Rice, 2009-07-10 In 2007 then presidential candidate Barack Obama called Reinhold Niebuhr 1892-1971 his favorite philosopher Reinhold Niebuhr Revisited offers fresh and creative ways of looking at this influential American theologian's views on religion, politics and culture through the eyes of diverse respected scholars

Formation and the Person Alessandro Manenti, Stefano Guarinelli, Hans Zollner, 2007 This book gathers the foundational concepts which characterise the approach to the person as human and as Christian which has been developed at the Institute of Psychology of the Pontifical Gregorian University during its more than 35 years of activity The book directs these concepts towards further paths for investigation and puts them in dialogue with sister schools of depth psychology and with other areas of scholarship in particular philosophy and theology which are equally interested in exploring the human mystery Hence the variety of authors psychologists philosophers and theologians brought together by a common interest in understanding and forming the human person in better ways The reflections contained in this book gain concrete expression in an educative therapeutic practice and they review the nodal points which are part of every journey of growth and of psychotherapy personal identity interaction with the external world and the attainment of personal truth inner imagination desires and affections conflicts Instruments are offered to enable the formator and the psychotherapist to make the best possible use of the great energies which are made available by their application how to identify the real problem where to concentrate one's attention what to listen to how to handle the relationship on what element to act in order to promote improvement cure what kind of change to propose While accompaniment and psychotherapy are different procedures they nevertheless have many similarities and points of contact The dynamic relations and the factors involved in growth which this book describes are valid for both modalities of intervention and will be of interest to anyone who wishes to help others in a more enlightened educative dialogue

Self-Deception and Wholeness in Paul and Matthew Dan O. Via, 2005-10-18 Via uses the concept of self-deception as a vantage point for understanding something about Paul and Matthew Employing an existential method in the broad sense Via asks about the nature of a pervasive phenomenon of human existence with some attention given to psychological aspects Nevertheless this study is primarily exegetical and interpretive aimed at theological understanding rather than intensively methodological Positing that self-deception is a deformation Via undertakes to pay attention primarily to the subversion of the self and the recovery of wholeness Additionally attention is paid to self-deception as a social phenomenon and some consideration is given to its social causes and implications

Subjectivity and Transcendence Arne Grøn, Iben Damgaard, Søren Overgaard, 2007 The book has its origins in a conference entitled Subjectivity and Transcendence which was held at the Danish National Research Foundation Center for Subjectivity Research University of Copenhagen Denmark in November 2003 However the book is not a conference proceedings volume

Pref A Theological Anthropology of Self-Realization Jennifer Slater O.P, 2012-07-31 The book addresses the intriguing

problem of human self realization precisely because of the diverse uses of the term which ranges from abstract philosophical theological theories to practical psychological spiritual applications Jennifer Slater draws the concept from Karl Rahner the twentieth German theologian who uses the term self realization in his theology on freedom and symbolism relating it to the basic free choice which the human person makes to be for or against God Divine Jennifer Slater explores this fundamental free choice which is at the same time a basic choice about oneself She writes from the understanding that the human person is radically free to become the choices she or he makes and freedom is the capacity for definitive self realization In the book she shows that in the exercising of freedom humans precisely as historical beings are also transcendent beings Jennifer grapples with the perception that since human self realization involves the power to make decisions which in reality actualizes a persons own reality how then does this self realization come about and where does the Divine fit into the process If self realization is related to the human self and to the Divine Self she then questions what constitutes the self and self realization This struggle practically employs the woman in general and in particular the woman consecrated to a vowed life The pervasive question throughout is What constitutes the self realization of a human woman being Behold the Man! Marion Lars Hendrickson, 1998 John Macquarrie explicates an anthropological Christology Wolfhart Pannenberg holds to a Christological anthropology Paradoxically the two together provide a fuller understanding of both Christology and anthropology The anthropological field upon which this book compares the two theologians thought is essential to explicate a fully human Jesus to human beings and what this fully human Jesus reveals about God With the anthropological setting in common Macquarrie and Pannenberg pursue their Christology in such very different ways that they provide a compelling invitation for comparison
