Complete Poems and Collected Letters of Adelaide Crapsey Susan S. Smith, 2016-06-15 This book presents the poetry and letters of the American writer Adelaide Crapsey 1878 1914 Her best poetry deserves to be enjoyed by a larger audience and her letters and newly discovered biographical materials reveal new charm and meaning in an intriguingly elusive character Crapsey did not live to see any of her mature poetry published she received notice that her first poem had been accepted for publication only a week before she died Posthumous editions of her Verse in 1915 1922 and 1934 however brought her recognition and respect Carl Sandburg paid her a poetic tribute American critic Yvor Winters praised her as a minor poet of great distinction and felt that her poems remained in their way honest and acutely perceptive Her best work is compressed terse related in this respect to the work of another American poet who won posthumous recognition Emily Dickinson Crapsey is best known as the inventor of the cinquain a poem of five short lines of unequal length one stress two stress three stress four stress and one stress The cinquain is one of the few modern verse forms developed in English and its brevity and characteristic thought pattern seem to have been influenced by Japanese forms Crapsey's indebtedness to Japanese poetry and her relation to Imagism have long been subjects for debate As Winters notes the work of Crapsey achieves more effectively than did almost any of the Imagists the aims of Imagism The critical introduction by Professor Susan Sutton Smith examines these problems Much of Crapsey's poetry is reticent withdrawn and private and she believed strongly in the individual's right to privacy Whatever new biographical materials reveal of her and of her relations with family and friends however shows a charming and courageous woman Her courage and humor show especially well in her correspondence with her friend Esther Lowenthal and in the letters with her friend Jean Webster McKinney author of Daddy Long Legs who died soon after Crapsey

The Man Who Wrote the Perfect Novel Charles J. Shields, 2018-10-15 An engrossing biography of a brilliant novelist underappreciated in his own time who became a twenty first century bestseller from the New York Times bestselling author The New Yorker When Stoner was published in 1965 the novel sold only a couple of thousand copies before disappearing with hardly a trace Yet the quietly powerful tale of Midwestern college professor William Stoner whose life becomes a parable of solitude and anguish eventually found an admiring audience in America and especially in Europe The New York Times called Stoner a perfect novel and a host of writers and critics including Colum McCann Julian Barnes Bret Easton Ellis Ian McEwan Emma Straub Ruth Rendell C P Snow and Irving Howe praised its artistry The New Yorker deemed it a masterly portrait of a truly virtuous and dedicated man This biography traces the life of Stoner s author John Williams Charles J Shields follows the whole arc of Williams s life which in many ways paralleled that of his titular character from their shared working class backgrounds to their undistinguished careers in academia Shields vividly recounts Williams s development as an author whose other works include the novels Butcher s Crossing and Augustus for the latter Williams shared the 1972 National Book Award Shields also reveals the astonishing afterlife of Stoner which garnered new fans with each American reissue and then became a bestseller all over Europe after a Dutch publisher brought out a translation in 2013 Since then Stoner has been published in twenty one countries and sold over a million copies Like Williams Shields know how to tell a good story one that will appeal especially to those interested in the ins and outs of the publishing industry and the ups and downs of a writer s life Los Angeles Review of Books

Asphalt Georgics Hayden Carruth, 1985 America s paved over landscape dotted with its oases of shopping malls and franchise strips is the setting for Hayden Carruth s Asphalt Georgics a new collection of thirteen poems in the common speech of Upstate New York Here are the voices of Charlie Spaid talking of the death of his landlady Marge of Septic Tank musing on his own peculiar name of old Capper Kaplinski still watching the girls pass by of Art and Poll back in the old neighborhood What they tell about their lives is hardly what they themselves would ever expect to read in the pages of a book of poetry Yet to capture the rhythms of their very colloquial language Hayden Carruth has invented a new verse form his Georgics quatrains in strict syllables and rhyme though with no accentual pattern which achieve by their special artifice a classic and earthy elegance
