Selected Works Of Mao Tse Tung 3 Volumes:

Mao Tse-Tung's Theory of Dialectic F.Y.K. Soo,2012-12-06 The year 1979 ushered in a new phase in China's long and continuous revolution. Currently this new phase is being symbolically referred to by the Chinese leaders themselves as the New Long March, a continuation of the legendary and historical Long March in terms of modernization which comprises the Four Modernizations: Agriculture, Industry, Science and Technology, and Military Defense. Such an all-encompassing attempt at modernization may appear to some at least to be something new or may indicate a radical shift in her policy. But upon closer examination this decision seems only to reflect an historical continuity in terms of the two major long-term goals of the Chinese Revolution: national independence and modernization or industrialization. The former would make China strong; the latter wealthy. For ever since the Opium War in 1840 and throughout the Revolutions of 1911 and 1949, China has always pursued these two revolutionary goals, though with different emphases at different times. This has been especially true during the past three decades as this twofold goal has dictated all of China's important policies, both domestic and foreign. In other words, while the concrete policies may have appeared to be lacking in unity at times, they have been formulated with the specific intent of achieving national independence and modernization. From this perspective, the New Long March marks the passage of post-Mao China beyond the transition of succession toward the continued pursuit of the same revolutionary goals.

Revolutionary Subjectivity in Post-Marxist Thought Oliver Harrison,2016-04-08 Since the onset of the Global Financial Crisis, the ideas of Karl Marx have once again become prominent in social and political thought. This book turns to Marx's theory of revolutionary subjectivity as a means of assessing the work of three contemporary global theorists: Ernesto Laclau, Antonio Negri, and Alain Badiou, considered here together for the first time. The Strategy of Maoism in the West Jones, David M.,Smith, M. L.R.,2022-06-16 Investigating 20th-century Chinese ideology through the two main elements of passionate belief and cultivation of rage, this timely book examines how Maoist thinking has influenced Western politics.

Localizing Governance in India Bidyut Chakrabarty,2017-02-17 Participatory governance has a long history in India, and this book traces historical intellectual trajectories of participatory governance and how older Western discourses have influenced Indian policymakers. While colonial rulers devolved power to accommodate dissenting voices for independent India, participatory governance was a design for democratizing governance in its true sense. Participation also acted as a vehicle for localizing governance. The author draws on both Western and non-Western theoretical treatises, and the book seeks to conceptualize localizing governance also as a contextual response. It also makes the argument that despite being located in different socio-economic and political milieus, thinkers converge to appreciate localizing governance as perhaps the only reliable means to democratize governance. The book aims to confirm this argument by reference to sets of evidence from the Indian experience of localizing governance. By attempting a genealogy of participatory governance in the West and in India and an empirical study of participatory governance in India, the book sheds light on the exchange of ideas and concepts.

Chinese Military Strategy in the Third Indochina War Edward C. O'Dowd,2007-04-16 This well researched volume examines the Sino Vietnamese hostilities of the late 1970s and 1980s attempting to understand them as strategic operational and tactical events The Sino Vietnamese War was the third Indochina war and contemporary Southeast Asia cannot be properly understood unless we acknowledge that the Vietnamese fought three not two wars to establish their current role in the region The war was not about the Sino Vietnamese border as frequently claimed but about China's support for its Cambodian ally the Khmer Rouge and the book addresses US and ASEAN involvement in the effort to support the regime Although the Chinese completed their troop withdrawal in March 1979 they retained their strategic goal of driving Vietnam out of Cambodia at least until 1988 but it was evident by 1984-85 that the PLA held back by the drag of its Maoist organization doctrine equipment and personnel was not an effective instrument of coercion Chinese Military Strategy in the Third Indochina War will be of great interest to all students of the Third Indochina War Asian political history Chinese security and strategic studies in general Farewell To China's Gdp Worship Jinzao Li,2017-12-28 Economic and social development is and will be the main task in the long run in China and development is the basis and key to solve the problems faced Although people have been criticising its limitations for reasons of one sort or another no better alternative index has ever been put forward GDP is still commonly used all over the world not only as a fundamental and comprehensive indicator for economic analysis but also as an important basis for many rules and evaluations It is impossible to abolish GDP but it is now the time to bid farewell to its worship By saying goodbye to China's GDP worship the role of GDP may be downplayed and restored to its original position In modern China in order to adhere to the essential guideline that development is the absolute principle it is necessary to steadfastly undertake scientific development pay more attention to the people place more emphasis on comprehensive concerted and sustainable development give priority to the overall consideration of various aspects of development and make more efforts to protect and improve people's livelihood and promote social equality and justice In light of the spirit of scientific outlook on development it is imperative to establish new concepts an evaluation system and an assessment mechanism on economic and social development especially to accelerate the transformation of the mode of economic development It will be a profound change covering the entire process and various aspects of economic and social development It is a requirement of the times and also a choice to be made at such a new and historical starting point Based on the outstanding research findings of many visionaries and the initial practices in some local areas in recent years this book proposes to switch the focus to multi dimensional and comprehensive indicators from GDP alone and establish a new economic and social evaluation system that is abandon the GDP centred evaluation system or GDP worship and adopt a comprehensive evaluation system for economic and social development embodying the scientific outlook on development the comprehensive development index CDI Aesthetics and Marxism Kang Liu,2000-03-10 Liu s study examines writers philosophers and political leaders in China and the West and reveals the extent to which they incorporate ideas about culture and aesthetics in their theories and practices Marxism in Asia Colin Mackerras,Nick Knight,2015-04-17 Marxism is a theory which originated in the context of nineteenth century industrialised Europe Despite its European origins Marxism has actually found greatest significance as a doctrine for change in the context of the underdeveloped peasant societies of Asia This paradox has only been resolved through adaptation of Marxism to suit the specific features of particular Asian societies There has consequently been a differentiation of Marxism along national lines In this book first published in 1985 the theoretical and practical implications for this national differentiation of a universal European theory are explored followed by a more detailed analysis of the manner in which Marxism has developed during different historical periods in particular Asian contexts
