1915-1951 Ian Hamilton, 2011-11-17 Legend has it that Hollywood lures gifted writers into its service with sunshine and money only to treat them as glorified typists and plot mechanics peripheral to the main business of moviemaking This is what Ian Hamilton describes as the writer in chains saga that emerges from any study of Hollywood during its so called golden years the period I have marked as running from 1915 1951 But in this superb account of what befell the likes of Faulkner Fitzgerald Chandler and Huxley by working for the Dream Factory Hamilton argues that these writers were in the movies by choice they earned far more money than their colleagues who did not write for films and in several cases they applied themselves conscientiously to the not unimportant task at hand And they had a lot of laughs Fascinating and enjoyable New Statesman Abounds in marvelous stories apocryphal fabulous funny and even true Observer Faber Finds is devoted to restoring to readers a wealth of lost or neglected classics and authors of distinction The range embraces fiction non fiction the arts and children s books For a full list of available titles visit www.faberfinds.co.uk To join the dialogue with fellow book lovers please see our blog www.faberfindsblog.co.uk Hollywood Mad Dogs Edwin "Bud" Shrake, 2020-12-11 Before his death in 2009 legendary Texas author Edwin Bud Shrake completed a final novel based on his real life adventures as a Hollywood screenwriter in the 1970s and 80s In this new book we meet screenwriter Richard Swift who has been lured away from his cushy job at Sports Illustrated to write a movie for Jack Roach a matinee idol famous for his electric blue eyes dimpled chin and a swagger that makes women swoon As Swift and his new movie star buddy hurtle through days and nights of Hollywood madness Shrake s crystalline prose purrs like a Lamborghini speeding along the Pacific Coast Highway There are spies and fake houses mountains of drugs weird sex crimes and bizarre feuds In Hollywood Mad Dogs Shrake deftly satirizes a world where a screenwriter is supplied with a bag of cocaine and given a week to write a script a star demands that a pet cat be his sidekick on the trail and two competing box office titans square off on a golf course each of them armed with a putter This rollicking new novel discovered among Shrake s literary papers at the Wittliff Collections provides a hilarious and insightful look at the Hollywood meat grinder It is a story only Bud Shrake could tell and it is a worthy addition to the author s celebrated career which includes some of the most highly praised novels written by a Texan
