Selected Letters Michael Tippett:

Selected Letters of Michael Tippett Thomas Schuttenhelm, 2019-11-19 Throughout his life which spanned the greater part of the twentieth century 1905-1998 Sir Michael Tippett was a prolific letter writer. He wrote to a vast number of people over the years including family friends and lovers, colleagues in the music world, journalists, poets, dramatists, and politicians. Published to coincide with the centenary of Tippett's birth, these carefully selected letters provide us with a first-hand account of the composer's private and professional experiences, revealing a uniquely personal view which until now has remained largely unknown to the public. Bearing witness to the atrocities and advancements of the twentieth century, these letters display a fiercely creative mind struggling to construct a universal artistic expression. His correspondence places the reader at the composer's side within the historical moment as a witness to the creative process. Writing open, uninhibited letters became common practice for Tippett; his candid tone, lending itself to tackling a wide range of personal and social issues. From the bombing of his cottage in Oxted to the ecstatic experience of artistic breakthrough that led to progress on a new composition, each new event and accomplishment is documented with clarity and urgency. The Cambridge Companion to Michael Tippett Kenneth Gloag, Nicholas Jones, 2013-01-17 This Companion provides a wide-ranging and accessible study of one of the most individual composers of the twentieth century. A team of international scholars shed new light on Tippett's major works and draw attention to those that have not yet received the attention they deserve. The Orchestral Music of Michael Tippett Thomas Schuttenhelm, 2014-02-06 Thomas Schuttenhelm's book presents an investigation into Michael Tippett's creative process and a comprehensive critical commentary on his orchestral music.

Michael Tippett Oliver Soden, 2019-04-18 A delight to read Philip Pullman's Essential reading, a genuine landmark publication. Tom Service, A BBC Radio 4 Book of the Week. The music of the British composer Michael Tippett, including the oratorio A Child of Our Time, five operas and four symphonies, is among the most visionary of the twentieth century. But little has been written about his extraordinary life. In this long-awaited first biography, Oliver Soden weaves a century-spanning narrative of epic scope and penetrating insight. His achievement is to have enriched our understanding not only of Tippett but of the twentieth century. Figures such as T. S. Eliot, E. M. Forster, Barbara Hepworth, and W. H. Auden jostle in the cast list. An Edwardian world of gaslight and empire cedes to turmoil and warfare, and his operas game-changing attitudes to gay and civil rights against a backdrop of the Cold War and the Space Race. The result is a landmark in the study of twentieth-century culture, simultaneously an astonishing feat of scholarship and a story as enthralling as in any great novel. Verse Drama in England, 1900-2015 Irene Morra, 2016-10-20 Verse Drama in England 1900-2015 provides a critical and historical exploration of a tradition of modern dramatic creativity that has received very little scholarly attention. Exploring the emergence of a distinctly modern verse drama at the turn of the century and its development into the twenty-first, it counters common assumptions that the form is a marginal, fundamentally outdated curiosity. Through an examination of the extensive and diverse engagement of literary and theatrical writers directors and musicians Irene Morra identifies in modern verse drama a consistent and often prominent attempt to expand upon revitalize and redefine the contemporary English stage Dramatists discussed include Stephen Phillips Gordon Bottomley John Masefield James Elroy Flecker T S Eliot W H Auden Ronald Duncan Christopher Fry John Arden Anne Ridler Tony Harrison Steven Berkoff Caryl Churchill and Mike Bartlett The book explores the negotiation of these dramatists with the changing position of verse drama in relation to constructions of national and communal audience aesthetic challenge and dramatic heritage Key to the study is the self conscious positioning of many of these dramatists in relation to an assumed mainstream tradition and the various critical responses that that positioning has provoked The study advocates for a scholarly revaluation of what must be identified as an influential and overlooked tradition of aesthetic challenge and creativity Michael Tippett's Fifth String Quartet Thomas

The Pre-history of 'The Midsummer Marriage' Roger Savage, 2019-08-13 The Pre history of The Midsummer Marriage examines the early collaborative phase 1943 to 1946 in the making of Michael Tippett s first mature opera and charts the developments that grew out of that phase Drawing on a fascinating group of Tippett s sketchbooks and a lengthy sequence of his letters to Douglas Newton it helps construct a narrative of the Tippett Newton collaboration and provides insights into the devising of the opera s plot both in that early phase and in the phase from 1946 onwards when Tippett went on with the project alone The book asks who was Newton and what kind of collaboration did he have then cease to have with Tippett What were the origins of and shaping factors behind the original scenario and libretto drafts How far did the narrative and controlling concepts of Midsummer Marriage in its final form tally with and how far did they move away from those that had been set up in the years of the two men s collaboration the pre historic years The book will be of particular interest to scholars and researchers in opera studies and twentieth century music

Battles of Conscience Tobias Kelly, 2022-05-05 A ground breaking new study brings us a very different picture of the Second World War asking fundamental questions about ethical commitments Accounts of the Second World War usually involve tales of bravery in battle or stoicism on the home front as the British public stood together against Fascism However the war looks very different when seen through the eyes of the 60 000 conscientious objectors who refused to take up arms and whose stories unlike those of the First World War have been almost entirely forgotten Tobias Kelly invites us to spend the war five of these individuals Roy Ridgway a factory clerk from Liverpool Tom Burns a teacher from east London Stella St John who trained as a vet and ended up in jail Ronald Duncan who set up a collective farm and Fred Urquhart a working class Scottish socialist and writer We meet many more objectors along the way people both determined and torn and travel from Finland to Syria India to rural England Edinburgh to Trinidad Although conscientious objectors were often criticised and scorned figures such as Winston Churchill and the Archbishop of Canterbury supported their right to object at least in principle suggesting that liberty of conscience was one of the freedoms the nation was fighting for And their rich cultural and moral legacy of humanitarianism and human rights from Amnesty International and Oxfam to the US civil rights movement can still be felt all around us The personal and political struggles carefully and vividly collected in this book tell us a great deal about personal and collective freedom conviction and faith war and peace and pose questions just as relevant today Does conscience make us free Where does it take us And what are the costs of going there An excellent book DAILY TELEGRAPH A moving tribute
