Selected Poems 1950 To 1975:

Selected Poems 1950-1975, 1980 Articulate Flesh Gregory Woods, 1987-01-01 Discusses the themes of the male body war and homosexual love in poetry and analyzes the poetry of D H Lawrence Hart Crane W H Auden Allen Ginsberg and Thom Gunn The Art of Restraint Richard Hoffpauir, 1991 Richard Hoffpauir argues that the works of the best poets have found ways of not capitulating to contemporary reality and outlines the terms of the debate by setting the weaknesses of Yeats against the strenghts of Hardy Subsequent chapters discuss the nature poetry of Edward thomas the war poetry of Graves Blunden and Gurney the love poetry of Bridges Lawrence and Graves and the political and social verse of Rickword Daryush Betjeman and Larkin A History of Modern Poetry David Perkins, 1987 This study of British and American poetry from the mid 1920s to the recent past clarifies the complex interrelations of individuals groups and movements and the contexts in which the poets worked The Letters of Thom Gunn Thom Gunn, 2022-05-24 The Letters of Thom Gunn presents the first complete portrait of the private life reflections and relationships of a maverick figure in the history of British and American poetry I write about love I write about friendship remarked Thom Gunn I find that they are absolutely intertwined These core values permeate his correspondence with friends family lovers and fellow poets and they shed new light on one of the most singular and compelling poets in English during the past half century Hugh Haughton The Times Literary Supplement The Letters of Thom Gunn edited by August Kleinzahler Michael Nott and Clive Wilmer reveals the evolution of Gunn s work and illuminates the fascinating life that informed his poems his struggle to come to terms with his mother s suicide settling in San Francisco and his complex relationship with England his changing relationship with his life partner Mike Kitay the LSD trips that led to his celebrated collection Moly 1971 and the deaths of friends from AIDS that inspired the powerful unsparing elegies of The Man with Night Sweats 1992 The Columbia History of British Poetry Carl R. Woodring, James Shapiro, 2007-09-07 The Columbia Anthology of British Poetry brings together the most remarkable verse written in the British Isles over the course of the past twelve centuries offering the greatest diversity of poetic voices in any anthology of its kind From Shakespeare s memorable sonnets to Keats s haunting odes to T S Eliot s mediations on the conditions of modern life the collection contains many of the best loved treasures of British poetry Longer and much celebrated poems that rarely find their way into anthologies including Pope s Rape of the Lock and Coleridge s Rime of the Ancient Mariner claim a place in this collection Queen Elizabeth I Anne Killigrew Aphra Behn Elizabeth Barrett Browning and Felicia Hemans are among dozens of women writers renowned in their own day and now restored to their rightful prominence Scottish Welsh and Irish poets often excluded from anthologies of British poetry are here as well including such extraordinary voices as Lady Grisell Baillie Robert Burns Hugh MacDiarmid and Seamus Heaney The finest contemporary poets are fully represented also from Thom Gunn to Eavan Boland The result is an amazingly rich and wide ranging conversation among British poets that transcends the boundaries of time and place Carl Woodring and James Shapiro the team scholars who edited The Columbia History of British Poetry have written incisive introductions to the careers of the poets making this the most accessible and comprehensive anthology of British verse in print. Covering the new and the ancient, the classic and the rediscovered, this generous volume reimagines the horizons of British poetry. Gods and Mortals Nina Kossman, 2001. More than perhaps any other folkloric tradition, whether oral or written, the myths of classical Greece and Rome have survived and pervaded the consciousness of lands far flung from their source. The mythic world of the ancients, peopled by glamorous gods and unstoppable heroes in which the mortal and immortal commingled, is even now a living presence in 21st century culture rather than a literary relic. Whether we know them by their Roman or their Greek names, Artemis or Minerva, Poseidon or Neptune, the figures of these ancient myths captured the imagination of culture after culture across the globe, inspiring writers, artists, musicians, and those of us who comprise the audience for their works. Can it be a coincidence that the greatest poets of the western world have each at one point tried their hand at retellings? Kossman's anthology assembles some of the best of these poems, inspired by ancient myths, organizing them by theme and allowing the reader to compare one against the other. For example, one section assembles poems telling the stories of mythic lovers: Cupid and Psyche, Orpheus and Eurydice, another the many tales of miraculous transformations: Pygmalion and Galatea, Echo and Narcissus. With such a wide variety of the world's best poets to choose from, from all over the world and from any era since classical times, Kossman has had no difficulty creating a literary pantheon. Included are D. H. Lawrence, Derek Walcott, Rita Dove, Denise Levertov, Rilke, Pound, and Yeats. The collection should be a treasure for the innumerable devotees of both myth and poetry.

British Marxist Criticism Victor N. Paananen, 2021-12-12. British Marxist Criticism provides selective but extensive annotated bibliographies, introductory essays, and important pieces of work from each of eight British critics who sought to explain literary production according to the principles of Marxism.

Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s J. Russell Perkin, 2021-06-15. The 1970s in Britain saw a series of industrial disputes, a referendum on membership in the European Economic Community, conflict about issues of immigration and citizenship, and emergent environmental and feminist movements. It was also a decade of innovation in the novel, and novelists often addressed the state of the nation directly in their works. In Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s, Russell Perkin looks at social novels by John Fowles and Margaret Drabble, the Cold War thrillers of John le Carr, Richard Adams's best-selling fable Watership Down, the popular campus novels of Malcolm Bradbury and David Lodge, Doris Lessing's dystopian visions, and V. S. Naipaul's explorations of post-colonial displacement. Many of these highly regarded works sold in large numbers and have enjoyed enduring success, a testament to the power of the political novel to explain a nation to itself. Perkin explores the connections between the novel and politics, situating the works it discusses in the rich context of the history and culture of the decade, from party politics to popular television shows. Politics and the British Novel in the 1970s elucidates a period of literary history, now fifty years in the past, and offers a balanced perspective on the age, revealing that these works not only represented the politics of the time but played a meaningful role in them Performing the Body/Performing the Text Amelia Jones, Andrew Stephenson Nfa, Andrew Stephenson, 2005-08-12 This book explores the new performativity in art theory and practice examining ways of rethinking interpretive processes in visual culture Since the 1960s visual art practices from body art to minimalism have taken contemporary art outside the museum and gallery by embracing theatricality and performance and exploding the boundaries set by traditional art criticism The contributors argue that interpretation needs to be recognised as much more dynamic and contingent Offering its own performance script and embracing both canonical fine artists such as Manet De Kooning and Jasper Johns and performance artists such as Vito Acconci and Gunter Brus this book offers radical re readings of art works and points confidently towards new models for understanding art
