Seeing through Nature:

Seeing Ourselves in Nature Jessica Fong, 2025-08-19 Discover the profound and joyous stories of Black and Brown nature educators In Seeing Ourselves in Nature author Jessica Fong asks how educators in the United States who are Black Indigenous or other people of color can create space for predominantly BIPOC children and families to reconnect to nature Recognizing the scarcity of stories from people of color in the predominately white literature surrounding nature education in the United States Fong sought out thirteen other BIPOC educators to share their rich and profound experiences with young children in nature Sharing these stories is a first step in the long road to making nature education equitable for all children In section one educators work toward liberation and justice by actively pushing against the pushdown of academics on children of color In section two community and cultural connections based in nature come to the forefront as educators share the importance of seeing Black and Brown faces in natural spaces both in real life and in the images found in books In section three prose and poetry stories from Black women become radical by virtue of their simplicity as they connect the students and families they serve by centering their experiences with nature In section four children harness their powerful curiosity and intrinsic motivation when interacting with nature

Animals as Seen Through God's Eyes Dwila R. Funk, 2014-06-30 Have you ever wondered what happens to your beloved pet when he or she dies Will you ever be able to see him or her again in heaven Or have you been plagued by the disturbing thought that animals are only here on earth for our enjoyment in this life but when they die that is it for them and they are gone forever This haunted me for decades until I finally got up enough courage to seek out the truth for myself I went to the word of God to conduct my own research This book is the result of my quest to find the truth about how God really sees animals and His plan for them I was astounded by the wealth of information that God shares in the Holy Bible regarding animals The answers are there hidden in His word All anyone needs to do is look Seeing Through the Veil Suzanne Conklin Akbari,2004-01-01 During the later Middle Ages new optical theories were introduced that located the power of sight not in the seeing subject but in the passive object of vision This shift had a powerful impact not only on medieval science but also on theories of knowledge and this changing relationship of vision and knowledge was a crucial element in late medieval religious devotion In Seeing through the Veil Suzanne Conklin Akbari examines several late medieval allegories in the context of contemporary paradigm shifts in scientific and philosophical theories of vision After a survey on the genre of allegory and an overview of medieval optical theories Akbari delves into more detailed studies of several medieval literary works including the Roman de la Rose Dante s Vita Nuova Convivio and Commedia and Chaucer s dream visions and Canterbury Tales The final chapter Division and Darkness centres on the legacy of allegory in the fifteenth century Offering a new interdisciplinary synthetic approach to late medieval intellectual history and to major works within the medieval literary canon Seeing through the Veil will be an essential resource to the study of medieval literature and culture as well as philosophy history of art and history of science The Analogy of Religion, to the Constitution and Course of Nature Joseph Butler,1857 How to See Nature Paul Evans,2020-03-25 Pack soup cheese and a copy of How To See Nature by the Bard of Wenlock Edge and Guardian diarist John Vidal With a title taken from the 1940 Batsford book this is nature writing for the modern reader Evans weaves historical cultural and literary references into his writing ranging from TS Eliot to Bridget Riley from Hieronymus Bosch to Napoleon It is a book both for those that live in the country and those that don t but experience nature every day through brownfield edge lands transport corridors urban greenspace industrialised agriculture and fragments of ancient countryside The essays include the The Weedling Wild on the wildlife of the wasteland ragwort rosebay willowherb giant hogweed and the cinnabar moth Gardens of Light about the creatures to be found under moonlight pipistrelle bats lacewings and orb weaver spider The Flow with tales from the riverbank estuaries and seas including kingfisher minnow otter and heron The Commons looks at meadowland with a human footprint with the Adonis blue butterfly horseshoe vetch skylark black knapweed and the six belted clearwing moth The author also looks at the wildlife returned to Britain such as wild boar and polecats and finds nature in and around landscapes as varied as a domestic garden or a wild moor The book ends with an alphabetical bestiary an idiosyncratic selection of British wildlife based on the author s personal encounters Universal Human Values Mr. Rohit Manglik,2024-09-24 Explores core human values like empathy and integrity fostering ethical decision making and social responsibility in personal and professional life A Description of the nature and number of Comets seen within five hundred years ... also, an account of various eruptions from the burning mountains, Vesuvius and Ætna, etc J. Groundless Paths Karl

Brunnholz, 2012-08-14 The Abhisamayalamkara summarizes all the topics in the vast body of the prajaparamita sutras Resembling a zip file it comes to life only through its Indian and Tibetan commentaries Together these texts not only discuss the hidden meaning of the prajaparamita sutras the paths and bhūmis of śrāvakas pratyekabuddhas and bodhisattvas but also serve as contemplative manuals for the explicit topic of these sutras emptiness and how it is to be understood on the progressive levels of realization of bodhisattvas Thus these texts describe what happens in the mind of a bodhisattva who meditates on emptiness making it a living experience from the beginner's stage up through buddhahood Groundless Paths contains the first in depth study of the Abhisamayalamkara the text studied most extensively in higher Tibetan Buddhist education and its commentaries from the perspective of the Nyingma School of Tibetan Buddhism This study consists mainly of translations of Maitreya's famous text and two commentaries on it by Patrul Rinpoche These are supplemented by three short texts on the paths and bhūmis by the same author as well as extensive excerpts from commentaries by six other Nyingma masters including Mipham Rinpoche Thus this book helps close a long standing gap in the modern scholarship on the prajaparamita sutras and the literature on paths and bhūmis in mahayana Buddhism Arya Maitreya's Ornament of Clear Realization with its Indian and Tibetan commentaries presents the complex dynamics of the path to liberation as a succession of realizations of the empty nature of all phenomena This presentation is a powerful antidote to whatever two dimensional views we might hold about spiritual experience and the journey to enlightenment
