English and French Towns in Feudal Society Rodney Howard Hilton,1995-05-04 This is a comparative study of the role of English and French towns in feudal society in the middle ages In bringing together much material which dissolves old categories and simplifications in the study of medieval towns Professor Hilton provides an important new perspective on medieval society and on the nature of feudalism He argues that medieval towns were not as is often thought the harbingers of capitalism and emphasises the way in which urban social structures fitted into rather than challenged feudalism
