Markets In Oaxaca:

Markets in Oaxaca Scott Cook, Martin Diskin, 2014-01-09 Markets in Oaxaca is a study of the regional peasant marketing system in the Valley of Oaxaca Mexico. It relates the marketing system to other aspects of the regional economy to neighboring regions and to the Mexican national economy. Combining ethnographic theoretical and regional analyses, it suggests new directions in the fields of peasant and development studies. Contributors to the volume describe the operation and nature of several marketplaces in the region, analyze village-based artisan production and various specialized economic roles, particularly the role of traders, and describe the operation of several total regional marketing systems. The editors then consider their findings against the background of political, economic, and social structures from the pre-Conquest period to the present. In their conclusion, the editors find the regional peasant economy to be responsive both to the influence of the urban metropolitan sector on the one hand and to its own indigenous structural integrity and internal dynamism on the other. In addition to the editors, the contributors to Markets in Oaxaca are Ralph L. Beals, Richard L. Berg Jr., Beverly Chi, as Herbert M. Eder, Charlotte Stollmaker, Carole Turkenik, John C. Warner, Ronald Waterbury, and Cecil R. Welte. Their essays combine analyses of the elements of the system within a comprehensive theoretical framework. Together, they present a complete and integrated view of a peasant economy.

Crafts in the World Market June C. Nash, 1993-01-01 The growing exchange of traditional craft objects in world markets has had a profound impact on the lives of the women and men who produce them. These essays describe how the flow of goods from the industrial centers of the world to the colonies in earlier centuries is now met by a reverse flow as consumers seek the exotic and unique objects of handicraft production in Third World countries. The book explores the paradox of how artisans continue to create traditional objects yet new sources of wealth and intensified production are transforming their traditional lifeways in areas such as the Oaxaca Valley, the Yucatan Highland, Chiapas, and Guatemala.

Federico Federico Jiménez Caballero, 2021-04-06 From the day he was born, Federico Jiménez Caballero was predicted to be a successful man. So how exactly did a young boy from Tututepec, Oaxaca, become a famous Indigenous jewelry artist and philanthropist in Los Angeles? Federico tells the remarkable story of willpower, curiosity, hard work, and passion coming together to change one man's life forever. As a child growing up in a small rural town in southern Mexico, Federico Jiménez Caballero faced challenges that most of us cannot imagine, let alone overcome. From a young age, Federico worked tirelessly to contribute to his large family, yet his restless spirit often got him into trouble. Finding himself in the middle of a village-wide catastrophe, he was exiled to a boarding school in Oaxaca City where he was forced to become independent, resilient, and razor-sharp in order to stay afloat. Through his incredible people skills, bravery, and a few nudges from his bold mother, Federico found himself excelling in his studies and climbing the ranks in Oaxaca City. He always held a deep love and respect for his Mixtec Indigenous roots and began to collect Indigenous jewelry and textiles. Through a series of well-timed connections, Federico met his wife Ellen, and shortly afterward, he came to the United States as a researcher at the University of California Los Angeles in the late 1960s Carrying his passion for Indigenous jewelry with him from Oaxaca Federico owned a series of shops in Los Angeles and sold jewelry at flea markets to well known Hollywood stars Over the years he cultivated relationships and became a philanthropist as well as the owner of a museum in Oaxaca City This book is the inspiring first person account of eighty years in the life of a man who moved from humble beginnings to the bright lights of Hollywood following his passion and creating long lasting relationships as he climbed the ladder of success

Markets and Exchanges in Pre-Modern and Traditional Societies Juan Carlos Moreno Garcia,2021-06-30 Markets emerge in recent historical research as important spheres of economic interaction in ancient societies In the case of ancient Egypt traditional models imagined an all encompassing centralized bureaucratic economy that left practically no place for market transactions as many surviving documents only described the activities of the royal palace and of huge institutions mainly temples Yet scattered references in the sources reveal that markets and traders were crucial actors in the economic life of ancient Egypt In this perspective this volume aims to discuss the role of markets traders and economic interaction not necessarily organized through markets and the use of money metals valuable commodities in pre modern societies based on archaeological anthropological and historical evidence Furthermore it intends to integrate different perspectives about the social organization of transactions and exchanges and the different forms taken by markets from meeting places where exchanges operated under ritualized procedures and conventions to markets in which profit seeking activities were marginal in respect with other practices that stressed on the contrary community collaboration The book also deals with social forms of pre modern exchanges in which trust and ethnic solidarity guaranteed the validity of commercial operations in the absence of formal codes of laws or accepted authorities over long distances trade diasporas guilds etc Finally the volume analyzes a critical aspect of small scale trade and markets such as the commercialization of agricultural household production and its impact on the peasant economic strategies In all the book covers a diversity of topics in which recent research in the fields of economic sociology archaeology anthropology economics and history proves invaluable in order to analyze the role of Egyptian trade in a broader perspective as well as to suggest new venues of comparative research theoretical reflection and dialogue between Egyptology and social sciences

Between Field and Cooking Pot Florence E. Babb,1998 From reviews of the first edition The book has a clear and readable style moving easily between vignettes of marketwomen s lives descriptions of the markets themselves and surveys of the theoretical literature Babb s long close involvement with the Huaraz markets is apparent As someone who has spent a lot of time in Andean markets I found the book pleasurable to read because it recreated the experience of the marketplace so well American Ethnologist Between Field and Cooking Pot offers details of the daily lives of marketwomen in the central Andean departmental capital of Huaraz A welcome addition to studies of women and international development this book contains a wealth of firsthand material collected through informal participant observation as well as formal interviews and analysis of statistical data The book encourages us to imagine how the dynamic culture of marketwomen might intersect with the construction representation and effects of class and gender American Anthropologist The book has a clear and readable style moving easily between vignettes of marketwomen s lives descriptions of the markets themselves and surveys of the theoretical literature Babb s long close involvement with the Huaraz markets is apparent As someone who has spent a lot of time in Andean markets I found the book pleasurable to read because it recreated the experience of the marketplace so well American Ethnologist This revised edition of Between Field and Cooking Pot offers an updated appraisal of what neoliberal politics and economics mean in the lives of marketwomen in the nineties based on new fieldwork conducted in 1997 Babb also reflects on how recent currents in feminist and anthropological studies have caused her to rethink some aspects of Andean marketers in Peruvian culture and society

Crafting Tradition Michael Chibnik,2010-01-01 Since the mid 1980s whimsical brightly colored wood carvings from the Mexican state of Oaxaca have found their way into gift shops and private homes across the United States and Europe as Western consumers seek to connect with the authenticity and tradition represented by indigenous folk arts Ironically however the Oaxacan wood carvings are not a traditional folk art Invented in the mid twentieth century by non Indian Mexican artisans for the tourist market their appeal flows as much from intercultural miscommunication as from their intrinsic artistic merit In this beautifully illustrated book Michael Chibnik offers the first in depth look at the international trade in Oaxacan wood carvings including their history production marketing and cultural representations Drawing on interviews he conducted in the carving communities and among wholesalers retailers and consumers he follows the entire production and consumption cycle from the harvesting of copal wood to the final purchase of the finished piece Along the way he describes how and why this invented tradition has been promoted as a Zapotec Indian craft and explores its similarities with other local crafts with longer histories He also fully discusses the effects on local communities of participating in the global market concluding that the trade in Oaxacan wood carvings is an almost paradigmatic case study of globalization

Markets and Marketing Society for Economic Anthropology (U.S.). Meeting,1985-04-19 This collection of 15 articles drawn from the Society for Economic Anthropology's 1984 meeting is divided into four topics: central place analysis of marketplace systems, economic behavior in market contexts, markets in economic development, and markets in historical perspective. Co-published with The Society for Economic Anthropology, The Rough Guide to Mexico John Fisher, 2004. The Rough Guide to Mexico is the most comprehensive guide available and an essential companion to anyone visiting this country, whether on a package tour, backpacking, or on a prolonged business trip. This fully updated and revised 6th edition includes hundreds of incisive accounts of the sights, providing fresh takes on the well-established attractions and uncovering lesser-known gems. Detailed practical advice is given on activities in every corner of this vibrant nation, from the beaches to the bustling cities to the ancient Mayan temples. The guide also includes significant historical and cultural information to give the reader a well-rounded understanding of Mexico past and present.

Urban Labor Markets in Sub-Saharan Africa

Philippe De Vreyer, Francois Roubaud, 2013-06-07. Although labor is usually the unique asset upon which poor people can make a living, little is known about the functioning of labor markets in Sub-Saharan Africa. The purpose of this volume is to contribute to the building of knowledge in this area. In this book, the authors use a unique set of identical and simultaneous labor force surveys conducted in seven capitals of Western Africa, as well as in some other African countries: Cameroon, Madagascar, Democratic Republic of Congo, in the 2000s. They present innovative and original results on how people are faring in these labor markets, using up-to-date econometric and statistical methods. Because so little is known about labor markets in the region, each chapter starts with detailed descriptive statistics that aim to shed light onto specific aspects of African urban labor markets. Comparisons between the ten cities are systematically carried out. Descriptive sections are followed by in-depth analyses on various issues. The book is divided into four parts that examine 13 topics. Part I presents the main stylized facts, which are investigated further in a more analytical way throughout the volume. Part II focuses on job quality and labor market conditions, such as unemployment and underemployment, vulnerability, and job satisfaction. Part III explores the many dimensions of labor market inequalities through various lenses, such as returns on education, segmentation, life cycle inequality, with a particular focus on old age, inter-generational mobility, time-related inequality, and gender and ethnic earnings discrimination. Part IV addresses some key coping mechanisms and private responses, with a focus on migration and child labor. The book concludes with recommendations for future research.
