Joseph Bernardin Steven P. Millies, 2016 As a priest archbishop and president of the US bishops conference Cardinal Joseph Bernardin lived a ministry marked by thoughtfulness compassion and conviction Relying on interviews with the cardinal s assistants friends and family members as well as on some previously unavailable archival material Steven P Millies explores Bernardin s controversial seamless garment approach to life issues his founding of the Catholic Common Ground Initiative the disturbing abuse allegations against him that were later recanted and his experience of cancer that prompted him to write the bestselling book The Gift of Peace and that ultimately took his life Millies offers a fresh new portrait of one of the most remarkable Catholic leaders of the twentieth century

The Art of Dying and Living Kerry Walters, 2011 Earlier generations of Christians studied classic ars moriendi manuals on the art of dying to help them face and embrace morality They learned from these books something our own generation is in danger of forgetting that the manner in which one dies very much depends on the manner in which one has lived The author explores the connection between living and dying well by recounting the stories of seven exemplary people of our time and the particular virtues they embodied
