PostNegritude Visual and Literary Culture Mark A. Reid, 1997-01-01 In the 1960s and 1970s the civil rights movement and other national and cultural movements fractured dominant paradigms of American identity and demanded a reformulation of American values and norms This book borrows the moral ethical and political purposes of these movements to show how film literature photography and television news broadcasts construct essentialist myths about race gender sexuality and nation It also examines how some visual and literary works and public reactions challenge these essentialist myths by exploring racial sexual and national anxieties

Lynchings in Mississippi Julius E. Thompson, 2015-06-08 Lynching occurred more in Mississippi than in any other state During the 100 years after the Civil War almost one in every ten lynchings in the United States took place in Mississippi As in other Southern states these brutal murders were carried out primarily by white mobs against black victims The complicity of communities and courts ensured that few of the more than 500 lynchings in Mississippi resulted in criminal convictions This book studies lynching in Mississippi from the Civil War through the civil rights movement It examines how the crime unfolded in the state and assesses the large number of deaths the reasons the distribution by counties cities and rural locations and public responses to these crimes The final chapter covers lynching's legacy in the decades since 1965 an appendix offers a chronology

Children's Authors and Illustrators Joyce Nakamura, 1995 This fifth edition eliminates the time consuming need to search through unrelated sources for biographical information on the people who create books for young readers It contains over 200 000 biographical citations for about 30 000 persons found in more than 650 reference books Citing a wide variety of biographical sources it covers the prominent well known authors as well as those less prominent providing clues to rare hard to find biographies

Afro-American Writers from the Harlem Renaissance to 1940 Trudier Harris, Thadious M.

Davis,1987 Contains alphabetically arranged entries that provide career biographies of thirty four African American writers active between the Harlem Renaissance and 1940 each with a list of principal works and a bibliography A Human Necklace Moira Ferguson,2013-12-01 Argues that Paule Marshall s work collectively constitutes a multigenerational saga of the African diaspora across centuries and continents From Brown Girl Brownstones 1959 to The Fisher King 2000 Paule Marshall s novels novellas and short stories include a rich cast of unforgettable men women and children who forge spiritual as well as emotional and geographical paths toward their ancestors In this the first critical study to address all of Marshall s fiction Moira Ferguson argues that Marshall s work collectively constitutes a multigenerational saga of the African diaspora across centuries and continents In creating a space for her characters interrupted lives and those of their elders and ancestors Ferguson argues Marshall trains a spotlight on slavery s wake and engages her fiction in the service of healing deep global wounds In sophisticated yet accessible discussions Ferguson places Marshall s work in a variety of contexts that are at the center of diasporic and postcolonial studies By producing this comprehensive examination of Marshall s fiction she captures the way in which Marshall not only writes about diasporic experiences but through the interconnected themes of her novels is crafting a diasporic saga on the subject Sharon M Harris author of Dr Mary Walker An American Radical 1832 1919 Biographical Books, 1950-1980 R.R.
