Children in Literature - Children's Literature International Federation for Modern Languages and Literatures. Congress, Paul Neubauer, 2002 The focus of the papers selected for this volume ranges from the establishment of regional and national literatures for the young to the presentation and characterization of youth and adolescence in diverse forms and formats of literature The changing goals of canonized texts for educational as well as inspirational purposes are reflected in the diversity of historical and cultural policies of instruction and emancipation through literary and poetical works historical and sociological aspects dominate these questions addressed to individual works as well as to whole literatures designed for children On the other hand the structural properties of children's literature and the actual reception of representative texts by child readers provide an equally fruitful area of psychological pedagogical or aesthetic investigation Here the rewriting of different kinds of literatures for the use of children receives as much attention as the creation of works aiming especially at the youthful readership of a given age and area in this context of critical evaluations a variety of adaptations and reconceptualizations is presented from medieval Portuguese historiography to Michel Tournier's changing configurations of his own works for different audiences

Ogoni's Agonies Abdul Rasheed Na'allah, 1998 The book offers a wide range of perspectives on the crisis It includes detailed historical analyses of the Ogoni people of Nigerian politics and of the international responses to the Saro Wiwa execution It also includes a strong body of critical responses to the work of Ken Saro Wiwa and to his importance as a Nigerian intellectual and activist      Contemporary Authors New Revision John Jorgensen, Daniel Jones, 1997-11 In response to the escalating need for up to date information on writers Contemporary Authors New Revision Series brings researchers the most recent data on the world's most popular authors These exciting and unique author profiles are essential to your holdings because sketches are entirely revised and up to date and completely replace the original Contemporary Authors entries For your convenience a soft cover cumulative index is sent biannually      The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 1992      Joint Acquisitions List of Africana, 1992      The Whole Story John E.
