No Time To Remember:

No Time To Think Howard Rosenberg, Charles S. Feldman, 2008-10-01 An eviscerating look at the state of journalism in the age of the 24 hour news cycle by a Pulitzer Prize winning television critic and a veteran news correspondent No Time To Think focuses on the insidious and increasing portion of the news media that due to the dangerously extreme speed at which it is produced is only half thought out half true and lazily repeated from anonymous sources interested in selling opinion and wild speculation as news These news item can easily gain exposure today assuming a life of their own while making a mockery of journalism and creating casualties of cool deliberation and thoughtful discourse Much of it is picked up gratuitously and given resonance online or through CNN Fox News MSNBC and other networks which must in this age of the 24 hour news cycle feed the beast In dissecting this frantic news blur No Time to Think breaks down a number of speed driven blunders from the insider perspective of Charles Feldman who spent 20 years as a CNN correspondent as well as the outsider perspective of Howard Rosenberg who covered the coverage for 25 years as TV critic for The Los Angeles Times No Time to Think demonstrates how today s media blitz scrambles the public s perspective in ways that potentially shape how we think act and react as a global society The end result effects not only the media and the public but also the government leaders we trust to make carefully considered decisions on our behalf Featuring interviews ranging from former NBC News anchor Tom Brokaw to internet doyenne Arianna Huffington to PBS stalwart Jim Lehrer to CNN chief Jonathan Klein to a host of former presidential press secretaries and other keen eyed media watchers this incisive work measures lasting fallout from the 24 hour news cycle beginning in 1980 with the arrival of CNN right up to the present Hearings United States.
