themes     Seducing the Demon Erica Jong,2007-03-15 Erica Jong's memoir a national bestseller was probably the most wildly reviewed book of 2006 Critics called it everything from brutally funny risqu and wonderfully unrepentant and rowdy self deprecating and endearing to a car wreck Throughout her book tour Jong was unflappably funny and responded to her critics with a hilarious essay on NPR's All Things Considered which is included in this paperback edition In addition to prominent review and feature coverage Jong was a guest on Today and Real Time with Bill Maher Even Rush Limbaugh flirted with Jong on his radio program I think she wants me I think she's fantasizing about me Love her hate her Jong still knows how to seduce the country and most important keep the pages turning     Any Woman's Blues Erica Jong,2006-12-28 A tale of addiction and narcissism the twin obsessions of our age World famous folk singer Leila Sand emerged from the sixties and seventies with addictions to drugs and booze Leila's latest addiction is to a younger man who leaves her sexually ecstatic but emotionally bereft The orgasmic frenzies trump the betrayals so she keeps coming back for more Eventually Leila frees herself by learning the rules of love the Twelve Steps and the Key to Serenity in an odyssey that takes her from AA meetings to dens of sin parties with names worth dropping and unforgettable gondola rides Jong has given us a poignant exploration of life art and the complexities of womanhood     Resurrecting the Unicorn Bud Harris,2008-11 Many 21st century men have been raised by women without a masculine role model and what they've learned about being a man has been defined by their mothers wives and outdated or distorted concepts from the 20th century feminist movement As is the case for both men and women without a strong masculine image our souls become fragmented and we lose our way When we are in such a state of confusion and imbalance we must begin again to search for the Holy Grail The Grail is the symbolic container of the psycho spiritual contents that can nourish balance and renew our lives In Resurrecting the Unicorn Bud Harris guides us deep into the realm of metaphors where we can examine the evolution and development of human consciousness and reclaim discarded yet much needed aspects of our humanity     The Florence King Reader Florence King,1996-05-15 GIFT LOCAL 11 15 2002 13 95     Encyclopedia of American Popular Fiction Geoff Hamilton,Brian Jones,2010-05-12 Covers contemporary authors and works that have enjoyed commercial success in the United States but are typically neglected by more literary guides Provides high school and college students with everything they need to know to understand the authors and works of American popular fiction     In the Canon's Mouth Lillian S. and Dinesh d Souza come from the far right They claim that feminists and cultural critics such as Lillian Robinson have taken over our universities Robinson counters that the right is so frightened at losing its strangle hold on the culture that it misrepresents a foothold as hegemony

Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation Charlotte Templin, 1995 Soon after its publication in 1973 Fear of Flying brought Erica Jong immense popular success and media fame Alternately pegged sassy and vulgar Jong's novel embraced the politics of the women's liberation movement and challenged the definition of female sexuality Yet today more than twenty years and several books later literary reputation continues for the most part to elude Jong Typecast by her adversaries as a media seeking sensationalist Erica Jong has been unfairly side stepped by academia Charlotte Templin contends In this carefully researched study augmented by personal interviews with Jong Templin assembles and analyzes the medley of responses to Jong's books by reviewers critics writers academics and the media by liberals conservatives and feminists She examines the diverse opinions on the merit and relevance to contemporary life of Fear of Flying the invocation of a high culture low culture dichotomy to discredit How to Save Your Own Life the anatomy of literary success with Fanny Jong's reception in a postfeminist age and the trivialization of Jong's works that is inevitable with mass media exposure Templin also shows how antagonistic reviewers tend to identify Jong with her fictitious characters a practice more common when the author is a woman and judge her to be guilty of the sin of not being a proper woman In turn she shows how reviewers reveal something of their own values and ideological biases in their critiques and how literary reputations are built destroyed and altered over time The first book to make a detailed examination of the reputation of a woman writer Feminism and the Politics of Literary Reputation provides an excellent case study for the literary reception of women writers within a broad cultural context Templin's analysis offers valuable insight into the reception of women writers especially commercially successful women writers and dramatically illustrates the relation of literary reputation to popular appeal and cultural mores
