Denison, 2010-10-01 P I Noah Sommers has finally met his match He wants sexy Natalie Hastings so badly he ll do anything to have her including taking her in after a car accident leaves her with short term memory loss And protecting her when he learns she s acquired a stalker And harder still keeping his hands off her until she can remember Only he hadn t counted on Natalie making his job so difficult Natalie s world has been turned upside down Her only constant is her sexy fianc Noah And she wants him constantly Only all of a sudden he s acting noble But not for long Because Natalie s planning a seduction he ll never forget Before long Natalie has Noah right where she wants him in her bed and her heart If only Noah was the man Natalie thought he was     Gender and Action Films 1980-2000 Steven Gerrard, Renée Middlemost, 2022-11-24 Gender and

Action Films 1980 2000 offers insights into the intertwined concepts of gender and action and how their portrayal developed in the Action Movie genre during the final two decades of the twentieth century A necessity for academics students and lovers of film and media and those interested in gender studies     Popular Tropes of Identity in Contemporary Russian Television and Film Irina Souch, 2017-11-16 This book is an exploration of the changes in Russian cultural identity in the twenty years after the fall of the Soviet state Through close readings of a select number of contemporary Russian films and television series Irina Souch investigates how a variety of popular cultural tropes ranging from the patriarchal family to the country idyll survived the demise of Communism and maintained their power to inform the Russian people s self image She shows how these tropes continue to define attitudes towards political authority economic disparity ethnic and cultural difference generational relations and gender The author also introduces theories of identity developed in Russia at the same time enabling these works to act as sites of productive dialogue with the more familiar discourses of Western scholarship

Unsettling Stories Victoria Kuttainen, 2009-12-14 The first study of the synergies between postcolonialism and the genre of the short story composite Unsettling Stories considers how the form of the interconnected short story collection is well suited to expressing thematic aspects of postcolonial writing on settler terrain Unique for its comparative considerations of American Canadian and Australian literature within the purview of postcolonial studies this is also a considered study of the difficult place of the postcolonial settler subject within academic debates and literature Close readings of work by Tim Winton Margaret Laurence William Faulkner Stephen Leacock Sherwood Anderson Olga Masters Scott R Sanders Thea Astley Tim O Brien and Sandra Birdsell are positioned alongside critical discussions of postcolonial theory to show how awkward affiliations of individuals to place home nation culture and history expressed in short story composites can be usefully positioned within the broader context of settler colonialism and its aftermath Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann, 2000 Perhaps the most vital emotionally complex and lasting attachments between women occur between sisters Whether as best friends or antagonists sisters remain entangled in a common tapestry of mutual experience and remembrance family and history according to author Eva Rueschmann Although many of the women centered films in the last three decades depict the relationship between sisters as a pivotal aspect of a character's psychological development the now substantial body of feminist film criticism has not taken up this theme in any sustained way In Sisters on Screen Eva Rueschmann explores the sister bond in a wide range of modernist feature films that depart from the conventional cinematic rendering of women's lives Drawing on the psychoanalytic concept of intersubjectivity this book emphasizes the role of a woman's relationship and inner world in her continual quest for self knowledge Offering an original and absorbing perspective on women's filmic images Sisters on Screen reveals how post 1960s cinema has articulated the ways in which biological sisters negotiate mutuality and difference co author family histories and profoundly shape each other's political and personal identities The films in focus question standards of femininity as they probe into memory fantasy and desire bringing women's realities into view in the process Structuring her discussion in terms of life cycle stages adolescence and adulthood Rueschmann offers an in depth discussion of such films as An Angel at My Table Double Happiness Eve's Bayou Gas Food Lodging Heavenly Creatures Little Women Marianne and Julianne Paura e amore Peppermint Soda The Silence Sweetie and Welcome to the Dollhouse Rueschmann draws upon the works of filmmakers from the 1970s to the 1990s Some of the directors included in her study are Allison Anders Gillian Armstrong Ingmar Bergman Jane Campion Peter Jackson Mina Shum Diane Kurys Kasi Lemmons Todd Solondz and Margarethe von Trotta Sisters on Screen will appeal to anyone interested in women's studies film studies psychology psychoanalytic readings of cinema women directors and international modern film Author note Eva Rueschmann is Assistant Professor of Cultural Studies at Hampshire College Didn't I Warn You Amber Bardan, 2016-04-18 In this alpha driven romance perfect for fans of Vi Keeland and S L Jennings the price of one woman's passion is everything she holds dear Not everything dangerous is bad From the moment Angelina laid eyes on him she fell into a fantasy Mysterious foreign gorgeous Haithem offered her what she needed most a chance to feel again But Haithem is much more than he appears to be He lives in a world of danger where everything comes at a price For Angelina that price is her future He's ensured the life she's left behind is in tatters Made her family believe she's dead He talks about protecting her about keeping her safe but she can't distinguish his truth from his lies She can't separate her pleasure from his betrayal Haithem warned her He told her he'd make her heart race her body come alive and her most primal needs rush to the surface His for the taking He didn't say she'd come to love the devil who's destroying her even as he keeps her prisoner This book is approximately 74 000 words De-Extinction Rebecca E. Hirsch, 2017-01-01 In the twenty first century because of climate change and other human activities many animal species have become extinct and many others are at risk of extinction Once they are gone we cannot bring them back or can we With techniques such as cloning scientists want to reverse extinction and return lost species to the wild Some scientists want to create clones of recently extinct animals while others want to make new hybrid animals Many people are opposed to de extinction Some critics say that the work diverts attention from efforts to save species that are endangered Others say that de extinction amounts to scientists playing God Explore the pros and cons of de extinction and the cutting edge science that makes it possible Rethinking and Adventure Tourism Jennifer Laing,Warwick Frost,2014-08-04 This book examines the nexus between exploring and tourism and argues that exploration travel based heavily on explorer narratives and the promises of personal challenges and change is a major trend in future tourism In particular it analyses how romanticised myths of explorers form a foundation for how modern day tourists view travel and themselves Its scope ranges from the Golden Age of imperial explorers in the 19th and early 20th centuries through the growth of adventure and extreme tourism to possible future trends including space travel The volume should appeal to researchers and students across a variety of disciplines including tourism studies sociology geography and history The Representation of Masochism and Queer Desire in Film and Literature B.

Race in Modern Argentina Paulina Alberto,Eduardo Elena,2016-03-21 This book reconsiders the relationship between race and nation in Argentina during the twentieth and twenty first centuries and places Argentina firmly in dialog with the literature on race and nation in Latin America from where it has long been excluded or marginalized for being a white European exception in a mixed race region The contributors based both in North America and Argentina hail from the fields of history anthropology and literary and cultural studies Their essays collectively destabilize widespread certainties about Argentina showing that whiteness in that country has more in common with practices and ideologies of Mestizaje and racial democracy elsewhere in the region than has typically been acknowledged The essays also situate Argentina within the well established literature on race nation and whiteness in world regions beyond Latin America particularly other European settler societies The collection thus contributes to rethinking race for other global contexts as well Explorer Travellers

Mennel,2016-04-30 Defining masochism as literary perversion this book probes the productivity of masochistic aesthetics in the literature of Leopold von Sacher Masoch and contemporary queer films analysing radical accounts of desire gender and sexuality The Inner Male Herb Goldberg,1987-12 What Matters Most James Hollis,2009 Why are we here What is the meaning of existence What truly matters the most in life To even begin to answer these questions we must start by exploring our own internal ideals values and beliefs Presenting the unique perspective of respected analyst and author James Hollis Ph D What Matters Most helps readers learn to appreciate even be amazed by events unfolding within even as the external world creates constant struggles Seduced by Magic Cheyenne McCray,2006-10-03 Copper Ashcroft is an accomplished D Anu witch but the magic she wields is a potent force strong enough to hurl her into a mysterious Otherworld

when a spell backfires Before Copper can escape another being is pulled into her realm Tiernan a powerfully virile Tuatha D Danann warrior Blond blue eyed and shamelessly seductive Tiernan could be Copper s savior and his touch sets her body on fire Like others of his kind Tiernan stands alongside the D Anu witches to battle the demons of the Underworld Obligation to his cause and his people cautions against any entanglement with Copper yet each second spent with this beautiful uninhibited woman stirs an insatiable hunger Desire explodes into carnal bliss but the visions that haunt Copper s dreams are growing stronger and they foretell a terrifying evil waiting to be unleashed Saving the city will take more than brute strength more than witchcraft Only together can Copper and Tiernan find a way to overcome the dark forces and seize a passion that has bewitched them both
