The American Ritual Tapestry Mary Jo Deegan, 1998-09-24 American rituals are vital to the creation and renewal of cultural meanings and rules for social interaction These rituals are rooted in tradition yet are rapidly changing a contradiction of hyper modern society This phenomenon was first explored by Professor Deegan in her 1989 study American Ritual Dramas The theory examines both participatory rituals and mass media rituals to show how everyday people become attached to and alienated from other rituals Elaborating on the critical dramaturgy theory the essays in this collection show how patterns can be changed to create a more emancipatory and celebratory society The topics covered in the collection include an analysis of Santa Claus skinheads hate crimes and strip dancing among other topics Each contributor has participated in these rituals and many examine related cultural artifacts such as music brochures and so forth As the essays show postmodern theory has gratly underestimated the power and coherence of these events An important study for scholars and other researchers involved with sociological theory social psychology and popular culture

Police Women Sandra K. Wells, Betty L. Alt, 2005-09-30 It is often said that a woman must do a job twice as well as a man in order to get half the credit This is particularly true of women in law enforcement Women have been involved in various forms of policing for the last 100 years but it wasn't until the Equal Employment Act of 1970 that women could move from the job of meter maids to patrol and detective work Yet less than 1% of all top level cops are women and there remain significant obstacles in the career paths of women in the force This book looks at the history of women police officers and provides first hand accounts of women at every level including those who drop out It addresses discrimination competition lack of mentoring differential treatment and sexual harassment examining what issues play into the decision to stick it out or leave that many policewomen face It also considers the family issues these women return home to at the end of the day It is often said that a woman must do a job twice as well as a man in order to get half the credit This is particularly true of women in law enforcement Women have been involved in various forms of policing for the last 100 years but it wasn't until the Equal Employment Act of 1970 that women could move from the job of meter maids to patrol and detective work Yet less than 1% of all top level cops are women and there remain significant obstacles in the career paths of women in the force This book looks at the history of women police officers and provides first hand accounts of women at every level including those who drop out It addresses discrimination competition lack of mentoring differential treatment and sexual harassment It looks at what plays into the decision to stick it out or leave that many policewomen face It also considers the family issues these women return home to at the end of the day Unlike other treatments of the subject Alt and Wells show how women have changed police work into a more community oriented model of policing reduced police violence served as a strong force to promote a more effective response to domestic violence within police departments and helped with community police relations With a combination of first hand accounts careful research and lively analysis the authors are able to convey the actual experiences of women who have made their careers behind the shield

The Poetics of Intimacy and the Problem of Sexual Abstinence Michael J. Hartwig, 2009 This bold work asks whether traditional Christian sexual morality with its emphasis on sexual abstinence outside of heterosexual marriage is harmful Appealing to sociological studies anthropological theories and contemporary theological ethics Hartwig develops a model of sexual virtue around the concept of a poetics of intimacy and applies this model to particular challenges faced by the divorced married couples gay men and lesbians single adults and people with mental and developmental disabilities He concludes that mandated long term and lifelong sexual abstinence for those outside heterosexual marriage is not only harmful but compromises many features of Christian morality

Study Guide for Lamanna and Riedmann's Marriages and Families David Treybig, 1991 Fleeing Grandma and Grandpa Betty L. Alt, Sandra K. Wells, 2004-09-30 Falling for a scam or con is humiliating for anyone and can have terrible consequences But for the elderly being the victim of fraud can be disastrous and they are the most common and vulnerable targets of everyday scams cons and frauds From identity theft to gambling scams from power of attorney issues to pyramid schemes there is no dearth of creativity in the ways some criminals will relieve the elderly from their money and their homes Here Alt and Wells describe the most common scams offer the stories of actual victims and detail ways to protect yourself and your family from becoming easy targets What makes the elderly such easy marks for con artists How can they avoid the common traps Knowing about them is one place to start and this book helps readers to understand and identify the most common scams perpetrated against the elderly Because such cons are so hard to prosecute it is important to know the methods criminals employ to separate innocents from their hard earned money This lively vivid account of one of the most insidious forms of crime will help families and individuals protect themselves and their loved ones from the machinations of those who view them as easy marks Bringing Families Together E. Kim Coontz,2003 Marriages, Families, and Relationships Mary Ann Lamanna,Agnes Riedmann,Susan D.
