Seinte Katerine:

Virgin Martyrs Karen A. Winstead, 2018-05-31 Stories of the torture and execution of beautiful Christian women first appeared in late antiquity and proliferated during the early Middle Ages A thousand years later virgin martyrs were still the most popular female saints Their legends in countless retellings through the centuries preserved a standard plot the heroine resists a pagan suitor endures cruelties inflicted by her rejected lover or outraged family works miracles and dies for Christ That sequence was embellished by incidents emblematic of the specific saint Juliana's battle with the devil Barbara's immurement in the tower Katherine's encounter with spiked wheels Karen A Winstead examines this seemingly static story form and discovers subtle shifts in the representation of the virgin martyrs as their legends were adapted for changing audiences in late medieval England

Women in Christianity in the Medieval Age Laura Kalas, Roberta Magnani, 2024-12-10 This volume offers a comprehensive introduction to and investigation of the multivocality of women's experience in the Middle Ages In medieval Europe women saw their role in the Christian Church and society progressively confined to conflicting models of femininity epitomised by the dichotomy of Eve Mary Classical views of gender predicated on misogynistic dichotomies which confined women to matter and the corruption of the flesh were consolidated in powerful male dominated clerical institutions and widely disseminated Towards the end of the Middle Ages however women's corporeality and somatic spirituality contributed to and influenced burgeoning modes of piety centred around the cult of the Virgin Mary and the veneration of the suffering body of Christ on the Cross This shift in devotional practices afforded women as bodily beings the space for an increased level of self expression self realisation and authority Ranging from philosophical and theological enquiry to education and art as well as medical sciences and popular beliefs the essays in this collection account for the complexities and richness of the conceptualisations and lived experiences of medieval Christian women The book will be especially relevant to students and scholars of religion and history with an interest in medieval studies and gender Whilst expounding the key strands of thinking in the field it engages with and contributes to some of the latest scholarly research

The Katherine Group (MS Bodley 34), 2016-10-10 The Katherine Group brings together for the first time newly edited and translated versions of three dynamic saints' lives The Lives of Saints Katherine Margaret and Juliana a quirky but rhetorically persuasive guide to virginity Hali Meidenhad and a psychologically astute sermon Sawles Warde The Guardianship of the Soul These works are important witnesses to the development of Middle English writing after the Conquest and to the rigorous anchoritic spiritual life pursued by female recluses in medieval England

Mysticism and Spirituality in Medieval England William F. Pollard, Robert Boenig, 1997 The late fourteenth and early fifteenth centuries in England were a golden age of mysticism the major figures could draw on and allude to a host of treatises as the Cloud author acknowledges when he explains how the works of St Denis validate all he writes about Without

Denis without the theologians of the eleventh and twelfth centuries without the anchoritic writings of the thirteenth century Richard Rolle Julian of Norwich Walter Hilton Margery Kempe could not have written as they did Likewise those who followed them the Wycliffites the Brigittines the writers of religious lyrics responded to those who had gone before The articles presented here identify major themes and the web of influence that link them new but solid interpretations are offered of the key figures and their backgrounds and the emphasis is on the rich variety of mysticism these authors and texts embody

Women and Devotional Literature in the Middle Ages Cate Gunn, Liz Herbert McAvoy, Naoë Kukita Yoshikawa, 2023 Essays on women and devotional literature in the Middle Ages in commemoration and celebration of the respected feminist scholar Catherine Innes Parker Silence was a much lauded concept in the Middle Ages particularly in the context of religious literature directed at women Based on the Pauline prescription that women should neither preach nor teach and should at all times keep speech to a minimum the concept of silence lay at the forefront of many devotional texts particularly those associated with various forms of women's religious enclosure Following the example of the Virgin Mary religious women were exhorted to speak seldom and then only seriously and devoutly However as this volume shows such gendered exhortations to silence were often more rhetorical than literal The contributions range widely they consider the English Wooming Group texts and female authored visionary writings from the Saxon nunnery of Helfta in the thirteenth century works by Richard Rolle and the Dutch mystic Jan van Ruusbroec in the fourteenth century Anglo French treatises and books housed in the library of the English noblewoman Cecily Neville in the fifteenth century and the resonant poetics of women from non Christian cultures But all demonstrate the ways in which silence rather than being a mere absence of speech frequently comprised a form of gendered articulation and proto feminist point of resistance They thus provide an apt commemoration and celebration of the deeply innovative work of Catherine Innes Parker 1956-2019 the respected feminist scholar and a pioneer of this important field of study

Medieval Mobilities Basil Arnould Price, Jane Elizabeth Bonsall, Meagan Khoury, 2023-01-01 This collection explores the intersection of gender and mobility across the Global Middle Ages Medieval Mobilities questions how medieval people texts images and ideas move across physiological geographical literary and spiritual boundaries In what ways do these movements afford new configurations of gender sexuality and being Enacting a dialogue between medieval studies feminist thought and queer theory Medieval Mobilities proposes that attending to the undulations of premodern gender and sexuality may help destabilize unstated assumptions about ways of being and loving in the Middle Ages This volume also brings together emergent and established scholars to challenge an increasingly static academy and instead envision a scholarly practice focused on intergenerational international and interdisciplinary collaboration Drawing upon wide range of primary sources and theoretical frameworks the resultant essays unsettle the imagined fixity of gender and propose alternative conceptualizations of embodiment identity and difference in the medieval world      Calendar of the Close Rolls Preserved in the Public Record Office England. Court of Chancery,1900      Christina of Markyate Samuel Fanous,Henrietta Leyser,2005 Beautifully illustrated and drawing on research from a wide range of disciplines this interdisciplinary study provides students with a fascinating and comprehensive collection that surveys the life of an extraordinary medieval woman      The Cult of St Katherine of Alexandria in Early Medieval Europe Christine Walsh,2017-05-15 St Katherine of Alexandria was one of the most popular saints in both the Orthodox and Latin Churches in the later Middle Ages yet there has been little study of how her cult developed before c 1200 This book redresses the balance providing a thorough examination of the way the cult spread from the Greek speaking lands of the Eastern Mediterranean and into Western Europe The author uses the full range of source material available including liturgical texts hagiographies chronicles and iconographical evidence bringing together these often disparate sources to map the way in which the cult of St Katherine grew from its early stages in the Byzantine Empire up to c 1100 its transmission to Italy and the introduction and development of the cult in Normandy and England up to c 1200 The book also includes appendices listing early manuscripts containing Katherine s Passio and including key original texts on St Katherine of the period This study will be welcomed by scholars of medieval history and the history of medieval art and as a case study for all those with an interest in the development of medieval saint s cults      Writing Religious Women Christiania Whitehead,Denis Renevey,2000-01-01 This collection of commissioned essays explores women s vernacular theology through a wide range of medieval prose and verse texts from saints lives to visionary literature Employing a historicist methodology the essays are sited at the intersection of two discursive fields female spiritual practice and female textual practice The contributors are primarily interested in the relation of women to religious books as writers receivers and as objects of representation They focus on historical approaches to the question of women s spirituality and generically unrestricted examinations of issues of female literacy book ownership and reading practice The essays are grouped under four main themes the influence of anchoritic spirituality upon later lay piety Carthusian links with female spirituality the representation of femininity in Anglo Norman and Middle English religious poetry and veneration performance and delusion in the Book of Margery Kempe      Images of Sainthood in Medieval Europe Renate Blumenfeld-Kosinski,2019-05-15 This handsomely illustrated book suggests new ways of understanding a cultural institution central to the spiritual and artistic imagination of the Middle Ages Bringing together fourteen essays by contributors representing a number of disciplines it illuminates issues including the place of sanctity in society the role of gender in the representation of sainthood and the use of hagiographic conventions in other genres      Middle English Legends of Women Saints Martha G Blalock,Wendy R Larson,Sherry L Reames,2003-03-01 Middle English Legends of Women Saints presents a collection of saints Lives intended to suggest the diversity of possibilities beneath the supposedly fixed and predictable surfaces of the legends using multiple retellings of the same legend to illustrate that medieval readers and listeners did not just passively receive saints legends but continually and actively appropriated them The collection opens with legends about two royal or supposedly royal women Frideswide and Mary Magdalen and continues with those of three popular virgin martyrs Margaret of Antioch Christina of Tyre and Katherine of Alexandria The final portion of the collection is devoted to St Anne mother of the Virgin Mary The collection includes a number of relatively unknown texts that have not appeared in print since Horstmann s transcriptions in the nineteenth century and a few that have never before been published
