Reflections In Poetry Mother And Daughter Collection:

Reflections in Poetry Michelle Epps, Carole Watson Cooley, 2005-09 Reflections in Poetry Mother and Daughter Collection is meant to share innermost thoughts with others. It is a hope that the readers will be able to identify with the portraits painted and maybe use some lines or words to express a feeling they would like to portray to someone they care about. Writing is about sharing experiences with the readers; it is also therapeutic because a writer is daring to share his soul. This is also a collection of poems in a storybook form. Some of the poems are laden with emotion as in a message to someone you're in love with while others may be spiritual in nature as in a conversation with God or prayer. There are poems that rhyme while others are free verse. The poems may evoke a plausible reaction to the readers or not. It is the intent to provide an obvious story in each poem connecting each verse to the other with the hope to leave enough room for the readers' interpretation of the poems to be open to any possible understanding or outcome. This is also an effort to have readers get acquainted with the intimacy of imagination; maybe even fall in love with it or find an expression all their own. The sale of this book is meant to be used in part for outreach under Helping Hand, a non-profit organization. Mothers and Daughters June Cotner, 2010-03-10 Celebrate the life passages shared only between mothers and daughters in this uniquely moving collection. Mothers and Daughters reveals the full breadth and depth of the mother-daughter bond as only poetry can. From pregnancy to toddlerhood, adolescence to leaving home, grandmotherhood and beyond, and every passage in between, this collection captures the voices of mothers and daughters as they write about the most moving moments of their times together. Honest, inspiring, joyful, and reflective, the full range of women's voices has been captured here: the inexplicable joy of a mother holding her baby girl, a mom witnessing the first grown-up tears of her adolescent girl, a mother watching her daughter walk down the aisle, a ten-year-old trying to explain to her mom why she hates broccoli, and a daughter saying good-bye to her mother in her new dorm room. All the poetry selected by bestselling author June Cotner is accessible and beautifully crafted, alternating poems that will move any mother or daughter to tears with others that will make her laugh out loud and all of which will deepen the reader's understanding and appreciation of this unique bond as no self-help book ever could. The perfect gift for mother or daughter, this is a book that women will want to revisit and share for years to come. Reflections and Poetry to Ponder Diane Hicks White, 2009-08 My poetry can best be described as a personal journey lived through depression. From childhood through adulthood, I have existed with depression. I have always enjoyed reading, and so with reading, the idea of writing poetry came to mind. Being able to express my emotions has played a big part on my road to recovery. Seeing people like myself has helped me give more understanding of how depression affects the mind. Through my poetry, I have been able to talk of these emotions through faith in others who have helped me and through my faith in God who has never left me. I try to end my poetry not in negativity but with a purposeful emotion that will give the reader hope, a hope that he or she will someday reach that pinnacle in their lives that will help them to see beyond that hopelessness of Formal Matters in Contemporary Latino Poetry F. Aldama, 2016-01-26 Today's Latino poetry scene is incredibly vibrant. With original interviews, this is the first meditation on the thematic features of such poetry. Looking at how Julia Alvarez, Rhina Espaillat, Rafael Campo, and C. Mosaics of Mary Mary Daugharty, 2008-08-14 Mosaics of Mary is a compulation of poems I have written over the past seven years. This book is a reflection of years of hard work I have gone through in order to understand and accept being an abandoned child. Writing poetry has given me an outlet that I did not have as a child. My goal in releasing this book is to have a voice. It is not my intention to cause harm or intentionally hurt others. Some of the poems are painful, where as others are fun and random. Life is not perfect, nor is this first piece of work I am releasing. It will not speak to everyone, but I hope that if just one poem speaks to someone who is hurting, then the risk I have taken in putting my work out there will be worth it.

Poetic Inquiry Sandra L. Faulkner, 2019-07-22 Poetic Inquiry: Craft, Method, and Practice examines the use of poetry as a form of qualitative research representation and method used by researchers, practitioners, and students from across the social sciences and humanities. It serves as a practical manual for using poetry in qualitative research through the presentation of varied examples of Poetic Inquiry. It provides how-to exercises for developing and using poetry as a qualitative research method. The book begins by mapping out what doing and critiquing Poetic Inquiry entails via a discussion of the power of poetry, poets, and researchers' goals for the use of poetry and the kinds of projects that are best suited for Poetic Inquiry. It also provides descriptions of the process and craft of creating Poetic Inquiry and suggestions for how to evaluate and engage with Poetic Inquiry. The book further contends with questions of method, process, and craft from poets and researchers' perspectives. It shows the implications for the aesthetic and epistemic concerns in poetry and furthers transdisciplinary dialogues between the humanities and social sciences. Faulkner shows the importance of considering the form and function of Poetic Inquiry in qualitative research through discussions of poetry as research method, poetry as qualitative analysis and representation, and Poetic Inquiry as a powerful research tool.
