Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting (2 vols.) Jean-Baptiste Du Bos, 2021-07-15 Jean Baptiste Du Bos Critical Reflections on Poetry and Painting first published in French in 1719 is one of the seminal works of modern aesthetics Du Bos rejected the seventeenth century view that works of art are assessed by reason Instead he believed audience members have sentiments in response to artworks Their sentiments are fainter versions of those they would feel in response to actually seeing what the work of art imitates Du Bos was influenced by John Locke s empiricism and in turn had a major impact on virtually every major eighteenth century contributor to philosophy of art including Voltaire Montesquieu Diderot Rousseau Herder Lessing Mendelssohn Kames Gerard and Hume This is the first modern annotated and scholarly edition of the Critical Reflections in any language

Aesthetic and Philosophical Reflections on Mood Birgit Breidenbach, 2020-04-19 This study explores the concept of Stimmung in literary and philosophical texts of the modern age Signifying both mood and attunement Stimmung speaks to the categories of affective experience and aesthetic design alike The study locates itself in the nexus between discourses on modernity existentialism and aesthetics and uncovers the pivotal role of Stimmung in 19th and 20th century European narrative fiction and continental philosophy The study first explores the philosophical and aesthetic origins and implications of Stimmung to then discuss its role in the narrative fiction of three key authors of modern literature Fyodor Dostoevsky Samuel Beckett and Thomas Bernhard These readings demonstrate a significant shift towards an aesthetic of affective intensity and immediacy in which the experience of the reading process takes centre stage as each author develops an aesthetic philosophy of Stimmung in their own right Through its focus on the concept of Stimmung the study thus unearths a fundamental link between existentialist concerns and narrative practice in modern literature      Hands-On Science Sarah Kellett, David Shaw, Kath Kovac, 2016-09 Did you ever wonder why some insects can walk on water Or how the ancient Egyptians made mummies Are you curious about why a guitar sounds different from a flute Gather some everyday materials from around your home and find out the answers with these 50 kid approved science activities from CSIRO The activities cover electricity and magnetism sound and light heat and motion water and gases living things shapes and our planet Earth Each activity has a simple list of materials required and uses simple step by step instructions and drawings to enable you to create exciting and interesting reactions experiments and inventions Fast facts and quiz questions will help you test your knowledge and you ll also find an explanation of the science behind each activity along with examples of how each principle works in the real world Discover more about the world of science by making dancing slime rubbery bones a ping pong ball shooter ghastly ghostly photos fizzy dinosaur eggs and a lemon battery      Humorous Structures of English Narratives, 1200-1600 Theresa

Hamilton, 2013-10-03 We all have the ability to recognize and create humour But how do we do it Salvatore Attardo and Victor Raskin have attempted to explain the workings of humour with their General Theory of Verbal Humor How well does their theory explain the way humour works in a particular text and can it provide us with interesting novel interpretations By identifying and interpreting the narrative structures that create humour this study tests the usefulness of Attardo Raskin s humour theory on a specific corpus of fabliaux parodies and tragedies Hamilton proposes a supplementation of the General Theory of Verbal Humor to create a means of undertaking what she calls a humorist reading By posing the questions why is this humorous how is it humorous or why is it not humorous and providing the theoretical tools to answer them a humorist reading can make a valuable contribution to our understanding of a literary text and its place in society      Brief Group

Psychotherapy for Eating Disorders Kate Tchanturia, 2015-06-26 In the treatment of Anorexia Nervosa delivering psychological interventions in a group format can bring unique benefits in addition to those associated with working with patients individually These include sharing experiences and learning from others in a safe and therapeutic environment becoming accustomed to being with other people and practising interpersonal skills However these aspects of group treatment also represent a challenge for group facilitators as it is exactly these interpersonal and relational demands that patients find difficult to tolerate Facilitators are likely to be confronted with low motivation or complete disengagement as a result of the discomfort evoked by spending time in psychological groups Nonetheless once these difficulties are successfully overcome the group setting can be effectively utilised to address the specific aims of a given psychological intervention as well as tapping into these wider benefits Drawing upon research carried out by the Maudsley national inpatient eating disorders programme Brief Group Psychotherapy for Eating Disorders brings together expert contributions in order to review the evidence base as well as discussing how the challenges of the group setting can be overcome This book outlines newly developed protocols for group interventions aimed at providing brief but effective treatment for an increased numbers of patients and addresses the need to develop and evaluate cost effective psychological interventions for patients with Anorexia Nervosa Brief Group Psychotherapy for Eating Disorders is designed to offer therapists clinicians and researchers in the field a synopsis of the available evidence along with guidance on how to put theory into practice effectively It will also be an invaluable resource for students trainees and teachers in the clinical counselling psychology psychiatry nursing occupational therapy and other allied professions

Poems of sentiment and reflection ,1912      Narratives of Nothing in 20th-Century Literature Meghan Vicks,2017-04-20 The concept of nothing was an enduring concern of the 20th century As Martin Heidegger and Jean Paul Sartre each positioned nothing as inseparable from the human condition and essential to the creation or operation of human existence as Jacques Derrida demonstrated how all structures are built upon a nothing within the structure and as mathematicians argued that zero the number that is also not a number allows for the creation of our modern mathematical system Narratives of Nothing in 20th Century Literature suggests that nothing itself enables the act of narration Focusing on the literary works of Vladimir Nabokov Samuel Beckett and Victor Pelevin Meghan Vicks traces how and why these writers give narrative form to nothing demonstrating that nothing is essential to the creation of narrative that is how our perceptions are conditioned how we make meaning or madness out of the stuff of our existence how we craft our knowable selves and how we exist in language

Stage Confidences Clara Morris,1902 This volume is a frank book opening with a chapter dedicated to the stage struck girl warning her of the obstacles and hindrances with the candor of one who has known them all Ms Morris speaks with humor and charm about the mysterious and alluring life behind the footlights while giving readers bits of the shams and deceptions of the stage and in a peculiarly open manner strips it of its false glitter The highlights are the little stories of the actress own career which show how truly the most dramatic scenes in plays reflect the happenings in actual life
