Smith's position on the role of the state include Jeremy Bentham and the Scottish Canadian John Rae. Similarly of high present day interest is a re-examination of Karl Marx's theory of exploitation or the notion of profits as embezzlement demonstrating Marx's effective abandonment of this perspective in the case of the small active businessman as distinct from the major joint stock corporation. Other papers demonstrate the close intellectual relationship between David Ricardo and Thomas Robert Malthus, the extensive common ground between the British school and the French under the leadership of Jean Baptiste Say, the failure of a so-called anti-Ricardian opposition in Britain represented by Samuel Bailey and the denial of a sharp discontinuity between classical and later neo-classical economics. Finally several biographical essays are included as well as an extension of the autobiographical account appearing in Collected Essays II. The SAGE Handbook of Marxism Beverley Skeggs, Sara R. Farris, Alberto Toscano, Svenja Bromberg, 2021-11-17. The past decade has witnessed a resurgence of interest in Marxism both within and without the academy. Marxian frameworks, concepts and categories continue to be narratively relevant to the features and events of contemporary capitalism. Most crucially, an attention to shifting cultural conditions has led contemporary researchers to re-confront some classical and essential Marxist concepts as well as elaborating new critical frameworks for the analysis of capitalism today. The SAGE Handbook of Marxism showcases this cutting edge of today's Marxism. It advances the debate with essays that rigorously map and renew the concepts that have provided the groundwork and main currents for Marxist theory and showcases interventions that set the agenda for Marxist research in the 21st century. A rigorous and challenging collection of scholarship, this book contains a stunning range of contributions from contemporary academics, writers and theorists from around the world and across disciplines invaluable to scholars and graduate students alike. Part 1: Reworking the critique of political economy; Part 2: Forms of domination, subjects of struggle; Part 3: Political perspectives; Part 4: Philosophical dimensions; Part 5: Land and existence; Part 6: Domains; Part 7: Inquiries and debates. Studies of the Paris Manuscripts Lixin Han, 2020-02-22. This book is devoted to the studies of Karl Marx's Paris Manuscripts and presents a new interpretation of early Marx, arguing that his transition to maturity can be found in these manuscripts and specifically in Comments on James Mill, which was drafted between the First Manuscript and the Second Manuscript. In Comments on James Mill, Marx succeeds in transferring his theoretical framework from the isolated individual to the society and establishes his basic goal, i.e. to explicate the nature of humans and society from the perspective of external economic relations, marking the advent of historical materialism. This study reopens the possibility of interpreting the Paris Manuscripts from the perspective of Hegel. According to the author, it was during the Paris Manuscripts period that Marx shifted his theoretical foundations from Feuerbach to Hegel. On the basis of Hegel's alienation concept, Marx constructs a new form of alienation theory with alienation of intercourse at its core. The theoretical challenge tackled by this book is to restore the authority of alienation theory and strengthen the position of the Paris Manuscripts in the history of Marx thought so as to rearrange the traditional landscape of research on early Marx thought. This interpretation proposed and published for the first time in the world could compete with the theses of Louis Althusser and Hiromatsu Wataru which consider Die deutsche Ideologie to be the turning point of Marx. Further it represents a significant contribution by a Chinese scholar to the international research on Marx. Marx's Capital and Hegel's Logic, 2014-04-17. This book provides a wide ranging and in depth reappraisal of the relation between Marx's economic theory in Capital and Hegel's Logic by leading Marxian economists and philosophers from around the world. The subjects dealt with include systematic dialectics, the New Dialectics, materialism vs idealism, Marx's inversion of Hegel, Hegel's Concept, logic, universality, particularity, singularity, Hegel's Essence, logic, essence, appearance, Marx's levels of abstraction of capital in general and competition and capital as Hegelian Subject. The papers in this volume were originally presented at the 22nd annual meeting of the International Symposium on Marxian Theory at Mount Holyoke College in August 2011. The twelve authors are divided between seven economists and five philosophers as is fitting for the interdisciplinary subject of the relation between Marx's economic theory and Hegel's logic. Contributors are Chris Arthur, Riccardo Bellofiore, Roberto Fineschi, Gaston Caligaris, Igor Hanzel, Juan I. Igo Carrera, Mark Meaney, Fred Moseley, Patrick Murray, Geert Reuten, Mario Robles, Tony Smith and Guido Starosta. Marx and Le Capital, Marcello Musto, 2022-12-16. Over the past few years Marx's Capital has received renewed academic and popular attention. This volume is dedicated to the history of the making, the theoretical evaluation and the analysis of the dissemination and reception of an almost unknown version of Capital, the French translation published between 1872 and 1875 to which Marx participated directly. In revising this version Marx decided to introduce some additions and modifications, not hesitating to describe in the postscript Le Capital as a scientific value independent of the original. To mark the 150th anniversary of the French translation of Capital 1872-2022, 15 authors have helped to shed light on its history and main features as well as analysing its later fortunes in France and in the rest of the world. They also provide a more exhaustive account of the ideas of the late Marx. The book also includes a previously unpublished selection of 31 letters from correspondence of Karl Marx, Maurice Lachtre Just Vernouillet and Friedrich Engels related to the making of Le Capital. 10 of these letters by Marx were only recently rediscovered and are translated here for the first time in English. This book is an indispensable source for academic communities who are increasingly interested in rediscovering Marx beyond 20th century Marxism. Moreover it will be of appeal to graduate students as well as established scholars interested in French socialism and the history of the labour movement. The New International Division of Labour, Guido Starosta, 2016-06-02. This book revisits the debate over the new international division of labour (NIDL) that dominated discussions in international political economy and development studies until the early 1990s. It submits that a revised NIDL thesis can shed light on the specificities of capitalist development in various parts of the world today. Taken together the contributions amount to a novel value theoretical approach to understanding the NIDL. This rests upon the distinction between the global economic content that determines the constitution and dynamics of the NIDL and the evolving national political forms that mediate its development More specifically the authors argue that uneven development is an expression of the underlying essential unity of the production of relative surplus value on a world scale They substantiate and illustrate this argument through several international case studies including Argentina Brazil Ecuador Ireland South Korea Spain and Venezuela

Accounting for Value in Marx's Capital Robert Bryer, 2017-09-07 Many scholars discuss Marx's Capital from many perspectives but Accounting for Value uniquely advances and defends an accounting interpretation of his theory of value that he used it to explain capitalists accounts It confirms and builds on the Temporal Single System Interpretation's refutation of the charge that Marx's illustration of the transformation from values to prices is inconsistent and its defense of his Law of the Tendency of the Rate of Profit to Fall It rejects other interpretations by showing that only a temporal single system interpretation is consistent with Marx's accounting The book shows that Marx became seriously interested in accounts from the late 1850s during an important period in the development of his critique of political economy asking Engels for information and explanations Examining their letters in the context of Marx's evolving work it argues supports the hypothesis that discovering he could explain them with his theory of value gave him the breakthrough he needed to decide how to present his work and explains why in 1862 he decided to change its title to Capital Marx's explanations of capitalist accounting it concludes amount to an accounting theory that explains how individual capitalists and the capital market use what is for many the invisible hand of accounting to control the production and distribution of surplus value Marx claimed his theory of value was a work of science a critique of political economy that would deliver a theoretical blow from which the bourgeoisie would never recover He failed critics argue because his critique depends on hypothetical entities which we cannot directly observe such as value and abstract labour surplus value which means his theory is not open to empirical refutation The book however argues that he used his theory of value to explain the phenomenal forms of profit rate of profit etc by explaining the observable accounting principles and practices capitalists use to calculate and control them in which as he said we can glimpse the determination of value by socially necessary labor time which experience could have refuted
