Demons and Development James Brow, 1996-10 In contemporary Sri Lanka long established modes of rural life are being disrupted in the name of progress As this occurs instances of demonic possession have been known to take place incidents that may both express the conflicts that result and attempt to resolve them When residents of the village of Kukulewa were promised sixty new houses a factional rift arose between those who benefited from the project and those who did not The breach between what became in effect two separate villages resulted in both divisive accusations of sorcery and spirit inspired appeals for cooperation James Brow witnessed these possession trances and sorcery accusations as they occurred enabling him to convey this richly textured story interweaving political factionalism and troubled spirits Official projects of development have proceeded apace in Sri Lanka but until now there have been few accounts of their tendency to tear apart the fabric of rural society Demons and Development combines an engaging narrative of how development was experienced in one particular village with an original

Movement and the Politics of Class in Britain provides an engaging exploration of the fruitful but challenging relationship between British feminism and class politics in a capitalist society Essays on Marx's Capital Geert Reuten, 2024-05-13 In this book Geert Reuten presents 21 of his previously published essays on the three volumes Marx's Capital dating from 1991 to 2019. The essays largely take the form of a summary of Marx's text, a Volume or its Parts or Chapters followed by an appreciation and when required a reconstruction. The book thus offers an overview of each of the three volumes of Capital including their interconnection as well as a focus on specific Parts of Capital. Throughout the general overviews and more focused analyses Reuten emphasises Marx's systematic dialectical method and his monetary value form analysis.
