Reflections On Early Christianity:

Reflections on Early Christianity Wallace S. Jungers, 2005-05-01 The main theme of this book is that beautiful letter which we call 1 John. We do not know who wrote it or exactly when it was written. But scholars have a theory that it was written by members of a group of Christians whom they call The Johannine School. These were Christian thinkers who gathered around the Apostle John, some of whom wrote the Gospel of John and Revelation and others of whom wrote this beautiful mystical letter. It opens with a prologue much like the prologue of the Gospel of John which also has its roots in Genesis: "We declare to you what was from the beginning. What we have heard. What we have seen with our eyes. What we have looked at and touched with our hands. Concerning the word of life. This life was revealed. And we have seen it and testify to it. And declare to you the eternal life. That was with the Father. And was revealed to us. We declare to you what we have seen and heard. So that you also may have fellowship with us. And truly our fellowship is with the Father. And with his Son, Jesus Christ. We are writing these things. So that our joy may be complete." 1 Jn 1:1-4. Mission in the Early Church Edward L. Smither, 2014-08-28 How did Christian mission happen in the early church from AD 100 to 750? Beginning with a brief look at the social, political, cultural, and religious contexts, Mission in the Early Church tells the story of early Christian missionaries, their methods, and their missiology. Edward L. Smither explores some of the most prominent themes of mission in early Christianity, including suffering, evangelism, Bible translation, contextualization, ministry in word and deed, and the church. Based on this survey, modern readers are invited to a conversation that considers how early Christian mission might inform global mission thought and practice today. Reflections On Early Christianity Wallace S. Jungers, Reflections on the Early Christian History of Religion - Erwägungen zur frühchristlichen Religionsgeschichte Cilliers Breytenbach, Jörg Frey, 2012-10-19 Reflections on the Early Christian History of Religion documents the results of two recent workshops on Martin Hengel's and Maria Schwemer's first volume of Geschichte des frühen Christentums, Jesus und das Judentum (title of vol. 1: Tübingen, 2007) and Larry Hurtado's Lord Jesus Christ: Devotion to Jesus in Earliest Christianity (Grand Rapids, 2003). The contributors, including Hengel himself, focus on problems and possibilities of studying and presenting Christian religion in Roman Antiquity. They discuss distinctive features of these two remarkable publications and some material aspects that illustrate the relationship between the historical study of early Christian religion, religious studies in general, and New Testament studies in particular. Mit den Erwägungen zur frühchristlichen Religionsgeschichte liegen die Ergebnisse zweier Fachtagungen vor, die sich mit dem ersten Band der Geschichte des frühen Christentums von Martin Hengel und Maria Schwemer (Jesus und das Judentum, Tübingen 2007) und Larry Hurtado's Lord Jesus Christ: Devotion to Jesus in Earliest Christianity (Grand Rapids 2003) beschäftigen. Die Beiträge von Hengel selbst diskutieren Probleme und Möglichkeiten der Erforschung und Darstellung christlicher Religion in der römischen Antike. Sie setzen sich mit den Zugangsweisen dieser beiden Bücher auseinander und zeigen an verschiedenen Sachfragen die Bezüge, die sich bei der historischen Erforschung der

Reflections on Judaism and Christianity in Antiquity Dan Jaffé, Rivkah Nir, Yaakov Teppler, 2021-10-29 This book written by Israeli scholars reflects the centrality of the Parting of the Ways an issue of focal concern to the question where and when came into being the boundary line separating between Judaism and Christianity It is reflective of the diversity within the research community in Israel much like in the field of research worldwide

Light in a Spotless Mirror James H. Charlesworth, Michael A. Daise, 2003-03-01 After the death of Alexander the Great in 323 B C E Jewish scholars especially those in Jerusalem and Alexandria turned increasingly to the eternal questions that define those who reflect on human life These sages sought to comprehend the origin and essence of things and pondered how it was possible to learn and obtain insight Wisdom they came to see was the fashioner of all things who disclosed what is secret and what is manifest Many of these Jewish intellectuals saw Wisdom as the closest being to God In this book five of the world s foremost scholars in the field reflect on the Wisdom traditions in Second Temple Judaism and earliest Christianity Roland Murphy late of Duke University explores the biblical and Jewish wisdom literature and focuses on ways that Jews sought to understand sin and suffering Peter Sch fer Princeton University argues that the association of Wisdom Torah and Israel found in biblical literature was taken up much later in the writings of the Rabbinic sages Peder Borgen formerly University of Trondheim Norway examines the similarities in the writings of the Hellenistic Jewish Wisdom teacher Philo of Alexandria and the writer of the Gospel of John D Moody Smith Duke University focuses on the Passion narrative in the Gospel of John as he demonstrates how much John relies on Jewish Wisdom tradition in his gospel James Charlesworth Princeton Theological Seminary examines the Wisdom aspects of some Jewish apocalypses in order to demonstrate that the Gospel of John draws upon both the Jewish Wisdom literature and Jewish apocalypses James H Charlesworth is George L Collord Professor of New Testament Language and Literature at Princeton Theological Seminary director of the seminary s Dead Sea Scrolls Project and co editor of the Trinity Press Faith and

Scholarship Colloquies FSC series Michael A Daise is Assistant Professor of Religion at The College of William and Mary and has published articles on the Old Testament Pseudepigrapha and the Dead Sea Scrolls Handbook of Early Christianity Anthony J. Blasi, Jean Duhaime, Paul-André Turcotte, 2002-08-27 The Christian movement emerged amidst complex social tensions power politics ethnic diversity economic stress and cultural changes Both biblical scholars and social scientists find that a social scientific study of early Christian phenomena yields fascinating results However biblical scholars are sometimes unaware of the breadth of the useful social scientific concepts and techniques and social scientists sometimes lack the most basic background in literary research methods The Handbook of Early Christianity provides a much needed overview for biblical scholars and social scientists alike Drawing on perspectives from anthropology archaeology economics history literary analysis psychology political science and sociology the Handbook shows the myriad and complementary approaches that shed light on Christianity's formation and early development Twenty seven chapters from leading scholars along with a comprehensive bibliography make this an essential reference for anyone wishing to understand the social dynamics of Christianity's birth Mission in the Early Church Edward L. Smither, 2014-04-28 How did Christian missions happen in the early church from AD 100 to 750 Beginning with a brief look at the social political cultural and religious contexts Mission in the Early Church tells the story of early Christian missionaries their methods and their missiology This book explores some of the most prominent themes of mission in early Christianity including suffering evangelism Bible translation contextualization ministry in Word and deed and the church Based on this survey modern readers are invited to a conversation that considers how early Christian mission might inform global mission thought and practice today Reflections on Religious Individuality Jörg Rüpke, Wolfgang Spickermann, 2012-07-04 This volume will concentrate its search for religious individuality on texts and practices related to texts from Classical Greece to Late Antiquity Texts offer opportunities to express one's own religious experience and shape one's own religious personality within the boundaries of what is acceptable Inscriptions in public or at least easily accessible spaces might substantially differ in their range of expressions and topics from letters within a sectarian religious group which at the same time might put enormous pressure on conformity among its members regarded as deviant by a majority of contemporaries Furthermore texts might offer and advocate new practices in reading meditating remembering or repeating these very texts Such practices might contribute to the development of religious individuality experienced or expressed in factual isolation responsibility competition and finally in philosophical or theological reflections about personhood or self The volume develops its topic in three sections addressing personhood representative and charismatic individuality the interaction of individual and groups and practices of reading and writing It explores Jewish Christian Greek and Latin texts The Early Church in Its Context Abraham J. Malherbe, Frederick W. Norris, James W. Thompson, 2014-04-09 This volume honors Professor Everett Ferguson of Abilene Christian University on the occasion of his sixty fifth birthday Reflecting the interests of the honoree the twenty one contributions focus on various aspects of the early church and its environment Together the articles form a broad tapestry of interrelated topics informed from the disciplines of philosophy patristic theology archaeology rhetoric art Greco Roman religion and biblical studies Voices from the Desert; Or, Thoughts and Maxims of the Early Christians. From the German, 1872 Jews and Christians - Parting Ways in the First Two Centuries CE? Jens Schröter, Benjamin A. Edsall, Joseph Verheyden, 2021-08-23 The present volume is based on a conference held in October 2019 at the Faculty of Theology of Humboldt University Berlin as part of a common project of the Australian Catholic University the Katholieke Universiteit Leuven and the Humboldt University Berlin The aim is to discuss the relationships of Jews and Christians in the first two centuries CE against the background of recent debates which have called into question the image of parting ways for a description of the relationships of Judaism and Christianity in antiquity One objection raised against this metaphor is that it accentuates differences at the expense of commonalities Another critique is that this image looks from a later perspective at historical developments which can hardly be grasped with such a metaphor It is more likely that distinctions between Jews Christians Jewish Christians Christian Jews etc are more blurred than the image of parting ways allows In light of these considerations the contributions in this volume discuss the cogency of the parting of the ways model with a look at prominent early Christian writers and places and suggest more appropriate metaphors to describe the relationships of Jews and Christians in the early period Primitive Christianity ... Interreligious Reflections, Six Volume Set Alon Goshen-Gottstein, 2018-08-08 This set includes all six volumes of Interreligious Reflections ABOUT VOLUME ONE Friendship is an outcome of as well as a condition for advancing interfaith relations However for friendship to advance there must be legitimation from within and a theory of how interreligious relations can be justified from the resources of different faith traditions Friendship Across Religions explores these very issues seeking to develop a robust theory of interreligious friendship from the resources of each of the participating traditions It also features individual cases as models and precedents for such relations in particular the friendship of Gandhi and Charlie Andrews his closest personal friend Contributors Balwant Singh Dhillon Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Ruben L F Habito Ryan McAnnally Linz Stephen Butler Murray Eleanor Nesbitt Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Johann M Vento and Miroslav Volf ABOUT VOLUME TWO This book tackles the core problem of how painful historical memories between diverse religious communities continue to impact even poison present day relations Its operative notion is the healing of memory developed by John Paul II Chapters explore how painful memories of yesteryear can be healed and so address some of the root causes Strategies from six different faith traditions are brought together in what is in some ways a cross religious brainstorming session that identifies tools to improve present day relations At the other pole of the conceptual axis of this book is the notion of hope If memory informs our past hope sets the horizon for our future How does the healing of memory open new horizons for the future And what is the notion of hope in each of our traditions that could lead to a common vision of good Between memory and hope this book seeks to offer a vision of healing that can serve as a resource in contemporary interfaith relations Contributors Rahuldeep Singh Gill Alon Goshen Gottstein Maria Reis Habito Flora A Keshgegian Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Muhammad Suheyl Umar and Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME THREE The essays collected here prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy explore the challenges associated with sharing wisdom learning teachings messages for good living How should religions go about sharing their wisdom These chapters representing six faith tradition Jewish Christian Muslim Hindu Sikh and Buddhist explore what wisdom means in each of these traditions why and how it should be shared internally and externally and the role of love and forgiveness in sharing This book offers a theory that can enrich ongoing encounters between members of faith traditions by suggesting a tradition based practice of sharing wisdom while preserving the integrity of the teaching and respecting the identity of anyone with whom wisdom is shared Contributors Pal Ahluwalia Timothy Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Sallie B King Anantanand Rambachan Meir Sender Miroslav Volf

ABOUT VOLUME FOUR All the world s religions are experiencing rapid change due to a confluence of social and economic global forces Factors such as the pervasive intrusion of globalizing political and economic developments polarized and morally equivalent presentations seen in the media and the sense of surety demanded in and promised by a culture dominated by science are some of the factors that have placed extreme pressure on all religious traditions This has stimulated unprecedented responses by religious groups ranging from fundamentalism to the syncretistic search for meaning As religion takes on new forms the balance between individual and community is disrupted and reconfigured Religions often lose the capacity to recall their ultimate purpose or lead their adherents toward it This is the situation we call the crisis of the holy It is a confluence of threats challenges and opportunities for all religions This volume explores the contours of pressures changes and transformations and reflects on how all our religions are changing By identifying commonalities across religions as they respond to these pressures The Crisis of the Holy recommends ways religious traditions might cope with these changes and how they might join forces in doing so Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Sidney H Griffith Maria Reis Habito B Barry Levy Deepak Sarma Michael von Br ck

ABOUT VOLUME FIVE The chapters collected in this book prepared by a think tank of the Elijah Interfaith Academy address the subject of religious leadership The subject is of broad relevance in the training of religious leaders and in the practice of religious leadership As such it is also germane to religious thought where reflections on religious leadership occupy an important place What does it mean to be a religious leader in today s world To what degree are the challenges that confront religious leadership today the same perennial challenges that have arrested the attention of the faithful and their leaders for generations and to what degree do we encounter challenges today that are unique to our day and age One dimension is surely unique and that is the very ability to explore these issues from an interreligious perspective and to consider challenges opportunities and strategies across religious traditions Studying the theme across six faith traditions Christianity Islam Judaism Sikhism Hinduism and Buddhism The Future of Religious Leadership World Religions in Conversation recognizes the common challenges to present day religious leadership Contributors Awet Andemicael Timothy J Gianotti Alon Goshen Gottstein Anantanand Rambachan Maria Reis Habito Meir Sendor Balwant Singh Dhillon Miroslav Volf VOLUME SIX One of the biggest challenges for relations between religions is the view of the religious Other The question touches the roots of our theological views The Religious Other Hostility Hospitality and the Hope of Human Flourishing explores the views of multiple religious traditions on how to regard otherness How does one move from hostility to hospitality How can hospitality be understood not simply as social hospitality but as theological hospitality making room for the religious Other on theological grounds What is our vision for the flourishing of the Other while respecting his otherness This volume is an exercise in constructive interreligious theology By including Abrahamic and non Abrahamic traditions it approaches these challenges from multiple perspectives highlighting commonalities in approach and ways in which one tradition might inspire another Contributors Vincent J Cornell Alon Goshen Gottstein Richard P Hayes Lord Rabbi Jonathan Sacks Deepak Sarma Stephen W Sykes Dharma Master Hsin Tao Ashok Vohra Synodality in Europe - Theological Reflections on the Church on Synodal Paths in Europe Margit Eckholt, The publication of the ESCT European Society for Catholic Theology with the title Synodality in Europe reflects on the synodal process in Europe and challenges of theological work in view of the learning process to become a synodal church The different articles lay theological foundations of synodality they present regional and world church perspectives they show tensions and processes of pluralisation which are understood as a laboratory of synodality related to the liberating and healing Gospel of Jesus Christ Most of the authors are members of different sections of ESCT in Belgium Croatia Czech Republic France Germany Ireland Lithuania Portugal Slovakia and Spain Integrated are also a protestant and two world church contributions Christianity: the One, the Many John F.
