Patrick Deane

Selected Poems 1964 1983:

Selected Poems, 1964-1983 Douglas Dunn, 1986 At Home in Time Patrick Deane, 1994-09-13 The presence of these values Deane contends is not a curiosity but part of a vital and discernible tradition of modern neo Augustanism that has been previously overlooked By tracing these writers common interest in Horace John Dryden and Samuel Johnson he uncovers important links between seemingly diverse modern poets Deane challenges the whole interpretation of literary modernism which has traditionally linked the modern poets to the Romantics and seen both as anti Augustan Deane concludes that these modern poets share a ready and pragmatic acceptance of linear time within which all acts of artistic and social creativity must take place a crucial factor in both the form and substance of their writings That art language and society are inseparable under such conditions was a bracing thought for the young Auden but a potentially disturbing one for more recent poets The Oxford Handbook of Contemporary British and Irish Poetry Peter Robinson, 2013-09-26 This Handbook offers an authoritative and up to date collection of original essays bringing together ground breaking research into the development of contemporary poetry in Britain and Ireland Contemporary British Poetry James Acheson, Romana Huk, 1996-01-01 This collection of original essays focuses on new and continuing movements in British Poetry It offers a wide ranging look at feminist working class and other poets of diverse cultural backgrounds The Language of Twentieth Century Poetry Lesley Jeffries, 1993-09-28 This book draws on examples from throughout the twentieth century to illustrate the diversity of techniques used in this century s poetry Organised according to linguistic themes rather than chronologically the chapters introduce the reader to the more subtle uses of sound structure and meaning as well as illustrating well known techniques handed down from the poetic tradition Examples are taken from the famous writers of the twentieth century such as Yeats Eliot and Plath and from less well known poets The book culminates in a chapter which draws together the linguistic themes into an integrated analysis of two rather different poems Edinburgh Book of Twentieth-Century Scottish Poetry Maurice Lindsay, 2019-08-05 No detailed description available for The Edinburgh Book of Twentieth Century Scottish Poetry Tony Harrison and the Holocaust Antony Rowland, 2001-06-01 This book argues that Tony Harrison s poetry is barbaric It revisits one of the most misquoted passages of twentieth century philosophy Theodor Adorno s apparent dismissal of post Holocaust poetry as impossible or barbaric His statement is reinterpreted as opening up the possibility that the awkward and embarrassing poetics of writers such as Harrison might be re evaluated as committed responses to the worst horrors of twentieth century history Most of the existing critical work on Harrison focuses on his representation of class which occludes his interest in other aspects of historiography The poet s predilection for establishing links between the atrocities perpetrated by the Nazis the bombing of Hiroshima and Nagasaki and the prospect of global annihilation is examined as a commitment to oppose the dangers of linguistic silence Hence Harrison s work can be read fruitfully within the growing field of Holocaust Studies his texts enter into arguments about the ethics of representing traumatic incidents that still haunt the contemporary Harrison's status as a non-victim author of the events is stressed throughout His writing of the Holocaust allied bombings and atom bomb is mediated by his reception of the events through newsreels as a child and his adoption and subversion as an adult poet of traditional poetic forms such as the elegy and sonnet This book also discusses the ways in which Holocaust literature engages with a number of concepts challenged or altered by the historical events such as love mourning memory humanism culture and barbarism articulacy and silence International Who's Who in Poetry

2005 Europa Publications, 2004-08-02 The 13th edition of the International Who's Who in Poetry is a unique and comprehensive guide to the leading lights and freshest talent in poetry today Containing biographies of more than 4 000 contemporary poets world wide this essential reference work provides truly international coverage In addition to the well known poets talented up and coming writers are also profiled Contents Each entry provides full career history and publication details An international appendices section lists prizes and past prize winners organizations magazines and publishers A summary of poetic forms and rhyme schemes The career profile section is supplemented by lists of Poets Laureate Oxford University professors of poetry poet winners of the Nobel Prize for Literature winners of the Pulitzer Prize for American Poetry and of the King's Queen's Gold medal and other poetry prizes Speaking to You Natalie Pollard, 2012-08-30 Speaking to You explores the work of four important poets writing post 1960 Don Paterson Geoffrey Hill W S Graham and C H Sisson in order to show how contemporary British poetry's creative handling of addresses to you are key in its interactions with readers critics lovers editors fellow poets and deceased forebears Poetry Richard Bradford, 2010-11-17 Richard Bradford's new introduction to poetry begins with and answers the slippery question what is poetry The book provides a compact history of English poetry from the 16th century to the present day and surveys the major critical and theoretical approaches to verse It tackles the important issues of gender race and nationality and concludes with a lengthy account of how to recognise good poetry This engaging and readable book is accessible to all readers from those who simply enjoy poetry through university first years to graduate students Poetry The Ultimate Guide provides the technical and critical tools you need to approach and evaluate poetry and to articulate your own views
