often planned from the start as an integral part of the whole cinematic experience Following an introductory chapter that outlines several key theoretical questions and surveys eight decades of writing on film music Martin Miller Marks focuses on those scores created between 1895 and 1924 He begins by considering two early examples one German written by persons unknown for Skladanowsky's Bioskop exhibitions in 1895 and 1896 and one French scored by Camille Saint Saëns for the 1908 film L'Assassinat du Duc de Guise Subsequent chapters fully discuss Walter Cleveland Simon's music for the American film An Arabian Tragedy 1912 as well as the Joseph Breil accompaniment to D W Griffith's Birth of a Nation 1915 As described in this book Breil's memorable score though a compilation derived from many sources was played by an orchestra as Griffith's sweeping images filled the screen thus contributing significantly to the great film's success while also achieving remarkable power in its own right Marks then concludes with a look at Erik Satie's witty and innovative music for the French film Entr'acte 1924 which was the first film score of consequence by an avant garde composer Giving unprecedented attention to a vibrant important and oft neglected facet of twentieth century music Music and the Silent Film will interest scholars of film theory film history modern music and modern aesthetics
