The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G. S. Coetsier,2014-01-09 In The Existential Philosophy of Etty Hillesum Meins G S Coetsier breaks new ground by demonstrating the Jewish existential nature of Etty Hillesum s spiritual and cultural life in light of the writings of Martin Buber Emmanuel Levinas and Dietrich Bonhoeffer Hillesum s diaries and letters written between 1941 and 1943 illustrate her struggle to come to terms with her personal life in the context of the Second World War and the Shoah By finding God under the rubble of the horrors she rediscovers the divine presence between humankind while taking up responsibility for the Other as a way to embrace justice and compassion In a fascinating accessible and thorough study Coetsier dispels much of the confusion that assails readers when they are exposed to the bewildering range of Christian and Jewish influences and other cultural interpretations of her writings The result is a convincing and profound picture of Etty Hillesum s path to spiritual freedom

Martin Buber's Dialogical Thought as a Philosophy of Action Asaf Ziderman,2024-10-30 This book promotes a philosophical revival of Buber s dialogical thought by repositioning it as a philosophy of action departing from a long established consensus that narrowly viewed it as a post Kantian epistemology Based on careful analysis of his writings the book s main thrust is to reconstruct Buber s argument that dialogue is the perfected form of action and a perfect action is necessarily dialogical This reconstruction renders Buber s dialogical thought pertinent to contemporary analytic philosophy by situating it within central discussions in the field of philosophy of action

Thinking Jewish Culture in America Ken Koltun-Fromm,2013-12-11 Thinking Jewish Culture in America argues that Jewish thought extends our awareness and deepens the complexity of American Jewish culture This volume stretches the disciplinary boundaries of Jewish thought so that it can productively engage expanding arenas of culture by drawing Jewish thought into the orbit of cultural studies The eleven contributors to Thinking Jewish Cultures together with Chancellor Arnold Eisen s postscript position Jewish thought within the dynamics and possibilities of contemporary Jewish culture These diverse essays in Jewish thought re imagine cultural space as a public and sometimes contested performance of Jewish identity and they each seek to re enliven that space with reflective accounts of cultural meaning How do Jews imagine themselves as embodied actors in America Do cultural obligations limit or expand notions of the self How should we imagine Jewish thought as a cultural performance What notions of peoplehood might sustain a vibrant Jewish collectivity in a globalized economy How do programs in Jewish studies work within the academy These and other questions engage both Jewish thought and culture opening space for theoretical works to broaden the range of cultural studies and to deepen our understanding of Jewish cultural dynamics Thinking Jewish Culture is a work about Jewish cultural identity reflected through literature visual arts philosophy and theology But it is more than a mere reflection of cultural patterns and choices the argument pursued throughout Thinking Jewish Culture is that reflective sources help produce the very cultural meanings and performances they purport to analyze

New Perspectives in Philosophy of Education David Lewin,Alexandre Guilherme,Morgan White,2014-10-23 New Perspectives in Philosophy of Education seeks to build a bridge between philosophical reflection and socio political action by developing a range of critical discussions in the areas of ethics politics and religion This volume brings together established authorities and a new generation of scholars to ask whether philosophy of education can contribute to political and social discourse or whether it is destined to remain the marginal gadfly of mainstream ideology The philosophy of education stands in danger of becoming a neglected field at precisely the moment we need to be able to reflect upon the increasingly apparent costs of the technocratic attitude to education While many of the educational policy discussions of recent years seem far reaching and radical critical debate surrounding these initiatives remain largely at a populist level New Perspectives in Philosophy of Education provides contemporary responses to philosophical issues that bear upon educational studies policies and practices contributing to the debate on the role of philosophy of education in an increasingly fractured intellectual milieu

Sociocultural Studies in Education Richard A Quantz, 2016-01-08 Sociocultural Studies in Education Critical Thinking for Democracy fills a void in the education of educators and citizens in a democracy It explores some of the fundamentals around which disagreements in education arise It presents a process with which those new to these debates can understand often confusing and entwined sets of facts and logics This book leads the reader through some general concepts and intellectual skills that provide the basis for making sense out of the debates around public education in a democracy This book can be seen as a primer on how to read texts about education It acknowledges that good teachers must be not only trained to teach but also educated about education It presents the various themes and currents found within the arguments and narratives that people use to represent public education It assumes that the more those interested in education know about how to see through the rhetoric the better they will be at discerning whose interests are served by which texts

Jews in China Irene

Eber,2019-11-12 Irene Eber was one of the foremost authorities on Jews in China during the twentieth and twenty first centuries a field that in contrast to the study of the Jewish diaspora in Europe and the Americas has been critically neglected This volume gathers fourteen of Eber s most salient articles and essays on the exchanges between Jewish and Chinese cultures making available to students scholars and general readers a representative sample of the range and depth of her important work in the field of Jews in China Jews in China delineates the centuries long reciprocal dialogue between Jews Jewish culture and China all under the overarching theme of cultural translation The first section of the book sets forth a sweeping overview of the history of Jews in China beginning in the twelfth century and concluding with a detailed assessment of the two crucial years leading up to the Second World War The second section examines the translation of Chinese classics into Hebrew and the translation of the Hebrew Bible into Chinese The third and final section turns to modern literature bringing together eight essays that underscore the cultural reciprocity that takes place through acts of translation The centuries long relationship between Judaism and China is often overlooked in the light of the extensive discourse surrounding European and American Judaism With this volume Eber reminds us that we have much to learn from the intersections between Jewish identity and Chinese culture

Andrea Greenbaum,Deborah H. #### Mutuality Dawn M. Nothwehr, 2005-07-25

By selecting as her focus mutuality Nothwehr brings to the fore an issue of perennial importance in Christian social ethics that of power As she shows feminist theology invites religious ethicists to reconceive normative questions of power from the vantage point of its dynamic mutual sharing a sharing that encompasses not only individual relations but society and the natural world She also demonstrates how attention to relations of mutuality sheds light on the spectrum of classical Christian theological and moral topics revealing dimensions of our traditions that standard assumptions about power as domination tend to obscure Christine Firer Hinze

Associate Professor of Theology Marquette University This book allows mutuality to take its rightful place along with love and justice in Christian social ethics Written with great clarity with excellent scholarship and with the thinking of key historical figures in mind this book focuses on the thinking of four contemporary Christian feminists Beverly Wildung Harrison Carter Heyward Elizabeth Johnson and Rosemary Radford Ruether to show that mutuality is at the heart of ethics But it does more It shows that mutuality at the heart of the human at the heart of the divine and at the heart of the meeting between the two John J Shea visiting Associate Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling Boston College Dawn Nothwehr employs a corrective category mutuality At first blush the term would seem too tender and nebulous to address the splits in our consciousness but this theologian brings well informed care to its definition It becomes in her hands a critical tool which can do healing surgery on many foundational categories of Catholic theology and indeed on much of modern thinking beyond the pale of Catholicism Mutuality calls attention to the essential interdependency of all that is in our cosmos Daniel C Maguire Professor of Theological Ethics Marquette University
