Reform Conflict And Change In The Cis And Eastern Europe:

Reform, Conflict, and Change in the CIS and Eastern Europe Ram Rattan Sharma, Shashikant Jha, 1999 Reform, Conflict and Change in the CIS and Eastern Europe Shashikant Jha, Ram Rattan Sharma, 1998 India and Central Europe Rajendra K. Jain, 2021-09-01 This book explores the transformation of India's relations with Central and Eastern Europe from being a subset of Indo-Soviet relations during the Cold War to the rediscovery and rebuilding of relations with the region almost from scratch in the post Cold War era. It examines how the combination of Brexit, the rise of China and India's expanding geo-economic interests in Europe has led the Narendra Modi government to contemplate relations with Central Europe through a more strategic lens and treat the region as an autonomous element within India's foreign policy rather than a footnote of its relations with other great powers. Fulfilling a long-felt gap in existing literature, this volume examines India's political, economic, investment, defence and cultural relations with the Visegrad Four: the Czech Republic, Hungary, Poland and Slovakia. It analyzes Indian perceptions of Central Europe and explores prospects of New Delhi's political and economic engagement with the region. The painstakingly compiled appendices on the exchange of bilateral visits and agreements between India and the Visegrad Four would be of immense use as a handy reference to scholars, policy makers and other interested persons and institutions.

Reform of the Socialist System in Central and Eastern Europe Martin J. Bull, Mike Ingham, 2016-07-27 This book analyzes the reform of the socialist system in Central and Eastern Europe and the former Soviet Union. Uniquely, it adopts a multi-disciplinary perspective which includes authors from both Western Europe and the former Communist world. The volume contains analyses of the prospects for civil society, economic reform and privatisation, theories of economic transition and the role of the state, political change and the persistence of former Communist parties, the prospects for democracy in the former Soviet Union and gender aspects of labour market reform.

Eastern Europe, Russia and Central Asia 2003, 2000 Constitutional Reforms and International Law in Central and Eastern Europe Rejn Avovič Müllerson, Malgosia Fitzmaurice, Mads Tønnesson Andersen, 1998 The recent developments in central and eastern Europe have changed the political landscape of the world. The dissolution of the Soviet Union, Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia, the collapse of Communism in Europe, market reforms and the processes of democratisation are all seminal events affecting not only the countries in transition but other states as well. All these changes presuppose fundamental legal reforms. In this process, most of the countries in transition have adopted new constitutions where issues of participation in the international political order and questions of international law enjoy a prominent place. This book is one outcome of many research activities concerning these transitions in central and eastern Europe at the Centre of European Law, King's College London. It contains essays about constitutional reforms and international law by leading international judges and academics It is edited by Mads Andenas Director of the Centre of European Law at King s College London Malgosia Fitzmaurice Reader in International Law at Queen Mary and Westfield College London and Rein M llerson Professor in International Law at King s College Bibliographic Guide to Slavic, Baltic, and Eurasian Studies ,1995 Russia and Eurasia at the Crossroads Egor S. Stroev, Leonid S. Bliakhman, Mikhail I. Krotov, 2012-12-06 This last century of the second millennium has compressed human history to such an extent that whole ages of engineering economics social politics and the humanities have been accommodated in decades or even years Mankind has matured and applied its cognitive and creative genes to advance science and to internationalise future goals including the vital goal of sustainable social development However having no control over the new pace of history twentieth century civilisation has faced global cataclysms of a frequency and depth unprecedented and inconceivable in the past millennia Among the recent crises to be resolved in the third millennium is disintegration of the Soviet Union the biggest state and third largest population in the world Regretfully the pace of change in the Soviet Union had been slower than the rates of reform elsewhere Attempts at economic redecorating instead of radical market oriented reforms failed In Soviet society general discontent with the progress of perestroika in the 1980s provoked the child complacency syndrome that is typical of a young mind contemptuous of any adult action it is convinced that things could have been done much better and much quicker With the new millennium approaching the Soviet Union gave way to 15 new states ridden with both inherited and acquired economic political and social maladies It is common knowledge however that childhood epidemics are short lived Governance Failure and Reform Attempts After the Global Economic Crisis of 2008/09 Leonid, 2014-04-15 The global economic crisis of 2008 2009 has had a broad impact far beyond economic concerns Most importantly it has been seen as a crisis of governance and debates have not just questioned specific regulations e g of global financial markets but have additionally challenged the appropriateness of underlying governance concepts not only in global markets but also at the national level For the post socialist countries which adopted market oriented governance mechanisms less than two decades ago the global crisis was the first stress test after the post socialist recovery The contributions in this book focus on the impact of the crisis and related reform attempts in two important areas The first area is financial and monetary policy which is at the core of the global crisis of 2008 2009 The second area is relations between business and state actors where corruption and weak institutional frameworks can both seriously hamper reform attempts The volume comprises essential contributions on how the post socialist countries have tried to cope with the first global economical crisis they saw themselves confronted with Indian Books in Print ,2003 State Capitalism Reforms and the Path for Belarus Kiryl Rudy, 2020-10-12 This book is an insightful study of the transition economy using the little known case of Belarus a country trapped in transition for almost three decades The model of state capitalism so widely internationally known has different specific roots metrics and instruments in Belarus The book outlines several pitfalls facing by the Belarusian economy all of which lead to long term economic recession in Belarus India and Hungary Nirmala Joshi,2000 The Focus Of The Book Is On Some Of The Issues That Have Arisen In The Process Of The Mergence Of The New World Order The Collection Of Articles Of Indian And Hungarian Scholars Provides The Reader With A Useful Insight Into Our Understanding Of The New World Order For Us In India It Is Important To Know And Understand These Changes And Adjust Accordingly Viewed From The Perspective Hungarian Thinking On These Problems Is Highly Important Because Hungary As Located In Central Europe And A Member Of The Erstwhile Socialist Bloc Is Today Deeply Involved In The Process Of Change Scholars And Students Of International Relations Would Particularly Benefit By These Various Contributors Central and South-Eastern Europe 2003 Europa Publications,2002 An in depth survey of the region presenting the latest economic and political developments It includes expert comment on issues of regional importance up to date statistics a directory of institutes and companies and political profiles The Diplomatic Record 19921993 Allan Goodman,2019-05-28 The Diplomatic Record continues in its fourth year to offer the most comprehensive storehouse of current information available on international diplomatic relations including a look ahead to ongoing negotiations a chronology of diplomatic events for the year and a bibliography of current diplomacy related publications At the heart of every editi Legislative Networks and Reforms in Post-Soviet States Marta Matrakova,2025-01-17 This book presents the legislative networks in charge of drafting democratic reforms as gatekeepers to the actual adoption implementation and internalisation of democratic norms in selected post Soviet countries It demonstrates that the composition of legislative networks which draft the legal reforms in Armenia Georgia and Moldova is controlled by powerful political actors who seek to have their preferences reflected in the reform outcomes Furthermore the book shows that there are limited modifications after the adoption of the first draft by these legislative networks despite the later reform stages being the focus of the existing literature The book s analysis of political reforms in the Rule of Law inter institutional and electoral accountability in these three countries identifies the control strategies used by domestic political elite to restrain the space for democratisation while instrumentalising the institutional framework to increase its power This book will be of key interest to scholars and students of democratisation post Soviet studies East European politics EU politics and policy comparative politics and international relations The Diplomatic Record ,1992 Annual Report - Indian Council of Social Science Research Indian Council of Social Science Research,1992 Europe between East and South Siro Lombardini,Pier Carlo Padoan,2012-12-06 At the end of 1991 the Fondazione Eni Enrico Mattei hosted the Integration Symposium of the Confederation of European Associations of Economists on Europe between East and South This volume brings together the selected and edited proceedings of the conference The focus of the book is the transformation of the formerly planned economies in Eastern and Central Europe from an international perspective The opening up of the Eastern bloc adds a new and extremely challenging dimension to the relationship between the more and the less developed economies Almost all developing countries implemented liberalisation policies throughout the Eighties thereby dramatically increasing the market orientation of their economies The recipes used in the South are also being applied virtually unmodified in Eastern Europe The symposium was one of the first forays comparing the two sets of experiences showing that the lessons from the South are of great value for Eastern European reforms Reforms in Eastern European countries equally affect economic flows between Europe and developing countries and create new challenges for European countries themselves Eastern Europe is an enclave of cheap and relatively skilled labour thus a dramatic competitive threat for other developing countries and poorer EC regions Furthermore the strategic relevance of this area for the western world is likely to cause a diversion of public resources previously earmarked for the development of southern economies All these issues could have tremendous consequences for the environment

Prospects and Risks Beyond EU Enlargement Iris Kempe, 2012-12-06 With the European Union's upcoming eastern enlargement Europe is confronted with the necessity of creating security and stability beyond the EU borders in Eastern and Southeastern Europe This task includes not only numerous risks but also opportunities to face the challenges of the 21st century This volume provides policy oriented recommendations and differentiated insider knowledge about the regional situation in Russia Ukraine Moldova and Belarus Authors from the region analyze policies by state and by key issues such as energy transportation the future of Kaliningrad or the regional hot spot in Transnistria A concept for a Multi Layered Europe is developed for the strategic dilemmas concerning the current debate on Wider Europe The unique alliance between analytical output and strategic thinking makes the book valuable for the academic community and for persons responsible for Europe's future
