Arranged Marriage Péter Berta, 2023-03-17 Arranged Marriage The Politics of Tradition Resistance and Change shows how arranged marriage practices have been undergoing transformation as a result of global and other processes such as the revolution of digital technology democratization of transnational mobility or shifting significance of patriarchal power structures The ethnographically informed chapters not only highlight how the gendered and intergenerational politics of agency autonomy choice consent and intimacy work in the contexts of partner choice and management of marriage but also point out that arranged marriages are increasingly varied and they can be reshaped reinvented and reinterpreted flexibly in response to individual family religious class ethnic and other desires needs and constraints The authors convincingly demonstrate that a nuanced investigation of the reasons complex dynamics and consequences of arranged marriages offers a refreshing analytical lens that can significantly contribute to a deeper understanding of other phenomena such as globalization modernization and international migration as well as patriarchal value regimes intergenerational power imbalances and gendered subordination and vulnerability of women

Against Marriage Clare Chambers,2017-09-08 Against Marriage argues that marriage violates both equality and liberty and should not be recognized by the state Clare Chambers shows how feminist and liberal principles require creation of a marriage free state one in which private marriages whether religious or secular would have no legal status Part One makes the case against marriage Chambers investigates the critique of marriage that has developed within feminist and liberal theory Feminists have long argued that state recognised marriage is a violation of equality Chambers endorses the feminist view and argues in contrast to recent egalitarian pro marriage movements that same sex marriage is not enough to make marriage equal The egalitarian case against marriage is the most fundamental argument of Against Marriage But Chambers also argues that state recognised marriage violates liberty including the political liberal version of liberty that is based on neutrality between conceptions of the good Part Two sets out the case for the marriage free state Chambers criticizes recent arguments that traditional marriage should be replaced with either a reformed version of marriage such as civil partnership or a purely contractual model of relationship regulation She then sets out a new model for the legal regulation of personal relationships Instead of regulating by status the state should regulate relationships according to the practices they involve Instead of regulating relationships holistically assuming that relationship practices are bundled together in one significant relationship the marriage free state regulates practices on a piecemeal basis The marriage free state thus employs piecemeal practice based regulation It may regulate private marriages including religious marriages so as to protect equality But it takes no interest in defining or protecting the meaning of marriage

Women and Men Reynaldo Pareja, 2017-06-19 We are witnessing today women being elected as presidents or prime ministers women that have been awarded Nobel prizes that perform exceedingly in sports winning Olympic medals women that excel in art that have defended the rights of the oppressed that have gone to space that are active in politics and are CEOs of businesses and corporations Women today are found in the most difficult jobs such as urgency paramedics workers in heavy machinery factories and in the construction of skyscrapers they are in research laboratories or as members of toxic materials management teams This was not the scenario 175 years ago On the contrary women since the cave times until the dawn of the twentieth century have been oppressed by the fact they were born as women Social cultural economic and political roles defined by men in those times obliged women to stay at home raising children without being allowed to aspire to play a significant role in the construction of human history The explosion of women participating today in the social political and economic arenas of the advanced countries might give the impression that this was their situation in the past Not true This modern movement of women engaged in a tenacious struggle for equality with men has given them unquestionable victories and a powerful consciousness of their role in the development of the history of humanity Their victories were not given to them by men On the contrary it has been a slow process that has demanded extraordinary effort from women all over the world We are just beginning to be witnesses of the potential that women have and can foresee the brilliant future they are going to create for humanity Appreciating defending and promoting this evolution is the invitation to participate in such a noble journey Erotic Justice Marvin Mahan Ellison, 1996-01-01 Ethicist Marvin Ellison compellingly argues that current crises in family personal life and sexuality are related to our culture's prevailing attitudes about human sexuality He proposes a liberating Christian ethic of erotic justice that goes beyond the prevailing patriarchal paradigm
