Marty Jurow Seein Stars A Show Biz Odyssey:

Marty Jurow Seein' Stars Martin Jurow, Philip Wuntch, 2001 Producer and agent Martin Jurow's 60 year career in show business encompasses a glittering array of celebrities he has represented worked with and befriended This memoir captures his inimitable power of persuasion as well as the milieu in which he exercised it A Splurgh in the Kissers Sam Wasson, 2011-07-21 With one of the longest and most controversial careers in Hollywood history Blake Edwards is a phoenix of movie directors full of hubris ambition and raving comic chutzpah His rambunctious filmography remains an artistic force on par with Hollywood's greatest comic directors Lubitsch Sturges Wilder Like Wilder Edwards's propensity for hilarity is double helixed with pain and in films like Breakfast at Tiffany's Days of Wine and Roses and even The Pink Panther we can hear him off screen laughing in the dark And yet despite those enormous successes he was at one time considered a Hollywood villain After his marriage to Julie Andrews Edwards's Darling Lili nearly sunk the both of them and brought Paramount Studios to its knees Almost overnight Blake became an industry pariah which ironically fortified his sense of satire as he simultaneously fought the Hollywood tide and rode it Employing keen visual analysis meticulous research and troves of interviews and production files Sam Wasson delivers the first complete account of one of the maddest figures Hollywood has ever known Fifth Avenue, 5 A.M. Sam Wasson, 2011-09-25 Before Breakfast at Tiffany's Audrey Hepburn was still a little known actress with few film roles to speak of after it indeed because of it she was one of the world's most famous fashion style and screen icons It was this film that matched her with Hubert de Givenchy's little black dress Meanwhile Truman Capote's original novel is itself a modern classic selling huge numbers every year and its high living author of perennial interest Now this little book tells the story of how it all happened how Audrey got the role for which at first she wasn't considered and which she at first didn't want how long it took to get the script right how it made Blake Edwards name as a director after too many trashy films had failed to and how Henry Mancini's soundtrack with its memorable signature tune Moon River completed the irresistible package This is the story of how one shy uncertain inexperienced young actress was persuaded to take on a role she at first thought too hard edged and amoral and how it made Audrey Hepburn into gamine elusive Holly Golightly in the little black dress and a star for the rest of her life The Many Lives of Cy Endfield Brian Neve, 2015-07-21 Cy Endfield 1914 1995 was a filmmaker Try and Get Me Hell Drivers Zulu with interests in close up magic science and invention The director of several distinctive Hollywood movies he was blacklisted and refused to name names before the House Un American Activities Committee Truman Capote Tison Pugh, 2014-05 Truman Capote once remarked My primary thing is that I'm a prose writer I don't think film is the greatest living thing nonetheless his legacy is in many ways defined by his complex relationship with cinema Hollywood and celebrity itself In Truman Capote A Literary Life at the Movies Tison Pugh explores the author and his literature through a cinematic lens skillfully weaving the most relevant elements of Capote's biography including his highly flamboyant public persona and his friendships and feuds with notable stars with insightful critical analysis of the films screenplays and adaptations of his works that composed his fraught relationship with the Hollywood machine Capote's masterful short stories and novels ensure his status as an iconic author of the twentieth century and his screenplays including Beat the Devil Indiscretion of an American Wife and The Innocents allowed him to collaborate with such Hollywood heavyweights as Humphrey Bogart John Huston and David O Selznick Throughout his professional life he circulated freely in a celebrity milieu populated by such notables as Marlon Brando Elizabeth Taylor and Marilyn Monroe Cinematic adaptations of his literature most notably Breakfast at Tiffany's and In Cold Blood play with or otherwise alter Capote's queer literary themes often bleaching his daring treatment of homosexuality in favor of heterosexual romance Truman Capote A Literary Life at the Movies reveals Capote's literary works to be not merely coincident to film but integral to their mutual creation paying keen attention to the ways in which Capote's identity as a gay southerner influenced his and others' perceptions of his literature and its adaptations Pugh's research illuminates Capote's personal and professional successes and disappointments in the film industry helping to create a more nuanced portrait of the author and bringing fresh details to light Michael Curtiz Alan K. Rode, 2017-11-17
