Fifty-Two Secrets for Praying with Scripture Edward Pascal Cave,Rev. Edward Pascal Cave,2005-05 Many people today feel a great hunger for a deeper experience of God through prayer We are no longer satisfied with merely saying prayers we want to enter a more personal relationship with God himself This desire is a rare blessing in itself for only God can plant such a hunger within us A dimension of prayer which many Christians use as a step toward satisfying this hunger is the use of Scripture as a starting point for reflection and meditation For as we listen prayerfully to God's word we become more and more experientially aware of his loving abiding presence Often however it can be difficult to know where to begin when using the Bible in prayer The purpose of this book is to help people begin to pray with Scripture by offering the actual reading for an entire year of daily prayer

Jesus, the Christ Thomas Sutton,1999-10-25 I was raised in a Christian home I loved hearing stories about Jesus and his life here on earth Growing up I became less and less enthusiastic about my religion for several reasons One critical reason was a natural process As I matured I became more aware of the hypocrisy of religion You know Do as I say not as I do One day a week act like a Christian and the other six days be selfish greedy and a bigot At that time my faith wasn't strong enough to endure Now I know that if I look hard enough I can find hypocrisy in anything I pray that I've grown beyond the paradox My book is an attempt to make the first four books of the New Testament easy to read It's written in prose In other words it's a narrative of Jesus' life using the first four Gospels My book combines Matthew Mark Luke and John into a chronological narrative of Jesus' life It is written through the eyes of you as Peter The book is Scriptural It doesn't change alter or sensationalize the original versions of events In some instances I combine multiple versions of the same event into one My inspiration for writing this book is to bring enthusiasm about Jesus to Christians and new revelations to non Christians Scriptures quoted from The Holy Bible New Century Version copyright 1987 1988 1991 by Word Publishing Nashville TN Used by permission

Such Anxious Hours Jo Ann Daly Carr,2020-01-07 Letters from soldiers to their families often provide prominent narratives of the Civil War But what about the messages from the women who maintained homes and farmsteads alone all while providing significant emotional support to their loved ones at the front The letters and diaries of these eight women echo the ever growing horrors of the conflict and reveal the stories of the Wisconsin home front Twenty one year old Emily Quiner sought a way to join the war effort that would feed her heart and mind Annie Cox wrote to her pro slavery fianc to staunchly defend her abolitionist principles Sisters Susan Brown and Ann Waldo faced the unexpected devastation that each battle brought to families In Such Anxious Hours Jo Ann Daly Carr places this material in historical context detailing what was happening simultaneously in the nation state and local communities Civil War history enthusiasts will appreciate these enlightening perspectives that demonstrate the variety of experiences in the Midwest during the bloody conflict
