A Plan for Casey Joyce Armintrout, 2021-12-01

Roger and Casey have been friends since he came to her rescue at her junior prom. Now ten years later Roger is in love with her but she is unaware of his feelings and still considers them to be the friends they have always been. Casey's childhood dream of becoming a nationally known graphic design artist is on the verge of coming true. She has been offered a job that could make her dream become reality but if she takes it she will have to move two hundred fifty miles away from Hughesville. Roger is already living his childhood dream in Hughesville but he won't ask her to give up her dream just to stay there with him. Casey believes she can only achieve her lifelong dream in Chicago but she would never ask Roger to give up his dream and move there to be with her. They miss each other terribly but neither seems to be able to find a way to make their long distance relationship work for them so they regretfully agree to give up on each other and go their separate ways a decision that leaves them both miserable. Some very good friends believe that the couple should be together so they step in and try to make their own plans for Roger and Casey's future without either of them knowing anything about their efforts. 155

Gunbird Driver David A Ballentine, 2008-10-01. Gunbird Driver is a memoir of the Vietnam War as seen through the eyes of a young pilot flying an armed UH 1E's in Marine Observation Squadron 6. The book provides information about the missions, operations and the living conditions at Ky Ha and about the fellow Marines with whom he served. It also contains several chapters on shipboard operation from deployment aboard the USS Princeton. Parts of the book are deadly serious even sad as must be the case with any treatment of war; other parts are largely descriptive and some circumstances and situations are even humorous. The time was 1966-67, relatively early in the war, the year before the Tet Offensive. The squadron's activities ranged widely in I Corps, the northernmost military subdivision of South Vietnam, the one assigned to the Marines. Although the squadron and the air group to which it was attached, MAG 36, was assigned to the southern third of I Corps, it flew missions north along the DMZ at Khe Sanh, west of Phu Bai, and even into Laos in addition to those in their local Tactical Area of Responsibility. Written to preserve a record of the impressions and experiences of one young 1st Lieutenant flying a Marine Huey in the war-torn skies of Vietnam, it is also reflective of all who crewed the UH 1E's: pilots, crew chiefs, and door gunners. It is a memoir that will resonate with all who crewed a helo in during the Vietnam War. No other book has been written on the Vietnam War from the perspective of a Marine Corps UH 1E pilot flying armed escort missions for the Marines fighting the war on the ground.
