Selected Prose Christina Rossetti:

Selected Prose of Christina Rossetti D. Kent, P. Stanwood, 1998-05-27 Christina Rossetti is recognized as the leading woman poet of the nineteenth century in England. Despite recent attention to her life in the form of three new biographies and to her poetry, Rossetti's prose works remain largely inaccessible to students and scholars. For the first time, an edited volume of selected prose by this important Victorian woman artist is made available to her readers. Selected Prose of Christina Rossetti presents the prose works in three modes: expository prose including her two essays on Dante and two of her contributions to the Imperial Dictionary of Universal Biography on Leopardi and on Petrarch; fiction including the novella Maude; several of her short stories; and Speaking Likenesses, and judicious excerpts from her devotional prose which consists of six volumes published over a period of eighteen years. This collection will be of interest to specialists in Victorian literature and women's studies as well as to the general reader.

Poems and Prose Christina Rossetti, 2008-10-09 The mystery of Life, the mystery of Death, I see darkly as in a glass. Christina Rossetti, 1830-94 is perhaps the most contradictory of the great Victorian poets. She writes of the world's beauty but fears that it may be deceptive even deadly. She is a religious poet but much of her work is driven by uncertainty. Her poems are restrained even secretive but they seek nothing less than the mystery of Life and Death. This edition contains Rossetti's strongest and most distinctive work: poetry including Goblin Market, The Prince's Progress, and the sonnet sequence Monna Innominata; stories including the complete text of Maude; devotional prose with nearly fifty entries from the reading diary Times Flies; and personal letters. Those poems which Rossetti published and those which she withheld from publication are here brought together in chronological order, allowing the reader to observe her poetic trajectory. This edition also records the major revisions made by Rossetti when preparing her poems for publication. It brings together the fullest range of Rossetti's poetry and prose in one volume and is an indispensable introduction to this entrancing writer.

ABOUT THE SERIES For over 100 years Oxford World's Classics has made available the widest range of literature from around the globe. Each affordable volume reflects Oxford's commitment to scholarship, providing the most accurate text plus a wealth of other valuable features including expert introductions by leading authorities, helpful notes to clarify the text, up-to-date bibliographies for further study, and much more.

Christina Rossetti and Illustration Lorraine Janzen Kooistra, 2002 Lorraine Janzen Kooistra's reading of Rossetti's illustrated works reveals for the first time the visual-verbal aesthetic that was fundamental to Rossetti's poetics. Her thorough archival research brings to light new information on how Rossetti's commitment to illustration and attitudes toward copyright and control influenced her transactions with publishers and the books they produced.

Christina Rossetti's Feminist Theology L. Palazzo, 2002-03-13 This volume disputes the assumption that Rossetti was a follower of Keble and Pusey and shows how her dissatisfaction with the male-dominated call to celibacy led her to reject their notions of worldliness and to form a closer bond with the physical world and the body.

Christina Rossetti and the Bible Elizabeth Ludlow, 2014-10-23 Through theologically engaged close readings of her poetry and devotional prose this book explores how Christina Rossetti draws on the Bible and encourages her Victorian readers to respond to its radical message of grace Structured chronologically each chapter investigates her participation in the formation of Tractarian theology and details how her interpretative strategies changed over the course of her lifetime Revealing how her encounter with the biblical text is informed by devotional classics Christina Rossetti and the Bible highlights the influence of Thomas a Kempis John Bunyan George Herbert and John Donne and describes how Rossetti adapted the teaching of the Ancient and Patristic Fathers and medieval mystics It also considers the interfaces that are established between her devotional poems and the anthology and periodical pieces alongside which they were published throughout the second half of the nineteenth century

Catholic Women Writers Mary Reichardt, 2001-07-30 Women have been writing in the Catholic tradition since early medieval times yet no single volume has brought together critical evaluations of their works until now The first reference of its kind Catholic Women Writers provides entries on 64 Catholic women writers from around the world and across the centuries Each of the entries is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography of the author a critical discussion of her works especially her Catholic and women s themes an overview of her critical reception and a bibliography of primary and secondary sources Authors writing in all genres including fiction autobiography poetry children s literature and essays are represented The entries give special attention to the authors use of Catholic themes structures traditions culture and spirituality The writers surveyed range from Doctors of the Church to mystics and visionaries to those who employ Catholic themes primarily in historical and cultural contexts to those who critique the tradition An introductory essay places the writers within the historical and literary contexts of women s writing in the Catholic tradition and the volume closes with a selected general bibliography criticism Outsiders Looking In considers the position that the Anglo Italian Rossettis occupied in the cultural melee of mid Victorian London a status that was both central and fringe owing to their dual nationality Victorian Women Poets Virginia Blain, 2014-01-21 There has been a huge revival of interest in Victorian women's poetry in the last ten years and it has led to a major reconfiguration of the English poetic landscape of the nineteenth century This title offers a key selection of poems by 13 Victorian women poets from Christina Rossetti and Felicia Hemans to the witty iconoclastic May Kendall The book starts with a substantial general Introduction which places the work of the poets into a context both historical that of the poems production and modern that of their past and present reception Each poet's work is introduced by an expansive headnote which tells the story of her life and writing career The poems all have full explanatory notes to help readers unfamiliar with the period A Bibliography lists general sources as well as useful further readings Written in an engaging and accessible manner the extensive annotations throughout Victorian Women Poets ensure that this fascinating poetry is enjoyable for undergraduate and non specialist readers Christina Rossetti's Environmental Consciousness Todd

Williams, 2019-05-01 Christina Rossetti's Environmental Consciousness takes a cognitive ecocritical approach to Rossetti's writing as it developed throughout her career This study provides a unique understanding of Rossetti's identity as an artist through a cognitive model while also engaging significantly with her spiritual relationship to the nonhuman world Rossetti was a deliberate and conscious creator who used her writing for therapeutic purposes to create contemplate maintain verify and revise her identity Her understanding of her autobiographical self and her place in the world often comes through observations and poetic treatments of the nonhuman Rossetti her speakers and her characters seek spiritual knowledge in the natural world and share this knowledge with an audience In nature Rossetti finds evidence for and guidance from a loving God who offers salvation Her work places a high value on nature from a Christian perspective that puts conservation over renunciation She frequently uses strategies that have now been identified by Christian environmentalist such as retrieval ecojustice stewardship and ecological spirituality With new readings of popular works like Goblin Market and A Birthday along with treatments of largely neglected works like Verses 1847 and Rossetti's devotional writings Christina Rossetti's Environmental Consciousness offers an understanding of Rossetti's processes and purposes as a writer and displays new potential for her work in the face of twenty first century environmental issues
