Markets Within Planning Socialist Economic Management In The Third World:

Markets within Planning Edmund V. K. Fitzgerald, Marc Wuyts, 2012-11-12 Published in 1988 Markets within Planning is a valuable contribution to the field of Economics Markets Within Planning Marc Wuyts, 1988 Special Issue On: Markets Within Planning Edmund Valpy Knox FitzGerald, 1988 Economic Reform and Third-World Socialism Peter Utting, 1992-06-24 Throughout the 1980s major changes in development policy took place in several Third World socialist countries This book examines why this shift from orthodoxy to reform occurred in Mozambique Vietnam and Nicaragua as well as in Cuba during the early 1980s It provides an in depth analysis of the changes which took place in economic and food policy and the nature of the crisis which prompted the reforms It focuses particularly on the role of social forces in shaping the reform process The Workers' State Meets the Market Sarah Cook, Margaret Maurer-Fazio, 2013-10-23 Among the most dramatic changes to affect China in the 1990s is the upsurge in labour mobility and the emergence of a market driven system of labour allocation changes which profoundly affect the working environment and livelihoods of the Chinese people Papers in this collection draw on a wide variety of data sources to analyse key elements of this transformation Third World Debt Helen B. O'Neill, 1990 First Published in 1990 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company War and Underdevelopment: Country experiences Frances Stewart, Edmund Valpy Knox FitzGerald, 2001 This series traces the economic and social consequences of conflict both theoretically and through empirical investigations including seven country case studies Latin American Theories of Development and Underdevelopment Cristóbal Kay, 2010-11-26 Upon its publication in 1989 this was the first systematic and comprehensive analysis of the Latin American School of Development and an invaluable guide to the major Third World contribution to development theory The four major strands in the work of Latin American Theorists are structuralism internal colonialism marginality and dependency Exploring all four in detail and the interconnections between them Cristobal Kay highlights the developed world's over reliance on and partial knowledge of dependency theory in its approach to development issues and analyses the first major challenges to neo classical and modernisation theories from the Third World The Programming Approach and the Demise of Economics Franco Archibugi, 2019-11-21 This trilogy deals with an epistemology of economics arguing for a radical overturning of conventional analysis and providing an alternative to political economy and social sciences based not on positivism but on a normative and programming paradigm Volume II builds on the work presented in Volume I to explore oppositions to the traditional and conventional teaching of economics and presents testimonies that are favourable to a trend towards a programming approach thereby giving substance to the epistemological overturning of conventional analysis Such oppositions studied include the work of Ludvig von Mises and his theory of praxeology Ian Tinbergen and Wassily Leontief's preference for planning over forecasting science Bruno de Finetti and Daniel Bell's support for the base of utopia in economics the trend from the theory of planning towards the methodology of planning by Andreas Faludi neoclassic curiosity about the multi purposes approach and non economic commodities as investigated by Walter Isard as well as theories expressed by Herbert Simon Robert Lucas George Soros and Mark Blaug Volume III takes studies further and presents a concrete and practical example of how to build a Planning Accounting Framework PAF as associated with Frisch s plan frame explored in Volume II to demonstrate the extent to which decisions and negotiations can be routed in the social sciences

The Dual Developmental State Ming Xia,2017-12-01 This title was first published in 2000 The developmental state model which originated in Japan has ascended to the status of the leading paradigm for the East Asian political economy This text explores the proposition of many specialists that China has emulated the model and become part of the flying geese pattern of development Development Studies Revisited Charles Cooper,E. V. K. FitzGerald,2016-04-15 First published in 1989 The Journal of Development Studies was founded 25 years ago as a professional journal for what had by then become an established sub discipline within British social science The Journal has consistently published a broad spectrum of British research on development studies a catholicity that has been reflected in the composition of the Editorial Board over the years and has always welcomed authors from the USA the European Continent and above all from the Third World Collated form the last twenty five years of the journal presented here are a collection of 20 odd papers that represent less than three per cent of articles published since 1964 Beyond Urban Bias Ashutosh Varshney,2014-02-04 First Published in 1993 This title sets out to spark debate and learn from the urban bias theory The author suggests that recent political economy research suggests that it is time to redefine the problem of urban bias Viewed as a collective engagement with the urban bias theory this volume presents the new research along with the responses of Bates and Lipton These studies do not add up to an alternative theory of why the state behaves the way it does towards the countryside They do however point to the factors that need careful attention in future research These papers can be seen as building blocks for the construction of an alternative theory of the state and agriculture Strategies of Economic Development Kurt Martin,1991-06-18 In the aftermath of the debt crisis disappointment with the results of structural adjustment policies is leading to a reappraisal of theories of economic development and industrialization strategies This book comprises a collection of essays on economic development

The Legacy of Michal Kalecki Malcolm C. Sawyer,1999 Incentives and Agriculture in East Africa (Routledge Revivals) Mats Lundahl,2015-08-11 Agriculture is at the centre of the economies of many developing countries and its stagnation and poor performance across large parts of Africa is a major cause for concern First published in 1990 this book focuses on the nature and role of incentives in agricultural organization and production in East Africa looking in particular at the political and ideological determinants of that role Mats Lundahl analyses ways of improving agricultural performance and considers the African socialism of Julius Nyerere in contrast with the market led approaches which he favours A detailed title this volume will of interest to all those concerned with the issues of rural development including students of development studies economics and African studies Structural Adjustment Ed Brown,Bob Milward,Giles Mohan,Alfred B.

Zack-Williams,2013-04-15 Structural Adjustment Theory Practice and Impacts examines the problems associated with Structural Adjustment Programmes SAPs and reveals the damaging impacts they can have The book looks at how the debt crisis of the 1970 s forced developing countries to seek external help and then reviews what constitutes as a standard adjustment programme detailing the political economic social and environmental impacts of SAPs The final section draws together theories and political responses and presents a case for alternatives to the programmes Ripe for Revolution

Jeremy Friedman,2022-01-04 The Cold War era experiments of the Global South make clear that socialism is more than Stalinism Jeremy Friedman looks to Indonesia Chile Tanzania Angola and Iran to understand how socialism has worked in practice Each state developed its own socialism pragmatically addressing local needs and shaping the horizons of socialism today Sustainable Development Olav Schram Stokke,2018-10-24 First published in 1991 The European Association of Development Research and Training Institutes EADI organised its 6th General Conference in Oslo 27-30 June 1990 The general theme was New Challenges for European Development Research with particular reference to the changes taking place in Europe East and West and to sustainable development More than 200 papers were presented in the plenary sessions in two parallel special sessions on the two main themes and in the sessions of 23 working groups and five ad hoc panels It is from this harvest that the editors of the previous and the present issues of the EJDR have selected contributions No 2 1990 focused on the changes in Europe and their effects The present issue focuses on the other main theme of the conference sustainable development Including the Poor Michael Lipton,J. van der Gaag,1993-01-01 Explores the role of government policy in economic development in the Republic of Korea The Republic of Korea has achieved economic success on many fronts Real GNP has tripled every decade since the 1960s A dynamic and flexible manufacturing sector now dominates the economy The benefits of growth have been widely distributed with a sharp decrease in poverty This study like others in the series seeks to draw lessons from such success and to identify and analyze the policies behind this strong economic performance Koreas development strategy and macroeconomic performance are outlined in Part I Several factors are seen to underlie strong growth including the maintenance of a stable macroenvironment flexible and pragmatic policies and investment in infrastructure and human capital Part II assesses the role played by industrial policy since 1961 Particular attention is given to the Heavy and Chemical Industry HCI drive launched in 1973 to diversify and upgrade Koreas industrial sector The authors note that while the HCI has been largely successful it also has been very costly particularly to the financial sector Part III outlines the role of institutions and the close relationships among the government the bureaucracy and business The key to Koreas rapid development according to the authors was the governments commitment to growth and its early focus on equity and wide distribution of the gains from growth The authors also laud the efficiency and effectiveness of Koreas public and private sector institutions which they see as models for all developing nations
