Later Operetta 2 Orly Leah Krasner, 2020-11-25 The most successful American born composer of operetta at the end of the nineteenth century was Reginald de Koven The work reprinted in this volume The Highwayman is arguably his best work although he is better known for the earlier Robin Hood with its evergreen wedding ballad Oh Promise Me Robin Hood is available as a reprint in the 1990 volume American Opera and Music for the Stage in the G K Hall series Three Centuries of American Music. The editor of this volume Orly Leah Krasner is a leading scholar of de Koven's music. She teaches at the City University of New York and her Ph D dissertation Reginald de Koven 1859 1920 and American Comic Opera at the Turn of the Century is also from that university. Her introduction places the work in the tenor of contemporary critical reaction and lists the sources available for further study. The Highwayman is one of the few complete operettas of its era for which we are fortunate enough to have original performing materials in the composer's own hand. As the penultimate volume number 15 in this series de Koven's work of 1897 contrasts with two works of the previous year: Walter Damrosch's opera The Scarlet Letter volume 16 and John Philip Sousa's operetta El Capitan volume 14.

Culture, Music Education, and the Chinese Dream in Mainland China Wai-Chung Ho, 2018-01-04 This book focuses on the rapidly changing sociology of music as manifested in Chinese society and Chinese education. It examines how social changes and cultural politics affect how music is currently being used in connection with the Chinese dream. While there is a growing trend toward incorporating the Chinese dream into school education and higher education, there has been no scholarly discussion to date. The combination of cultural politics transformed authority relations and officially approved songs can provide us with an understanding of the official content on the Chinese dream that is conveyed in today's Chinese society and how these factors have influenced the renewal of values-based education and practices in school music education in China.

Anxiety Aesthetics Jennifer Dorothy Lee, 2024-02-06 Anxiety Aesthetics is the first book to consider a prehistory of contemporaneity in China through the emergent creative practices in the aftermath of the Mao era. Arguing that socialist residues underwrite contemporary Chinese art complicating its theorization through Maoism, Jennifer Dorothy Lee traces a selection of historical events and controversies in late 1970s and early 1980s Beijing. Lee offers a fresh critical frame for doing symptomatic readings of protest ephemera and artistic interventions in the Beijing Spring social movement of 1978-80 while exploring the rhetoric of heated debates waged in institutional contexts prior to the 85 New Wave. Lee demonstrates how socialist aesthetic theories and structures continued to shape young artists' engagement with both space and selfhood and occupied the minds of figures looking to reform the nation. In magnifying this fleeting moment, Lee provides a new historical foundation for the unprecedented global exposure of contemporary Chinese art today.
