Seeing Arabs Through An American School:

Seeing Arabs Through an American School Robert F. Ober Jr., 2003-09-12 The author encountered the Arab world's full complexity while heading the largest American independent school abroad International College Beirut Lebanon The College serves 3500 Arab students preschool through high school Its nonsectarian program accommodates Muslim Druze and Christian families The author worked to strengthen the school's American attributes in an atmosphere beclouded by Israeli air attacks Hezbollah's resistance Syria's occupation and allegations of CIA involvement Indigenous ways of management that had become entrenched during wartime as well as board governance from afar added complications Despite everything the school is a model that deserves replication elsewhere in the Middle East especially after September 11 A reviewer in Connecticut observes As our national attention focuses more and more closely on that deeply troubled region Mr Ober's experiences as president of a large private school take on increased relevance Collectively his descriptions develop a complete picture of an ancient and proud culture that is only glimpsed in other parts of the world amid dramatic news copy and images of violence Litchfield County Times November 21 2003 Tchaikovsky 19, A Diplomatic Life Behind the Iron Curtain Robert F. Ober, 2009 Readers will discover the failures of Kissinger's policy of detente in the early 1970s the mistaken departure from Carter's balanced policy toward China and the USSR and the near collapse of the embassy due to intelligence failures Foreign Service Journal Ober's book recounts it all along with the personalities and events of the time now mostly forgotten dissidents and refuseniks Victor and Jennifer Louis Nina and Ed Stevens U S Soviet summits microwaves bugged buildings and typewriters fires spy dust and spy mania It's all there the pageant of U S Embassy Moscow 1970-90 a place so unlike today's walled air conditioned high rise embassy fortress a block away as to beggar the imagination Richard Gilbert AmericanDiplomacy.org You have wonderfully captured the way things were in the Soviet Union in the 1970s and 80s I don't know anyone who has done it better Donald Connery former Time Life correspondent Moscow Together with much wisdom about American diplomacy this rich memoir provides keen insight into Russian thinking and behavior George Feifer The Girl from Petrovka Intimate Selving in Arab Families Suad Joseph, 1999-12-01 The study of relationships a topic which has received considerable attention in Europe the United States and parts of Asia until now has not been addressed in the Arab world Here for the first time are articles written by native feminist scholars that focus on intimate Arab familial relationships and provide a scholarly discussion of gendering of the self the process of intimate selving in the Arab community The book is divided into three parts biographical and autobiographical ethnographic and literary accounts in which the authors identify key family relationships mother son brother sister mother daughter granddaughter co wives and father daughter and explore them in terms of shaping and defining gender in relation to others Modern Arabic poetry, 1800-1970 Moreh, 2023-09-20 Arabic literature is noted for its tradition conscious consistency and sophistication In the classical period poetry and prose reached a high level of refinement and attained standards which are still being applied in the modern Arab world today The literature of the modern post classical period is no less sophisticated being a vibrant and flourishing expression of the continued Arabic tradition The series Studies in Arabic Literature Supplements to the Journal of Arabic Literature founded in 1971 is concerned with all kinds of literary expression in Arabic including the oral and vernacular traditions of both the modern and the classical periods Studies in the series can be literary historical analytical or comparative in nature and can treat of individual works authors and genres as well as literary traditions in a wider context Studies dealing with the social political and philosophical backgrounds of Arabic literature are particularly welcome in the series The series comprises monographs thematic collections of articles handbooks textual editions and annotated translations Text editions are as a rule accompanied by a translation on facing pages both text editions and translations should include comprehensive critical introductions which give a full and proper appreciation of the text or texts in question

The Making of the Arab Intellectual Dyala Hamzah, 2012-11-27 In the wake of the Ottoman Empire s nineteenth century reforms as guilds waned and new professions emerged the scholarly estate underwent social differentiation Some found employment in the state s new institutions as translators teachers and editors whilst others resisted civil servant status Gradually the scholar morphed into the public writer Despite his fledgling status he catered for the public interest all the more so since new professionals such as doctors engineers and lawyers endorsed this latest social role as an integral part of their own self image This dual preoccupation with self definition and all things public is the central concern of this book Focusing on the period after the tax farming scholar took the bow and before the alienated intellectual prevailed on the contemporary Arab cultural scene it situates the making of the Arab intellectual within the dysfunctional space of competing states interests known as the Nahda Located between Empire and Colony the emerging Arab public sphere was a space of over and under regulation hindering accountability and upsetting allegiances The communities that Arab intellectuals imagined including the Pan Islamic Pan Arab and socialist sat astride many a polity and never became contained by post colonial states Examining a range of canonical and less canonical authors this interdisciplinary approach to The Making of the Modern Arab Intellectual will be of interest to students and scholars of the Middle East history political science comparative literature and philosophy

Arab American Children with Disabilities Jamal M. Al Khatib, 2016-07-22 Despite a proliferation of special education literature on racial minorities over the past three decades research and writing on Arab American children with disabilities remain remarkably sparse This book fills that gap by promoting culturally appropriate services for Arab American children with disabilities Special education and service providers in the U S including school psychologists rehabilitation counselors and social workers are increasingly likely to work with Arab Americans with disabilities By focusing on this marginalized minority population Al Khatib provides much needed context and direction for service providers and researchers working with the Arab American community Offering an overview of special education and the rights guaranteed under the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act IDEA this book also helps Arab American families understand the special education process and advocate for their children The Muslim Veil in North America Sajida Sultana Alvi,Homa Hoodfar,Sheila

McDonough,2003-02-06 The issue of veiling has been remarkably under researched and over ideologized In recent years the adoption of the veil has come to symbolize a brave expression of choice women reaching out to tradition but hoping it will not jeopardize their place in the larger North American society It is with this in mind that the Canadian Council of Muslim Women CCMW invited scholars in the fields of anthropology history sociology and Islamic studies to carry out a systematic study of issues surrounding different practices of the hijab among Muslim communities This book is the result of that study

Peters,2017-09-29 This volume examines the background to the rise of Islam The opening essays consider the broad context of nomad sedentary relations in the Near East thereafter the focus is on the Arabian peninsula and the history of the Arab peoples The following papers set out the political and economic structures of the pre Islamic period and are concerned to trace the evolution of religious beliefs in the area looking in particular at the role of local traditions and the impact of Jewish and Christian influences Reading Darwin in Arabic, 1860-1950 Marwa Elshakry,2014-01-06 In Reading Darwin in Arabic Marwa Elshakry questions current ideas about Islam science and secularism by exploring the ways in which Darwin was read in Arabic from the late 1860s to the mid twentieth century Borrowing from translation and reading studies and weaving together the history of science with intellectual history she explores Darwin s global appeal from the perspective of several generations of Arabic readers and shows how Darwin s writings helped alter the social and epistemological landscape of the Arab learned classes Providing a close textual political and institutional analysis of the tremendous interest in Darwin s ideas and other works on evolution Elshakry shows how in an age of massive regional and international political upheaval these readings were suffused with the anxieties of empire and civilizational decline The politics of evolution infiltrated Arabic discussions of pedagogy progress and the very sense of history They also led to a literary and conceptual transformation of notions of science and religion themselves Darwin thus became a vehicle for discussing scriptural exegesis the conditions of belief and cosmological views more broadly The book also acquaints readers with Muslim and Christian intellectuals bureaucrats and theologians and concludes by exploring Darwin's waning influence on public and intellectual life in the Arab world after World War I Reading Darwin in Arabic is an engaging and powerfully argued reconceptualization of the intellectual and political history of the Middle East
