The club boasts nearly eighty regional, national, and international titles. It has bred world-class runners such as Olympian Bill Rodgers, four-time winner of the Boston and New York marathons, and Olympian Alberto Salazar, three-time winner of the New York marathon and winner of the Boston and the Comrades Ultra marathons. Author Paul C. Clerici honors the Greater Boston Track Club through historical records and the experiences of those involved in its legacy. When Running Made History Roger Robinson, 2018-05-17. Robinson takes readers on a globe-trotting tour that combines a historian's insight with vivid personal memories going back to just after World War II. From experiencing the 1948 Austerity Olympics in London as a young spectator to working as a journalist in the Boston Marathon media center at the moment of the 2013 bombings, Robinson offers a fascinating first-person account of the tragic and triumphant moments that impacted the world and shaped the modern sport. He chronicles the beginnings of the American running boom, the emergence of women's running, the end of the old amateur rules, and the redefinition of aging for athletes and amateurs. With an intimate perspective and insightful reporting, Robinson captures major historical events through the lens of running. He recounts running in Berlin at the time of German reunification in 1990, organizing a replacement track meet in New Zealand after the disastrous 2011 earthquake, and the triumph of Ethiopian athlete Abebe Bikila in the 1960 Olympics in Rome. As an avid runner, journalist, and fan, Robinson brings these global events to life and reveals the intimate and powerful ways in which running has intersected with recent history. Marathon Man Bill Rodgers, 2013-04-02. A four-time winner of the Boston and NYC Marathons details his historic victory of the 1975 Boston Marathon, recounting the events that led to his achievement and his role in inspiring the modern running boom and the goals of countless fellow athletes.
