

A scenic landscape featuring a calm lake in the foreground, a dense forest of evergreen trees in the middle ground, and rugged mountains in the background. The mountains are partially shrouded in mist or low clouds. The sky is overcast with soft, grey clouds. The overall mood is serene and majestic.

Dreams are life, real life, not simply reflections. Dreams are honest.

The Art of Dreams Barbara Hahn, Meike Werner, 2016-08-22 We all dream we all share these strange experiences that infuse our nights But we only know of those nightly adventures when we decide to represent them In the long history of coming to terms with dreams there seem to be two different ways of delineating our forays into the world of the unconscious One is the attempt of interpreting of unveiling the hidden meaning of dreams The other one is not so much concerned with the relation of dream and meaning of dream and reality it rather concentrates on trying to find means of representation for this extremely productive force that determines our sleep The essays collected in this book explore both attempts They follow debates in philosophy and psychoanalysis and they study literature theatre dance film and photography Paws for history and literature of the Roman Empire is full of reports of dream prophecies dream ghosts and dream gods This volume offers a fresh approach to the study of ancient dreams by asking not what the ancients dreamed or how they experienced dreaming but why the Romans considered dreams to be important and worthy of recording Dream reports from historical and imaginative literature from the high point of the Roman Empire the first two centuries AD are analysed as objects of cultural memory records of events of cultural significance that contribute to the formation of a group's cultural identity The book also introduces the term cultural imagination as a tool for thinking about ancient myth and religion and avoiding the question of belief which arises mainly from creed based religions The book's conclusion compares dream reports in the Classical world with modern attitudes towards dreams and dreaming identifying distinctive features of both the world of the Romans and our own culture
