Becoming Artists Carina Rech,2021

The Art of Reflection Marsha Meskimmon,1996 Marsha Meskimmon examines a wide variety of women s self portraiture from performance to body art in lively and accessible prose She takes the cultural focus from the dominant male self portraiture to the more marginalized gender bringing women artists perspectives to the forefront

"Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550?800 " JuliaK. Dabbs,2017-07-05 The struggles and achievements of forty six notable women artists of the early modern period as documented by their contemporaries are uniquely brought together in this anthology The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari s Lives of the Artists the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well known women artists such as Artemisia Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola but also those who have languished in obscurity like Anna Waser and Li Yin Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist as well as to her biographer and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification Beyond their documentary value these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male dominated realm of art The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives The volume includes an appended index to women artists life stories in biographical compendia of the period

Lavinia Fontana's Mythological Paintings Liana De Girolami Cheney,2020-08-18 This volume investigates emblematic and art historical issues in Lavinia Fontana s mythological paintings Fontana is the first female painter of the sixteenth century in Italy to depict female nudes as well as mythological and emblematic paintings associated with concepts of beauty and wisdom Her paintings reveal an appropriation of the antique a fusion between patronage and culture and a humanistic pursuit of Mannerist conceits Fontana s secular imagery provides a challenging paragone with the male tradition of history painting during the sixteenth century and paves the way for new subjects to be depicted and interpreted by female painters of the seventeenth century

Life Stories of Women Artists, 1550-1800 Julia K. Dabbs,2020-08-18 The struggles and achievements of forty six notable women artists of the early modern period as documented by their contemporaries are uniquely brought together in this anthology The life stories presented here are foundational texts for the history of art but since most are found only in rare volumes and few have been translated into English until now they have been generally inaccessible to many scholars Originally published in biographical compendia such as Vasari s Lives of the Artists the writings included here document not only the lives of relatively well known women artists such as Artemisia Gentileschi and Sofonisba Anguissola but also those who have languished in obscurity like Anna

Waser and Li Yin Each life story is preceded by a brief introduction to the artist as well as to her biographer and the texts themselves are annotated to provide necessary clarification Beyond their documentary value these stories provide fascinating insight as to how men commonly characterized women artists as exceptions to their sex and attempted to explain their presence in the male dominated realm of art The introductory chapter to the book explores this intriguing gender dynamic and elucidates some of the strategies and historical context that factored into the composition of these lives The volume includes an appended index to women artists life stories in biographical compendia of the period

Challenging Women's Agency and Activism in Early Modernity Merry Wiesner-Hanks, 2025-10-01 Examining women's agency in the past has taken on new urgency in the current moment of resurgent patriarchy Women's Marches and the global MeToo movement The essays in this collection consider women's agency in the Renaissance and early modern period an era that also saw both increasing patriarchal constraints and new forms of women's actions and activism They address a capacious set of questions about how women from their teenage years through older adulthood asserted agency through social practices speech acts legal disputes writing viewing and exchanging images travel and community building Despite family and social pressures the actions of girls and women could shape their lives and challenge male dominated institutions This volume includes thirteen essays by scholars from various disciplines which analyze people texts objects and images from many different parts of Europe as well as things and people that crossed the Atlantic and the Pacific

SELF-PORTRAITS BY WOMEN ARTISTS., 1985 The Mirror and the Palette Jennifer Higgie, 2021-10-05 A dazzlingly original and ambitious book on the history of female self portraiture by one of today's most well respected art critics Her story weaves in and out of time and place She's Frida Kahlo Lo's Mailou Jones and Amrita Sher Gil en route to Mexico City Paris or Bombay She's Suzanne Valadon and Gwen John craving city lights the sea and solitude she's Artemisia Gentileschi striding through the streets of Naples and Paula Modersohn Becker in Worpswede She's haunting museums in her paint stained dress scrutinising how El Greco or Titian or Van Dyck or C zanne solved the problems that she too is facing She's railing against her corsets her chaperones her husband and her brothers she's hammering on doors dreaming in her bedroom working day and night in her studio Despite the immense hurdles that have been placed in her way she sits at her easel picks up a mirror and paints a self portrait because as a subject she is always available Until the twentieth century art history was in the main written by white men who tended to write about other white men The idea that women in the West have always made art was rarely cited as a possibility Yet they have and of course continue to do so often against tremendous odds from laws and religion to the pressures of family and public disapproval In The Mirror and the Palette Jennifer Higgie introduces us to a cross section of women artists who embody the fact that there is more than one way to understand our planet more than one way to live in it and more than one way to make art about it Spanning 500 years biography and cultural history intertwine in a narrative packed with tales of rebellion adventure revolution travel and tragedy enacted by women who turned their back on convention and lived lives of great resilience creativity and bravery

Women Artists in Interwar France Paula J. Birnbaum, 2017-07-05 Women Artists in Interwar France Framing Femininities illuminates the importance of the Soci des Femmes Artistes Modernes more commonly known as FAM and returns this group to its proper place in the history of modern art In particular this volume explores how FAM and its most famous members Suzanne Valadon Marie Laurencin and Tamara de Lempicka brought a new approach to the most prominent themes of female embodiment the self portrait motherhood and the female nude These women reimagined art s conventions and changed the direction of both art history and the politics of their contemporary art world FAM has been excluded from histories of modern art despite its prominence during the interwar years Paula Birnbaum s study redresses this omission contextualizing the group s legacy in light of the conservative politics of 1930s France The group s artistic response to the reactionary views and images of women at the time is shown to be a key element in the narrative of modernist formalism Although many FAM works are missing one reason for the lack of attention paid to their efforts Birnbaum s extensive research through archives press clippings and first hand interviews with artists families reclaims FAM as an important chapter in the history of art from the interwar years

Modern Women Artists in the Nordic Countries, 1900-1960 Kerry Greaves, 2021-04-05 This transnational volume examines innovative women artists who were from or worked in Denmark Finland Greenland Iceland Norway S pmi and Sweden from the emergence of modernism until the feminist movement took shape in the 1960s The book addresses the culturally specific conditions that shaped Nordic artists contributions brings the latest methodological and feminist approaches to bear on Nordic art history and engages a wide international audience through the contributors subject matter and analysis Rather than introducing a new history of rediscovered women artists the book is more concerned with understanding the mechanisms and structures that affected women artists and their work while suggesting alternative ways of constructing women s art histories Artists covered include Else Alfelt Pia Arke Franciska Clausen Jessie Kleemann Hilma af Klint Sonja Ferlov Mancoba Greta Knutson Aase Texmon Rygh Hannah Ryggen J l ana Sveinsd ttir Ellen Thesleff and Astri Aasen The target audience includes scholars working in art history cultural studies feminist studies gender studies curatorial studies Nordic studies postcolonial studies and visual studies

Portraiture Shearer West, 2004-04-08 This fascinating new book explores the world of portraiture from a number of vantage points and asks key questions about its nature How has portraiture changed over the centuries How have portraits represented their subjects and how have they been interpreted Issues of identity modernity and gender are considered within a cultural and historical context Shearer West uncovers much intriguing detail about a genre that has often been seen as purely representational featuring examples from African tribes to Renaissance princes and from stars such as David and Victoria Beckham to ordinary people In the process she shows us how to communicate with the past in an exciting new way

Women Artists in Paris, 1850-1900 Laurence Madeline, Pauline Willis, 2017-01-01 Paris was the epicenter of art during the latter half of the nineteenth century luring artists from around the world with its academies museums salons and galleries Despite the city's cosmopolitanism and its cultural stature Parisian society remained strikingly conservative particularly with respect to gender Nonetheless many women painters chose to work and study in Paris at this time overcoming immense obstacles to access the city's resources Women Artists in Paris 1850-1900 showcases the remarkable artistic production of women during this period of great cultural change revealing the breadth and strength of their creative achievements Guest Curator Laurence Madeline Chief Curator at Musée d'Art et d'Histoire Geneva has selected close to seventy compelling paintings by women of varied nationalities ranging from well known artists such as Berthe Morisot Mary Cassatt and Rosa Bonheur to lesser known figures such as Kitty Kielland Louise Breslau and Anna Ancher
