Donald Ragsdale, 2009-01-14 In American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse Professor Ragsdale assesses American museums as means of visual persuasion He demonstrates that museums their contents and their manners of display are as capable of influencing visitors as speeches or advertisements and that an awareness of their social influence provides an insight into the cultural roles of museums. The book considers a diverse array of museums ranging from such national cultural icons as the Metropolitan Museum of Art and the Art Institute to such city museums as the Philadelphia Museum of Art and the Los Angeles Country Museum of Art and includes separate chapters on museums devoted to modern and contemporary art and to the specialized collections of individual connoisseurs In addition to these primarily art museums Professor Ragsdale assesses museums devoted to collections such as the National Air and Space Museum and to commemoration and remembrance such as the National World War II Museum and the US Holocaust Memorial Museum American Museums and the Persuasive Impulse makes an important contribution to the theory of persuasion and to visual communication art history and museology It utilizes a theory of visual signs based on the semiotic theory of C S Peirce In so doing it demonstrates that museum buildings the art and other objects contained within them and the spaces used for display may all be thought of in terms of means of social influence The J. Laurin, 2013-01-02 About the Image on the Front Cover This image is one the most endearing of all the sculptures made during the Classical Period of Athens It shows a husband and wife whose names inscribed above their heads are Philoxenos dressed in the uniform of a hoplite one of many foot soldiers fighting in phalanx formation wearing a metal helmet breastplate short tunic called exomis and sandals and holding a shield on his left arm and Philoumene his wife wearing a long robe called peplos flowing down yet attached at the waist with her hair in a snood and elevated shoes The pose is classic standing straight in serene elegance one knee bent as if they were ready to walk away from each other They gaze at each other for a tender and sad farewell and shake hands to express their mutual love and loyalty This scene is carved in relief on a grave stele made of marble white with a hue of grey from a quarry on the south side of Mount Pentelikon about ten miles northeast of Athens It may have been painted originally but the paint has disappeared The dimensions are 102 2 cm 40 in in height 44 5 cm 17 in in width and 16 5 cm 6 in in depth It is dated of about 400 BCE during the return to normal life in Athens after the end of the Peloponnesian War in 404 BCE The timing may indicate that the tribute was from the wife to her husband killed in action and for this reason that the gravestone was paid for by her wealthy family This image is reproduced here from the J Paul Getty Museum Villa Collection Malibu California 83 AA 378 See the Museums Handbook of the Antiquities Collection p 22 http www greekancienthistory com
