Selected Speeches Writings:

Frederick Douglass Philip S. Foner, Yuval Taylor, 2000-04-01 One of the greatest African American leaders and one of the most brilliant minds of his time Frederick Douglass spoke and wrote with unsurpassed eloquence on almost all the major issues confronting the American people during his life from the abolition of slavery to women's rights from the Civil War to lynching from American patriotism to black nationalism Between 1950 and 1975 Philip S Foner collected the most important of Douglass's hundreds of speeches letters articles and editorials into an impressive five volume set now long out of print Abridged and condensed into one volume and supplemented with several important texts that Foner did not include this compendium presents the most significant insightful and elegant short works of Douglass's massive oeuvre Indira

Abraham Lincoln: Selected Speeches and Writings Abraham Lincoln, 2009-07-30 The most essential writings of America's heroic Civil War president complete with detailed notes a chronology of Lincoln's life and political career and an introduction by the novelist Gore Vidal Ranging from finely honed legal argument to wry and some sometimes savage humor to private correspondence and political rhetoric of unsurpassed grandeur the writings collected in this volume are at once a literary testament of the greatest writer ever to occupy the White House and a documentary history of America in Abraham Lincoln's time They record Lincoln's campaigns for public office the evolution of his stand against slavery his electrifying debates with Stephen Douglas his conduct of the Civil War and the great public utterances of his presidency including the Emancipation Proclamation and the Gettysburg Address Library of America Paperback Classics feature authoritative texts drawn from the acclaimed Library of America series and introduced by today's most distinguished scholars and writers The contents of this Paperback Classic are drawn from Abraham Lincoln Speeches and Writings 1832 1858 and Abraham Lincoln Speeches and Writings 1859 1865 volumes number 45 and 46 in the Library of America series They are joined in the series by a companion volume number 192s The Lincoln Anthology Great Writers on his Life and Legacy from 1860 to Now

Selected Speeches and Writings of Theodore Roosevelt Theodore Roosevelt, 2014-04-22 Theodore Roosevelt 1858 1919 was America's most published president with an incredible output of writing including forty books over a thousand articles and countless speeches and letters Collected here in one volume are examples of Roosevelt's voluminous writings over a dazzling array of topics Organized by general categories readers can sample writings on subjects as varied as the environment the danger of professional sports the famous charge of San Juan Hill and Roosevelt's passion for literary criticism From addresses and presidential messages on public policy and national ideals to biography to travel writing to ecological concerns to writings on hunting to international politics and history Roosevelt's talents and achievements as a writer went far beyond what we now expect of our public leaders Roosevelt's legacy as one of the first progressive American politicians his concerns about environmentalism his internationalism and his unflinching belief in the American character and destiny uncannily speak to the issues of our own day and can be found in the pages of this representative and judicious anthology of his work Selected Speeches and Writings Konstantin Chernenko,2016-06-06 Selected Speeches and Writings Selected speeches ... on public questions John Bright,1907 Not for the Record Arnold Goodman Baron Goodman,1972 The Keys of Power Nathan Crick,2017-08-31 Examines Transcendentalism as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Nathan Crick has crafted a new critical rhetorical history of American Transcendentalists that interprets a selection of their major works between the years 1821 and 1852 as political and ethical responses to the growing crises of their times In The Keys of Power Crick argues that one of the most enduring legacies of the Transcendentalist movement is the multifaceted understanding of transcendental eloquence as a distinct rhetorical genre concerned primarily and self consciously with questions of power Crick examines the Transcendentalist understanding of how power is constituted in both the self and in society conceptualizing the relationships among technology nature language and identity critiquing the ethical responsibilities to oneself the other and the state and defining and ultimately praising the unique role that art action persuasion and ideas have in the transformation of the structure of political culture over historical time What is offered here is not a comprehensive genealogy of ideas a series of individual biographies or an effort at conceptual generalization but instead an exercise in narrative rhetorical theory and criticism that interprets some of the major specific writings and speeches by men and women associated with the Transcendentalist movement Sampson Reed Amos Bronson Alcott Orestes Brownson Ralph Waldo Emerson Margaret Fuller Henry David Thoreau and Frederick Douglass by placing them within a specific political and social history Rather than attempting to provide comprehensive overviews of the life and work of each of these individuals this volume presents close readings of individual texts that bring to life their rhetorical character in reaction to particular exigencies while addressing audiences of a unique moment This rhetoric of Transcendentalism provides insights into the keys of power that is the means of persuasion for our modern era that remain vital tools for individuals seeking to reconcile power and virtue in their struggle to make manifest a higher ideal in the world Catalogue of Books in the Mercantile Library, of the City of New York.
