MARQUEE MINISTRY

Library of Theological Studies

With the exception of the first chapter, which is a historical survey of the movie theater as a social institution, the book is a collection of essays by various authors, each dealing with a different aspect of the movie theater's role in society.

The book is written in a clear, accessible style, and the essays are well-organized and easy to read. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the history and culture of the movie theater.

The book is a collection of essays by various authors, each dealing with a different aspect of the movie theater's role in society.

Marquee ministry Robert G. Konzelman, 1972 Marquee Ministry Robert G. Konzelman, 1972 Research in Education, 1972 Resources in Education, 1972 New Image of Religious Film John R. May, 1997 Contributors from richly diverse backgrounds explore a wide range of current issues concerning the interrelationship of religion and film

From Religion To Relationship Ernest N. Roberson, 2021-04-21 I wrote this book to share my spiritual journey and the things I believe God has shared with me It has truly freed me and I pray that the things I have shared will help free you as well I must give my wife credit for helping to inspire me to write this book My wife woke me up one morning very wide eyed and excited She said Baby God just gave me the title of your book but you have to write the book This was not the first time my wife as well as a few of my friends with whom I have shared my views had encouraged me to write a book but I laughed it off saying to myself I m not writing a book my spelling is horrible and my punctuation is even worse But thank God for the technology of computers because it helped me with my shortcomings and I finally felt a release that this was my time and season and it allowed me to set my shortcomings aside and share what God has given me to a broader audience Just like nature when we are in tune with God we come into spiritual awareness and insight of our times and seasons I am just an average guy who has allowed Christ to touch my life and change my perspectives concerning how to walk with God and with all my heart I believe this is the time and season for kingdom worship I have experienced worship under religion and I am learning the freedom of kingdom fruit worship which has truly satisfied my spiritual thirst I believe it will satisfy your thirst as well It is truly a well of life with a never ending supply You just have to get onboard and you will see Christ standing at the gates of our Father s kingdom with His arms opened wide saying COME TASTE AND SEE THAT THE LORD IS GOOD Psalms 34 8

God's Internationalists David P. King, 2019-04-11 Over the past seventy years World Vision has grown from a small missionary agency to the largest Christian humanitarian organization in the world with 40 000 employees offices in nearly one hundred countries and an annual budget of over 2 billion While founder Bob Pierce was an evangelist with street smarts the most recent World Vision U S presidents move with ease between megachurches the boardrooms of Fortune 500 companies and the corridors of Capitol Hill Though the organization has remained decidedly Christian it has earned the reputation as an elite international nongovernmental organization managed efficiently by professional experts fluent in the language of both marketing and development God s Internationalists is the first comprehensive study of World Vision or any such religious humanitarian agency In chronicling the organization s transformation from 1950 to the present David P King approaches World Vision as a lens through which to explore shifts within post World War II American evangelicalism as well as the complexities of faith based humanitarianism Chronicling the evolution of World Vision s practices theology rhetoric and organizational structure King demonstrates how the organization rearticulated and retained its Christian identity even as it expanded beyond a narrow American evangelical subculture King s pairing of American evangelicals interactions abroad with their own evolving identity at home reframes the traditional narrative of modern American evangelicalism while also providing the historical context for the current explosion of evangelical interest in global social engagement By examining these patterns of change God s Internationalists offers a distinctive angle on the history of religious humanitarianism

Mediating Religion Jolyon P. Mitchell, Sophia Marriage, 2003-06-01 This is the first book to bring together many aspects of the interplay between religion media and culture from around the world in a single comprehensive study Leading international scholars provide the most up to date findings in their fields and in a readable and accessible way Some of the topics covered include religion in the media age popular broadcasting communication theology popular piety film and religion myth and ritual in cyberspace music and religion communication ethics and the nature of truth in media saturated cultures The result is not only a wide ranging resource for scholars and students but also a unique introduction to this increasingly important phenomenon of modern life

Christmas Worship and the Birth of Our Savior Dr. Bur Shilling, 2023-07-26 Christmas is perhaps the most treasured Christian holiday and at the same time one of the least understood Research suggests that large numbers of Americans are confused about the central reason for the holiday Even evangelical believers cannot agree that the birth of Jesus is the most important factor of this national observance Modern American culture has challenged the religious importance of Christmas The media and retail stores have helped suppress the religious emphasis by asserting Happy Holidays rather than Merry Christmas So the question is What is the truth about Christmas Is it found in the season s holiday music Is the meaning in decorated trees and lighted city streets Does commercialized gift giving explain the purpose of the holiday Perhaps it resides in Santa Claus and his magic flying reindeer So where do we find the value in a holiday titled Christmas The truth is found in the pages of the New Testament Angels shepherds magi a Jewish king and the Roman Empire all play a part in the validity of the holiday How was Christmas planned in heaven What does Scripture say about the incarnation How did the shepherds find the Christ child in the darkness of a city without streetlights How many magi arrived in Jerusalem to seek the new king Where did they travel from Why did they make the journey What binds all these issues together around the birth of a baby in a small insignificant village This volume presents the truth about an event the entire world uses to date its calendar

‘The Evangelist’ Melanie Coetzee, 2012-03-28 The Evangelist takes you through the epic life story of Andr Albertus Coetzee from the arid landscape of the Northern Cape South Africa An array of pictorial evidence grabs the reader cementing the authenticity of the story This unique and authentic story is written in a simplistic style and provides a clear chronological account of the journey through the life of one man who experienced a miraculous healing from God Andr Coetzee blindly pursues the call of God He becomes a preacher in the mould of John the Baptist who preached the Gospel of Jesus Christ unashamedly The rhythmic unfolding of the life long drama remains true to the factual content A wealth of wisdom can be extracted from his character delineated indirectly through the thoughts actions and expressions so candidly documented The prolific life of The Evangelist has a happy ending and promises the reader a change of heart Disability Advocacy Among Religious Organizations Albert Herzog, 2012-11-12 Gain insight into the importance of advocacy for the disabled within various religious and secular organizations You shall love your neighbor as yourself Romans 13 9 Through the years religious organizations have worked to fulfill this biblical mandate Disability Advocacy Among Religious Organizations Histories and Reflections chronicles the progress of different ministries advocacy for the disabled since 1950 as they worked toward fulfilling this mission This enlightening history of several religious organizations efforts charts the trends in advocacy while offering readers insight into ways to assist people with disabilities both within religious organizations and in society Issues are explored by drawing upon numerous documents communications and in depth reviews of the advocates work This book draws together in a single volume the stories of various religious organizations and their struggles to advocate for the disabled Because of society s tendency to isolate and fear them special needs individuals such as the mentally and physically disabled have long found it difficult to be accepted understood or to receive proper care However ministries strive to be advocates for all of their members and their needs including education treatment and appropriate legislation Disability Advocacy Among Religious Organizations Histories and Reflections recounts the steps organizations have taken to focus on ending isolation and fear through inclusion and appropriate care of members with various disabilities These historical accounts examine the depth breadth and on going need for disability advocacy in religious organizations Disability Advocacy Among Religious Organizations Histories and Reflections discusses the advocacy backgrounds of the World Council of Churches the National Council of Churches National Catholic Partnership on Disability National Apostolate for Inclusion Ministry American mainline Protestant denomination the American Baptist Convention Disciples of Christ the Episcopal Church the Evangelical Lutheran Church in America the Presbyterian Church USA the United Methodist Church and the United Church of Christ the Christian Reformed Church American Association on Mental Retardation AAMR Religion and Spirituality Division Bethesda Lutheran homes and Services Inc the Christian Council on Persons with Disabilities CCPD Friendship Ministries Joni and Friends the Mennonite advocacy for persons with disabilities the Religion and Disability Program of the National Organization on Disability Disability Advocacy Among Religious Organizations Histories and Reflections is valuable reading for clergy and laypeople in disability advocacy in religious organizations educators students seminary students preparing for ministries and religious historians The Oxford Handbook of Religion and the Arts Frank Burch Brown, 2018 This volume offers 37 original essays from leading scholars on the crucial topics issues methods and resources for studying and teaching religion and the arts The Disciple-Making Pastor Bill Hull, 2007-10-01 Christ commanded the church to make disciples to produce people who love and obey God bear fruit and live with joy The crisis at the heart of the church is that we often pay lip service to making disciples but we seldom put much effort behind doing it For the pastor who is ready to put words into action The Disciple Making Pastor offers the inspiration and practical know how to do so Bill Hull shows pastors the obstacles they will face what disciples really look like the pastor's role in producing them and the practices that lead to positive change He also offers a six step coaching process to help new disciples grow in commitment and obedience and practical ideas to integrate disciple making into the fabric of the church Celluloid Sermons Terry Lindvall,2011-01-01 The Palestine Weekly,1927 God Forgive Us for Being Women Joy E. A. Qualls,2018-05-30 The role of women in church leadership is controversial however the Pentecostal tradition and specifically the Assemblies of God has held that women can serve at all levels of church leadership There is no role that is off limits to women Citing their distinctive approach to theology Pentecostals embrace women's leadership in policy but in practice women are often frustrated by the lack of opportunity and representation in leadership roles By exploring the rhetorical history how Pentecostals talk about the role of women the purpose of this book is to expose those rhetorical constraints that create dissonance and discontentment This book explores how Pentecostals use and are used by language that shapes this dissonance and how that impacts the lived reality of both men and women in the Pentecostal tradition Teaching Religion and Film Gregory J Watkins,2008-08-22 In a culture increasingly focused on visual media students have learned not only to embrace multimedia presentations in the classroom but to expect them Such expectations are perhaps more prevalent in a field as dynamic and cross disciplinary as religious studies but the practice nevertheless poses some difficult educational issues the use of movies in academic coursework has far outpaced the scholarship on teaching religion and film What does it mean to utilize film in religious studies and what are the best ways to do it In Teaching Religion and Film an interdisciplinary team of scholars thinks about the theoretical and pedagogical concerns involved with the intersection of film and religion in the classroom They examine the use of film to teach specific religious traditions religious theories and perspectives on fundamental human values Some instructors already teach some version of a film and religion course and many have integrated film as an ancillary to achieving central course goals This collection of essays helps them understand the field better and draws the sharp distinction between merely watching movies in the classroom and comprehending film in an informed and critical way The Divine Commodity Skye Jethani,2009-05-26 The challenge facing Christianity today is not a lack of motivation or resources but a failure of imagination A growing number of people are disturbed by the values exhibited by the contemporary church Worship has become entertainment the church has become a shopping mall and God has become a consumable product Many sense that something is wrong but they cannot imagine an alternative way The Divine Commodity finally articulates what so many have been feeling and offers hope for the future of a post consumer Christianity Through Scripture history engaging narrative and the inspiring art of Vincent van Gogh The Divine Commodity explores spiritual practices that liberate our imaginations to live as Christ's people in a consumer culture opposed to the values of his kingdom Each chapter shows how our formation as consumers has distorted an element of our faith For example the way churches have become corporations and how branding makes us more focused on image than reality It then energizes an alternative vision for those seeking a more meaningful faith Before we can hope to live differently we must have our minds released from consumerism's grip and captivated once again by Christ

Does Skill Make Us Human? Natasha Iskander, 2021-11-09 An in depth look at Qatar's migrant workers and the place of skill in the language of control and power Skill specifically the distinction between the skilled and unskilled is generally defined as a measure of ability and training but Does Skill Make Us Human shows instead that skill distinctions are used to limit freedom narrow political rights and even deny access to imagination and desire Natasha Iskander takes readers into Qatar's booming construction industry in the lead up to the 2022 World Cup and through her unprecedented look at the experiences of migrant workers she reveals that skill functions as a marker of social difference powerful enough to structure all aspects of social and economic life Through unique access to construction sites in Doha in depth research and interviews Iskander explores how migrants are recruited trained and used Despite their acquisition of advanced technical skills workers are commonly described as unskilled and disparaged as unproductive poor quality or simply bodies She demonstrates that skill categories adjudicate personhood creating hierarchies that shape working conditions labor recruitment migration policy the design of urban spaces and the reach of global industries Iskander also discusses how skill distinctions define industry responses to global warming with employers recruiting migrants from climate damaged places at lower wages and exposing these workers to Qatar's extreme heat She considers how the dehumanizing politics of skill might be undone through tactical solidarity and creative practices With implications for immigrant rights and migrant working conditions throughout the world Does Skill Make Us Human examines the factors that justify and amplify inequality

Film, Lacan and the Subject of Religion Steve Nolan, 2011-10-20 In their study of religion and film religious film analysts have tended to privilege religion Uniquely this study treats the two disciplines as genuine equals by regarding both liturgy and film as representational media Steve Nolan argues that in each case subjects identify with a represented other which joins them into a narrative where they become participants in an ideological reality Finding many current approaches to religious film analysis lacking Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion explores the film theory other writers ignore particularly that mix of psychoanalysis Marxism and semiotics often termed Screen theory that attempts to understand how cinematic representation shapes spectator identity Using translations and commentary on Lacan not originally available to Screen theorists Nolan returns to Lacan's contribution to psychoanalytic film theory and offers a sustained application to religious practice examining several priest films and real life case study to expose the way liturgical representation shapes religious identity Film Lacan and the Subject of Religion proposes an interpretive strategy by which religious film analysts can develop the kind of analysis that engages with and critiques both cultural and religious practice
