The Seven Churches of the Apocalypse: A Look at the Seven Churches in the Book of Revelation Daniel H. Kiser, 2021-02-09 While in exile on the Island of Patmos the Apostle John received this instruction from Jesus Write what you see into a book Send it to the seven churches Ephesus Smyrna Pergamum Thyatira Sardis Philadelphia and Laodicea Revelation 1 11 The Message Bible Jesus then proceeds to dictate to the apostle personal messages to each of the seven churches The content of these messages does not contain the opinions or instructions of a pastor deacon elder or governing church council These messages were sent directly from Jesus and reveal his assessment of each church This in itself should be sufficient reason for taking the time and exerting the energy to do an exhaustive study of the seven churches But there are additional reasons as well which are dealt with extensively in this book The messages reveal what is acceptable and unacceptable to Jesus in the life of a church They also reflect seven periods of church history In addition the messages explain a Christian's relationship to the group of believers with which they are associated Furthermore they stress the responsibility of every Christian to protect the spiritual welfare of the local church Finally these messages provide the proper perspective of what Jesus values most in a church At the end of each message Jesus makes this statement Anyone with ears to hear must listen to the Spirit and understand what he is saying to the churches Revelation 2:7 New Living Translation The messages to the seven churches of the Apocalypse are as relevant today as they were when John received them They are intended for anyone who has ears to hear what the Spirit says to the churches
