Redistribution Through The Financial System The Grants Economics Of Money And Credit:

Interdisciplinary Economics Wilfred Dolfsma, Stefan Kesting, 2013-07-18 Kenneth Boulding was a prolific writer across so many different fields that not only is he often much referred to and cited he is considered a core member of many of these fields Boulding is the quintessential interdisciplinary scholar He died in 1993 but he has left a legacy in economics conflict studies systems theory ecology biology communication studies and ethics As an economist proper he has tested and expanded the boundaries of that field without unduly invading and undermining the expertise and established knowledge of the other social sciences This proposed volume will allow scholars who have worked or are starting to work in areas that Boulding has initiated established and made a continued contribution to to understand the links between these fields and other related ones The volume will establish a source of inspiration for some time to come Redistribution Through the Financial System Kenneth Ewart Boulding, Thomas Frederick Wilson, 1978 Redistribution Through the Financial System : the Grants Economics of Money and Credit k. e Boulding (editor.), 1978 Milton Friedman & Economic Debate in the United States, 1932-1972: Volume 2 Edward Nelson, 2020-11-06 Second in a two volume study of the Nobel Prize winner s long career Nelson knows more about Milton Friedman s economics than anyone else alive Business Economics This study is the first to distill Nobel Prize winner Milton Friedman s vast body of writings into an authoritative account of his research his policy views and his interventions in public debate With this ambitious new work Edward Nelson closes the gap Milton Friedman and Economic Debate in the United States is the defining narrative on the famed economist the first to grapple comprehensively with Friedman s research output economic framework and legacy This two volume account provides a foundational introduction to Friedman s role in several major economic debates that took place in the United States between 1932 and 1972 This second volume covers the years between 1960 and 1972 years that saw the publication of Friedman and Anna Schwartz s Monetary History of the United States The book also covers Friedman s involvement in a number of debates in the 1960s and 1970s on topics such as unemployment inflation consumer protection and the environment As a fellow monetary economist Nelson writes from a unique vantage point drawing on both his own expertise in monetary analysis and his deep familiarity with Friedman s writings Using extensive documentation the book weaves together Friedman s research contributions and his engagement in public debate providing an unparalleled analysis of Friedman s views on the economic developments of his day No previous biographer has Nelson s deep and sophisticated understanding of monetary economics Economic History Labor Literature United States. Department of Labor. Library, 1979 Labor Literature , 1979 Special Study on Economic Change: Stagflation : the causes, effects, and solutions , 1980 FINANCIAL MANAGEMENT Dr. Shabana Azami, Grants Jean M. Fromm, 2007 Grants are available from thousands of sources both private and public To the grantseeker however this wealth of sources appears like an impenetrable jungle Where are the grants I need and what do I need to do to submit my ideas and proposals This book is designed to answer these questions by aiming the grantseeker to both the grant givers and by providing a bibliography of book for further research The Cost of Housing ,1978 Russia's Oil and Natural Gas Michael Ellman,2006 Explores the role of Russian oil and gas in the Russian economy The American Economic Review ,1928 Includes annual List of doctoral dissertations in political economy in progress in American universities and colleges and the Hand book of the American Economic Association Stagflation ,1981 One Money for Europe Michele Fratianni,T. Monetary and Fiscal Economics of Islam Mohamed Ariff,1982 Biographical Memoirs National Academy of Sciences,1996-06-08 Biographic Memoirs Volume 69 contains the biographies of deceased members of the National Academy of Sciences and bibliographies of their published works Each biographical essay was written by a member of the Academy familiar with the professional career of the deceased For historical and bibliographical purposes these volumes are worth returning to time and again Risk Behaviour and Risk Management in Business Life Bo Green,2013-03-09 Risk behaviour and risk management in business life influence a wide range of fields in which only a very limited amount of research has been undertaken These topics have often been treated as if they were theoretically and practically isolated from other fields the so called risk archipelago problem What is actually needed is another focus in which the problem of risk is treated as a central theme The demand for interdisciplinary research means that there is a need for crossing scientific boundaries In approaching risk problems from a holistic perspective there is also a parallel need for linking the scientific and the business worlds Researchers must work closely together in concrete multidisciplinary research projects and in co operation with the industrial world in seeking out and solving research problems of importance This book contains selected and re written papers and key note speeches presented in a risk seminar that Stockholm University organised in June 1997 The seminar in which 200 researchers and practitioners from 26 countries participated was divided into four main topic areas Risk Assessment and Credit Management Psychology in Business Life Risk Management in Small Firms and Law and Business Risk In writing this book the editor invited eight professors from four continents to assist him in introducing the reader to the different and scientific disciplines and in explaining the need for interdisciplinary multidisciplinary and cross disciplinary risk research projects The book consists of eight chapters and the target groups are researchers doctoral and master students at universities and business people working in the risk management area The New Palgrave Dictionary of Money and Finance John Eatwell,Murray Milgate,Peter Newman,1992-10-14 The first reference work ever to be awarded the Eccles Prize for Excellence in Economic Writing from Columbia Business School Continuing in the tradition of The New Palgrave this 3 volume set provides an unparalleled guide to modern money banking and finance In over 1 000 substantial essays by leading academic and professional authorities it provides the most comprehensive analysis available of contemporary theory and the fast evolving global monetary and financial framework In its scope and depth of coverage it is indispensable for the academic and practitioner alike The Power "to Coin" Money Thomas Frederick Wilson,1992 This book traces the history from colonial times to the present of the monetary powers exercised by the Congress under the Constitution. It follows the evolution of the American banking and monetary system from the perspective of specific provisions in the Constitution that authorize the government to coin money and regulate its value. The author critically examines how far the development of the contemporary money and banking system has pushed beyond the narrow powers spelled out in the Constitution. He shows how changes in congressional legislation, Supreme Court decisions on precedent setting cases, and the evolution of central banking powers within the Federal Reserve System have expanded the scope of the federal government's monetary powers. Yet the author views this history within the context of private limits to the authority of Congress and the Congress's distrust of lodging the central bank within the Executive branch, preferring instead to respect an independent central banking tradition. The Hamiltonian tradition, he concludes, still offers the best institutional arrangement to confront unstable markets and destabilizing political influence. The International Who's Who, 1990
