Slang and Its Analogues Past and Present John Stephen Farmer, 1896 My Lion's Heart Gareth Patterson, 2014-09-15 Environmentalist independent researcher and author Gareth Patterson has spent his entire adult life working tirelessly for the greater protection of African wildlife and more particularly for that of the lion Born in England in 1963 Gareth grew up in Nigeria and Malawi From an early age he knew where his life's path would take him it would be in Africa and his life's work would be for the cause of the African wilderness and its wild inhabitants His is an all encompassing African story From his childhood in West and East Africa to his study of a threatened lion population in a private reserve in Botswana to his work with George Adamson celebrated as the Lion Man of Africa we witness Gareth's growing commitment to his life's mission. This is nowhere more evident than in his account of his life as a human member of a lion pride experiencing life and death through its eyes as he successfully rehabilitated three famous orphaned lion cubs back into a life in the wilds. At considerable risk to his own personal safety he exposed the sordid canned lion industry in South Africa bringing this shameful practice to international attention. After moving to the Western Cape he took up the fight for the African elephant notably the unique endangered Knysna population and published his astonishing findings in his 2009 book The Secret Elephants. Perhaps unsurprisingly given the stressful nature of his work Gareth suffered a massive physical and mental breakdown in his forties which he discusses here for the first time with an openness that underlines his courage. Lesser men might have been broken but his lion's heart fought back and he ultimately overcame his illness. Gareth Patterson's long-awaited autobiography is a moving account of one man's single-minded dedication to the preservation of Africa's wildlife. It is also a stark reminder that if the human race does not want to lose Africa's priceless wild heritage there is no time to waste. The lion is my totem animal and this is the story of my life in Africa for the lion. How Monkeys See the World Dorothy L. Cheney, Robert M. Seyfarth, 1990. Cheney and Seyfarth enter the minds of vervet monkeys and other primates to explore the nature of primate intelligence and the evolution of cognition. This reviewer had to be restrained from stopping people in the street to urge them to read it. They would learn something of the way science is done something about how monkeys see their world and something about themselves the mental models they inhabit. Roger Lewin Washington Post Book World. A fascinating intellectual odyssey and a superb summary of where science stands. Geoffrey Cowley Newsweek. A once in the history of science enterprise. Duane M. Rumbaugh Quarterly Review of Biology. Humans and Lions Keith Somerville, 2019-07-10. This book places lion conservation and the relationship between people and lions both in historical context and in the context of the contemporary politics of conservation in Africa. The killing of Cecil the Lion in July 2015 brought such issues to the public's attention. Were lions threatened in the wild and what was the best form of conservation? How best can lions be saved from extinction in the wild in Africa amid rural poverty precarious livelihoods for local communities and an expanding human population. This book traces man's relationship with lions through history from hominids to the Romans through colonial occupation and independence to the present day. It concludes with an examination of the current crisis of conservation and the conflict between Western animal welfare concepts and sustainable development thrown into sharp focus by the killing of Cecil the lion. Through this historical account Keith Somerville provides a coherent evidence-based assessment of current human lion relations providing context to the present situation. This book will be of interest to students and scholars of environmental and African history wildlife conservation environmental management and political ecology as well as the general reader. A New English Dictionary on Historical Principles James Augustus Henry Murray, Henry Bradley, Sir William Alexander Craigie, Charles Talbut Onions, 1908. The Land of Footprints Stewart Edward White, 2019-12-11. In The Land of Footprints Stewart Edward White invites readers into the captivating wilderness of the American West blending vivid narrative with striking impressionistic descriptions of nature This fascinating work distinguished by its blend of adventure and philosophical reflection serves as a travelogue chronicling White s explorations in California s Sierra Nevada and the haunting beauty of the region s landscape Rich in ecological observations and psychological insight the text navigates the intricate relationships between nature humanity and the profound sense of place that underscores the human experience within the untouched wild terrain Stewart Edward White an early 20th century American novelist and adventurer drew upon his personal experiences in the rugged landscapes he traversed His profound appreciation for nature fostered during his numerous expeditions informs the anecdotes and reflections within this book White s writing influenced by his relationships with indigenous cultures and a deep understanding of the natural world provides a unique lens through which readers can converse with untamed America while contemplating the philosophical questions of existence and survival Recommended for lovers of nature writing and adventure narratives The Land of Footprints not only captures the splendor of the American wilderness but also reflects on the inner journey encountered during one s exploration White s eloquent prose and rich imagery will resonate with those who seek to understand the profound connections between man and nature making this work a timeless treasure for both scholars and casual readers alike

Memories of an Interesting Life Col. John H. Roush Jr, Col. John H. Roush, 2009-02-23 This volume presents a dramatic collection of significant combat experiences of 79 men in WWII as told from one combat veteran to another In the 86 chapters are stories involving all the various branches of combat service and all of the various theaters of war Within reminiscences veterans of dangerous encounters are much more apt to open up with details in discussions with men who have also experienced combat Many find it emotionally distressing to talk of the war with the general public or to recall the horrors of warfare This is not a history book nor any attempt to tell the big picture of grand campaigns Instead it is a collection of personal involvements in one at a time incidents of conflict Many ask what was it like in WWII for our conflicts in recent years have been vastly different Ballou's Monthly Magazine ,1881

Illustrated Outdoor World and Recreation ,1916 INTO THE EYES OF LIONS Graham Mercer, 2019-12-03 The adventures described in this book represent the realisation of a dream that in the author s boyhood seemed unthinkable His first safari in Kenya in 1962 was certainly low budget 12 for 2 days Later when working as a teacher in Dar es Salaam Tanzania he often spent weeks in some of the world s most celebrated national parks and reserves camping in tiny tents in the middle of the African bush The sometimes hazardous adventures and the good humoured camaraderie of those with whom the author travelled make this book an entertaining as well as interesting read Incidents with lions elephants rhinos buffaloes and other big game abound but safaris are not just about wild animals The author also describes the landscape of Africa as well as many of the other adventures that occurred to him during this time The general tone of the book is far from gung ho male chauvinism Like the bush itself it is predominantly one of tranquillity of being at one with the moment enhanced by the author s obvious love for life on safari and for wild life wild places and their conservation enlightened by a self deprecating sense of humour and sensitive deeply felt and lyrically expressed reflections The Animal Ethics Reader Susan J.
