Marriage and Adoption in China, 1845-1945 Arthur P. Wolf, Huang Chieh-Shan, 1980 Handbook on the Family and Marriage in China Xiaowei Zang, Lucy Xia Zhao, 2017-12-29 This Handbook advances research on the family and marriage in China by providing readers with a multidisciplinary and multifaceted coverage of major issues in one single volume It addresses the major conceptual theoretical and methodological issues of marriage and family in China and offers critical reflections on both the history and likely progression of the field Chinese Families in the Post-Mao Era Deborah Davis, Stevan Harrell, 1993-10-02 This collection of essays concerns both urban and rural Chinese communities ranging from professional to working class families The contributors attempt to determine whether and to what extent the policy shifts that followed Mao Zedong's death affected Chinese families Marriage and Inequality in Chinese Society Rubie S. Watson, Patricia Buckley Ebrey, 1991-04-02 Marriage and mobility under rural collectivism William Lavelly Women property and law in the People's Republic of China Jonathan K Ocko Afterword marriage and gender inequality Rubie S Watson

People's Republic of China, Volumes I and II Frank N. Pieke, 2023-12-31 This title was first published in 2002 This two volume set collects in a conveniently accessible form the most influential articles by leading authorities in the study of China It provides an international reference work combined with an authoritative introduction by the editor Practicing Kinship Michael Szonyi, 2002 Presenting a new approach to the history of Chinese kinship this book attempts to bridge the gap between anthropological and historical scholarship on the Chinese lineage It explores the historical development of kinship in the villages of the Fuzhou region of southeastern Fujian province Promises to Keep David Popenoe, Jean Bethke Elshtain, David Blankenhorn, 1996 This collection of essays by prominent lawyers theologians social scientists policy makers and activists examines the reasons why the once treasured institution of marriage has been steadily displaced by a culture of divorce and unwed parenthood Promises to Keep presents the full text of The Council on Families in America's 1995 investigation Marriage in America A Report to the Nation and the contributors provide suggestions for marital resurrection to counteract trends that have created tragic hardships for children generated poverty within families and burdened us with insupportable social costs Sponsored by The Institute for American Values Women and the Family in Chinese History Patricia Ebrey, 2003-09-02 This is a collection of essays by one of the leading scholars of Chinese history it explores features of the Chinese family gender and kinship systems and places them in a historical context The SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology Richard Fardon, Oliva Harris, Trevor H J Marchand, Cris Shore, Veronica Strang, Richard Wilson, Mark Nuttall, 2012-07-25 In two volumes the SAGE Handbook of Social Anthropology provides the definitive overview of contemporary research in the discipline It explains the what where and how of current and anticipated work in Social Anthropology With 80 authors contributing more than 60 chapters this is the most comprehensive and up to date statement of research in Social Anthropology available and the essential point of departure for future projects The Handbook is divided into four sections Part I Interfaces examines Social Anthropology's disciplinary connections from Art and Literature to Politics and Economics from Linguistics to Biomedicine from History to Media Studies Part II Places examines place region culture and history from regional area studies to a globalized world Part III Methods examines issues of method from archives to war zones from development projects to art objects and from ethics to comparison Part IV Futures anticipates anthropologies to come in the Brain Sciences in post Development in the Body and Health and in new Technologies and Materialities Edited by the leading figures in social anthropology the Handbook includes a substantive introduction by Richard Fardon a think piece by Jean and John Comaroff and a concluding last word on futures by Marilyn Strathern The authors each at the leading edge of the discipline contribute in depth chapters on both the foundational ideas and the latest research Comprehensive and detailed this magisterial Handbook overviews the last 25 years of the social anthropological imagination It will speak to scholars in Social Anthropology and its many related disciplines Taiwan: A New History Murray A. Rubinstein, 2015-02-12 This is a comprehensive portrait of Taiwan It covers the major periods in the development of this small but powerful island province nation The work is designed in the style of the multi volume Cambridge History of China Women and Chinese Patriarchy Maria Jaschok, Suzanne Miers, 1994 This collection reveals many forms of servitude that Chinese women have endured and the avenues of escape open to some of them The authors are anthropologists historians and sociologists but the book is enriched also by contributions from the participants a social worker a mui tsai and a colonial civil servant The chapters are based on original documentary or oral research and personal experience and throughout the book the voices of the women their owners and their missionary rescuers can be clearly heard Changes in China Shao Chuan Leng, 1989 Under Deng Xiaoping's dynamic leadership the People's Republic of China has embarked on a highly significant and ambitious modernization drive resulting in various political economic and social changes It is to the nature and extent of the reform program that the book addresses itself There is general consensus among the authors that important changes are taking place in Deng's China that affect various segments of the society Most authors seem to believe that although beset with problems and difficulties current reforms and changes are likely to be continued and expanded in the years ahead Contents include The Modernization of China 19th and 20th Century Comparisons and Contrasts Does the CCP have a Line Reform Succession and the Resurgence of China's Old Guard China's Future Leaders The Third Echelon Cadres Students Intellectuals and Political Reform in Mainland China Habits of the Heart Intellectual Assumptions Reflected by Chinese Reformers from Tuo to Fang Lizhi China's Economic Reform at the Crossroads The Limits of Economic Change Lessons from Mainland China Changing Status of Women in the PRC New Trends in Marriage and Family in Mainland China Impacts from the Four Modernizations Campaign Military Modernization and Defense Policy in the People's Republic of China Deng Xiaoping and Modernization of the Chinese Military Change and Continuity in Contemporary PRC Foreign Policy Implications for the United States and Recent Legal Issues Between the United States and the People's

Republic of China Co published with the Miller Center for Public Affairs Change and Continuity in Chinese Local History
Harriet Zurndorfer, 2022-04-25 This book examines one of the most important problems concerning Chinese civilization how was the pattern of stability and continuity of Chinese society and economy achieved and maintained from approximately 800 to 1800 It uses the results of detailed specialized research about the Chinese landholding system marketing patterns the role of the extended family therein taxation and non elite social groups in one specific locale to answer questions that historians of any civilization ask about the structure and functioning of a given society The author has investigated the development of the Hui chou community over a 1 000 year period by concentrating on six grand questions each answered by one chapter The answers to these questions as given in this work show that stability is a dynamic concept Continuity in Hui chou is the result of the changes in population growth commercialization and class differentiation acting in concert over the long term

Families We Need Erin Raffety, 2022-11-11 Families We Need is an ethnography of the temporary yet transformative relationships between disenfranchised older foster mothers and disabled orphaned foster children in China and the power of these seemingly marginal relationships to confront state power disrupt intercountry adoption and challenge our assumptions about the limits of foster kinship Japan's Imperial Underworlds David R. Ambaras, 2018-08-09 This major new study uses vivid accounts of encounters between Chinese and Japanese people living at the margins of empire to elucidate Sino Japanese relations in the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries Each chapter explores mobility in East Asia through the histories of often ignored categories of people including trafficked children peddlers abducted women and a female pirate These stories reveal the shared experiences of the border populations of Japan and China and show how they fundamentally shaped the territorial boundaries that defined Japan s imperial world and continue to inform present day views of China From Meiji era treaty ports to the Taiwan Strait South China and French Indochina the movements of people in marginal locations not only destabilized the state s policing of geographical borders and social boundaries but also stimulated fantasies of furthering imperial power

Understanding Chinese Society Xiaowei Zang, 2015-07-14 This second edition of Understanding Chinese Society provides a comprehensive readable and well grounded introduction to the key issues affecting contemporary China A thorough analysis is undertaken not only of China s family patterns education system status hierarchy and ethnic diversity but also of China s mass media legal system and social control work and cultural expression As well as being thoroughly updated and revised throughout this edition offers new chapters on urbanization the environment and civil society in China A team of international experts guide students through social issues including What are the key features of the family and marriage institutions in China How are women and men faring differently in Chinese society today How are minorities faring in China How does the education system differentiate Chinese society How are religion and cultural traditions expressed Including handy pedagogical features such as a chronology of the People s Republic of China further reading suggestions and related novels and films Understanding Chinese Society is suitable for anyone studying Chinese Culture and

Society Chinese Studies and Asian sociology The Oriental, the Ancient and the Primitive Jack Goody, 1990-02-08

Continuing the comparative survey of pre industrial family formation undertaken in The Development of Family and Marriage in Europe 1983 Professor Goody looks in depth at kinship practice in Asia His findings cause him to question many traditional assumptions about the primitive East and he suggests that in contrast to pre colonial Africa kinship practice in Asia has much in common with that prevailing in parts of pre industrial Europe Goody examines the transmission of productive and other property in relation both to the prevailing political economy and to family and ideological structures and explores the distribution of mechanisms and strategies of management across cultures The book concludes that notions of western uniqueness are often misplaced and that much previous work on Asian kinship has been unwittingly distorted by the application of concepts and approaches derived from other inappropriate social formations Chinese Women in the Imperial Past Harriet Zurndorfer, 2022-08-22 The present volume is the result of a Leiden University workshop on women in imperial China by a group of international scholars In recent years Chinese women and gender studies have attracted more and more attention and this book is one of the first efforts to focus on major aspects of this subject It covers a wide range of topics and disciplines including bibliography demography history legal studies literature history of medicine and philosophy Chinese Women in the Imperial Past can rightly be seen as connected with the new Brill journal NAN N Men Women and Gender in Early and Imperial China which was founded to provide the scholarly community with a lasting forum in which the subject of Chinese women and gender can be dealt with in its own right Precious Records Susan Mann, 1997 Most analyses of gender in High Qing times have focused on literature and on the writings of the elite this book broadens the scope of inquiry to include women s work in the farm household courtesan entertainment and women s participation in ritual observances and religion In dealing with literature it shows how women s poetry can serve the historian as well as the literary critic drawing on one of the first anthologies of women s writing compiled by a woman to examine not only literary sensibilities and intimate emotions but also political judgments moral values and social relations Psychological Anthropology Robert A. Levine, 2010-04-26 Psychological Anthropology A Reader in Self in Culture presents a selection of readings from recent and classical literature with a rich diversity of insights into the individual and society Presents the latest psychological research from a variety of global cultures Sheds new light on historical continuities in psychological anthropology Explores the cultural relativity of emotional experience and moral concepts among diverse peoples the Freudian influence and recent psychoanalytic trends in anthropology Addresses childhood and the acquisition of culture an ethnographic focus on the self as portrayed in ritual and healing and how psychological anthropology illuminates social change
