility in much Western strategic thought it is also apt to note that some of it does not have full relevance or validity when applied to a regional setting that is far removed from the geographical boundaries of the Western world In that connection this volume is partly intended to serve as an antidote to much of the Western commentary on Asia Pacific security issues by providing a range of perspectives on those issues from the Southeast Asian point of view It offers a range of Southeast Asian perspectives on the multifaceted security issues that confront the Asia Pacific region in the post Cold War era That there is no unitary perspective emanating from the region is symptomatic of the very fluid geopolitical situation that characterizes Asia Pacific security and of equal import the different schools of thought that analysts in the
