Reluctant Prophets and Clueless Disciples Robert Darden, 2005-02-01 It was once said that all a person has to do to realize God has a very good sense of humor is to look at a platypus The same sentiment applies to the Bible The Bible often seems like foreign territory not only for students encountering it in introductory classes but also for those who have spent many years in church To many people it is an intimidating collection of rules lists and theological arguments But in reality most of the Bible is made up of fascinating stories Sometimes they re funny sometimes they re weird sometimes they re inspiring but they re never dull This college level introduction invites students into biblical studies through creative humorous retellings and a few cartoons here and there of the basic biblical narratives The best way to get into the Bible says Robert F Darden is to get to know its stories In this new approach to introducing the Bible to students Darden covers the major biblical stories and characters retelling them in such a way as to bring out their original humor and pathos and inviting the student to encounter them more fully by moving into the text itself Click here to listen to

Terri Gross's interview with Robert Darden on NPR's Fresh Air about the Black Gospel Music Restoration Project. Darden runs the project at Baylor University where he is a journalism professor. A Long, Long Way Greg Garrett, 2020-05-04. From the beginning, American cinema has been both a powerful mythmaker and a social critic. D.W. Griffith's Birth of a Nation arguably the first feature film shows us just how early in its history cinema had established its influence. In 1915 it was the first movie to be screened at the White House. After the screening, President Woodrow Wilson is rumored to have said, "It's like history writ with lightning. And my only regret is that it is all terribly true." Birth of a Nation famously portrayed the Klu Klux Klan in a favorable light, a portrayal that contributed to the modern resurgence of the group and brought racist depictions of African Americans imported from the minstrel show to the silver screen. Such white fantasies of black American life have played out on our movie screens for the last century. In response, filmmakers of color have created nuanced and indelible portraits of race, as in Ava DuVernay's Selma or Barry Jenkins' Moonlight. Spike Lee's BlacKkKlansman shows us just how far into our culture Birth of a Nation has reached. In this powerful new book, Greg Garrett brings his signature brand of theologically motivated cultural criticism to bear on this history. After more than a century of cinema, he argues, movies have altered our cultural perspectives in the same way that religious narratives have. And in fact, religious traditions offer powerful correctives to our cultural narratives. A Long Long Way incorporates both cinematic and religious truth-telling to the subject of race and reconciliation. In acknowledging the racist history of America's national art form, Garrett offers the possibility of hope for the future. Setting Words On Fire Paul

Scott Wilson, 2016-04-25. A comprehensive introduction to preaching emphasizing the encounter with God's grace as the goal and heart of the sermon. Feasting on the Word David L. Bartlett, Barbara Brown Taylor, 2009-07-01. With this new lectionary commentary series, Westminster John Knox offers the most extensive resource for preaching on the market today. When complete, the twelve volumes of the series will cover all the Sundays in the three-year lectionary cycle along with movable occasions such as Christmas Day, Epiphany, Holy Week, and All Saints Day. For each lectionary text, preachers will find four brief essays, one each on the theological, pastoral, exegetical, and homiletical challenges of the text. This gives preachers sixteen different approaches to the proclamation of the Word on any given occasion. The editors and contributors to this series are world-class scholars, pastors, and writers representing a variety of denominations and traditions. And while the twelve volumes of the series will follow the pattern of the Revised Common Lectionary, each volume will contain an index of biblical passages so that nonlectionary preachers as well as teachers and students may make use of its contents.

Brown Taylor Book Jacket Wandering, Not Lost Barry L. Casey, 2019-11-01 A spiritual journey may take many forms from Dante's descent to the pits of Hell and up the other side to the bliss of Paradise to Pilgrim's progress or even to Billy Pilgrim unstuck in time in Vonnegut's Slaughterhouse Five. It could be Elijah running headlong into the desert or Jonah being flung ashore and shouting in Nineveh a petulant prophet to the end. Faith can be carried like pennies in the pocket or worn like a coat of many colors. Abraham and Moses, Mary and Peter, all of them carried their faith and all of them had their doubts. Doubt is the companion of faith and the mystery that bonds them together comes out in stories. These are stories of faith, doubt, and mystery. Not all who wander are lost. Faithful Disagreement Frances Taylor Gench, 2009-04-02 Conflict is all too common in the church today. But as Frances Taylor Gench reminds us in this book, conflict over scriptural interpretation has been with the church since its earliest days. Gench reflects on those early experiences of conflict, presenting substantive studies of biblical texts showing that discord such as Romans 14:15, Matthew 14, Jeremiah 28:1, Corinthians 12:14, John 13:17, and drawing lessons from each about how it informs current conflicts in the church. In the process, she provides a constructive resource to help Christians wrestle with Scripture in the midst of their disagreements. This innovative book can be used by individuals and in groups. Numerous study questions conclude each chapter. Living Water Robert P. Vande Kappelle, 2022-10-27 Everyone loves a good story: one with interesting characters, an intriguing plot, lots of twists and turns, and a surprise ending. Jesus was a master storyteller, teaching primarily through a technique we call parables. In fact, over one third of the gospel material in the New Testament is parabolic in nature. Examining the parables of Jesus, Living Water views parables as a wisdom genre belonging to mashal, the Jewish tradition of sacred poetry, stories, proverbs, riddles, and dialogues through which wisdom is conveyed. In the Hebrew Bible, the Old Testament mashal is often associated with perplexing sayings for its meaning is deliberately obscured in order to force the reader or listener to deeper thought and higher consciousness. While examining the parables of Jesus, Living Water focuses not so much on traditional explanations and interpretations but on their paradoxical and perplexing nature. In addition, this book encourages us to take a parabolic approach to all Scripture, viewing it as an aid to help us move from egoic existence to unitive existence. This Spirit-led way of living, thinking, and being requires a transformation from our False Self to our True Self, from dualist self-obsession to nondualist consciousness, characterized by risk-taking, compassion, generosity, availability, and joy, a path charted by the parables of Jesus. Benefitting from recent scholarly research, Living Water is unique in content and conception and is useful for individual or group study. Each chapter concludes with questions suitable for discussion or reflection. Yoked Andrew Kort, Mihee Kim-Kort, 2014-10-08 This collection of true stories is written by Mihee Kim Kort and Andy Kort, a married clergy couple who met while they were in seminary. They share their unique perspective on the joys and challenges of ministry in alternating segments, forming a collective narrative that illuminates the inner workings of a clergy marriage, even as it inspires with heartfelt tales of life in ministry. Throughout the book, Mihee and Andy relate their respective impressions of shared experiences revealing inherent differences and potential sources of conflict but also demonstrating how they work through their differences communicate and collaborate to make the most of their strengths With 20 years of ministry experience between them a blue Subaru Outback crammed full of child car seats an old dog named Ellis and life experience in three states Andy and Mihee have struggled with infertility survived the threat of foreclosure travelled abroad and led mission trips together and through it all remain yoked together This tale of endurance is only made possible by hard work sympathetic friends endless conversations countless cups of coffee and bottles of beer and the grace of God
