Refugees From Nowhere:

Refugees from Nowhere George W. Bourland, 1968 Refugees from Nowhere George Bourland, 1979-08-01 The Refugees Convention 50 Years on Susan Kneebone, 2018-04-27 This title was first published in 2003 The authors of the essays in this collection all internationally recognised refugee scholars and practitioners look at the controversial hot topic of refugee rights They consider whether 50 years after its agreement the Refugees Convention can provide an adequate framework for protection In particular the authors address the effect of globalization upon the human rights of asylum seekers and refugees the efficacy of the Convention as an instrument of international law the role of the UNHCR whether NGOs are effective instruments for change and nationality and citizenship issues They also consider alternatives and options for solutions to the global refugee problem Immigrant and Asylum Seekers Labour Market Integration upon Arrival: NowHereLand Irina Isaakyan, Anna Triandafyllidou, Simone Baglioni, 2022-11-18 Through an inter subjective lens this open access book investigates the initial labour market integration experiences of these migrants refugees or asylum seekers who are characterised by different biographies and migration asylum trajectories The book gives voice to the migrants and seeks to highlight their own experiences and understandings of the labour market integration process in the first years of immigration It adopts a critical qualitative perspective but does not remain ethnographic The book rather refers the migrants own voice and experience to their own expert knowledge of the policy and socio economic context that is navigated Each chapter brings into dialogue the migrant s intersubjective experiences with the relevant policies and practices as well as with the relevant stakeholders whether local government national services civil society or migrant organisations The book concludes with relevant critical insights as to how labour market integration is lived on the ground and on what migrants do with labour market policies rather than on what labour market policies do to or for migrants Body Counts Yen Le Espiritu, 2014-08-23 Body Counts The Vietnam War and Militarized Refugees examines how the Vietnam War has continued to serve as a stage for the shoring up of American imperialist adventure and for the re production of American and Vietnamese American identities Focusing on the politics of war memory and commemoration this book retheorizes the connections among history memory and power and refashions the fields of American studies Asian American studies and refugee studies not around the narratives of American exceptionalism immigration and transnationalism but around the crucial issues of war race and violence and the history and memories that are forged in the aftermath of war At the same time the book moves decisively away from the damage centered approach that pathologizes loss and trauma by detailing how first and second generation Vietnamese have created alternative memories and epistemologies that challenge the established public narratives of the Vietnam War and Vietnamese people Explicitly interdisciplinary Body Counts moves between the humanities and social sciences drawing on historical ethnographic cultural and virtual evidence in order to illuminate the places where Vietnamese refugees have managed to conjure up social public and collective remembering The League of Nations and the Refugees from Nazi Germany Greg Burgess,2016-10-20 Greg Burgess's important new study explores the short life of the High Commission for Refugees Jewish and Other Coming from Germany from its creation by the League of Nations in October 1933 to the resignation of High Commissioner James G McDonald in December 1935 The book relates the history of the first stage of refugees from Germany through the prism of McDonald and the High Commission It analyses the factors that shaped the Commission's formation the undertakings the Commission embarked upon and its eventual failure owing to external complications The League of Nations and the Refugees from Nazi Germany argues that in spite of the Commission's failure the refugees from Nazi Germany and the High Commission's work mark a turn in conceptions of international humanitarian responsibilities when a state defies standards of proper behaviour towards its citizens From this point on it was no longer considered sufficient or acceptable for states to respect the sovereign rights of another if the rights of citizens were being violated Greg Burgess discusses this idea amongst others in detail as part of what is a crucial volume for all scholars and students of Nazi Germany the Holocaust and modern Jewish history

A House Next Door to Trauma Judith Hassan,2003-02-15 Judith Hassan's book discusses the kinds of demands placed on those who work with war survivors and opens up issues for others in the field of war trauma to answer in their own particular and appropriate way A House Next Door to Trauma points to a different way of becoming a neighbour to all those who suffer extreme war experiences Visual Securitization Alice Massari,2021-05-18 This open access book offers an innovative account of how relief organizations' visual depiction of Syrian displacement contributes to reproduce and reinforce a securitized account of refugees Through visual analysis the book demonstrates how the securitization process takes place in three different ways First of all even if marginally it occurs through the reproduction of mainstream media and political accounts that have depicted refugees in terms of threats Secondly and more consistently through a representation of Syrian displaced people that despite the undeniable innovative aesthetic patterns focusing on dignity and empowerment continue to reinforce a visual narrative around refugees in terms of victimhood and passivity The reproduction of a securitized account takes also place through the dialectic between what is made visible in the pictures and what is not At the same time the book identifies visual glimmers and minor displacements in the humanitarian discourse that have the potentiality to produce alternative discourses on refugees and displacement beyond the mainstream securitized ones By showing how relief organizations' visual representation contributes to the securitization of the refugee issue this book provides a great resource to students and academics in migration visuality humanitarianism and securitization as well as social scientists and policy makers life around the world Lionboy: The Chase Zizou Corder, 2005-06-02 Charlie Ashanti is on the run from an amazing floating circus with six homesick beautiful Lions and an extraordinary sabre toothed creature Charlie has promised to help the Lions find their way home to Morocco but he has his own problems his Mum and Dad have been kidnapped and he is determined to find them His new friends King Boris of Bulgaria and his security chief Edward have promised to help But Charlie wonders if he was wrong to trust them when he and the Lions find themselves held virtually as prisoners in Venice They eventually escape with the help of a friendly gondolier and after a dangerous sea journey the Lions finally make it home and Charlie is at last reunited with his parents Child Refugee Asylum as a Basic Human Right Sonja C. Grover, 2018-05-24 This book addresses the intersection of various domains of international law refugee law human rights law including child rights international law and humanitarian law in terms of the implications for State obligations to child refugee asylum seekers in particular both as collectives and as individual persons How these State obligations have been interpreted and translated into practice in different jurisdictions is explored through selected problematic significant cases Further various threats to refugee children realizing their asylum rights including refoulement of these children through State extraterritorial and pushback migration control strategies are highlighted through selected case law The argument is made that child refugee asylum seekers must not be considered in theory or in practice beyond the protection of the law if the international rule of law grounded on respect for human dignity and human rights is in fact to prevail Refugee Repatriation Megan Bradley, 2013-03-21 Voluntary repatriation is now the predominant solution to refugee crises yet the responsibilities states of origin bear towards their repatriating citizens are under examined Through a combination of legal and moral analysis and case studies of the troubled repatriation movements to Guatemala Bosnia and Mozambique Megan Bradley develops and refines an original account of the minimum conditions of a just return process The goal of a just return process must be to recast a new relationship of rights and duties between the state and its returning citizens and the conditions of just return match the core duties states should provide for all their citizens equal effective protection for security and basic human rights including accountability for violations of these rights This volume evaluates the ways in which different forms of redress such as restitution and compensation may help enable just returns and traces the emergence and evolution of international norms on redress for refugees Refugee Talk Eva Rask Knudsen, Ulla Rahbek, 2022-07-20 A wide ranging erudite and multi faceted analyses of the fundamental problem of who gets to be counted as human Kate Evans Refugee Talk explores cultural responses to the ongoing refugee crisis Looking at ethical questions and political rhetoric surrounding the refugee experience the authors uncover the reality behind the fraught discussions taking place today With an understanding of how to meaningfully negotiate responses through philosophy media representations art activism and literature the authors insist that a radically different approach is needed advocating for along with other reorientations a new refugee vocabulary as a launching pad for interventions into polarised debates By centring conversation as a method and ethical practice to engage in the discourses surrounding refugees Refugee Talk is structured around dialogues with academics activists journalists and refugee artists and writers creating a comprehensive humanities approach that places ethics and aesthetics at its core

Refugees Now Kelly Oliver, Lisa M. Madura, Sabeen Ahmed, 2019-04-03 This important new book examines the status of refugees from a philosophical perspective The contributors explore the conditions faced by refugees and clarify the conceptual practical and ethical issues confronting the contemporary global community with respect to refugees The book takes up topics ranging from practical matters such as the social and political production of refugees refugee status and the tension between citizen rights and human rights and the handling of detention and deportation to more conceptual and theoretical concerns such as the ideology rhetoric and propaganda that sustain systems of exclusion and expulsion to the ethical dimensions that invoke hospitality and transnational responsibility Ideal for students and scholars in Political and Social Philosophy and Migration Studies more broadly the book provides a critical commentary on material responses to contemporary refugee crises as a means of opening pathways to more pointed assessments of both the political and ideological underpinnings of statelessness

Globalisation, Governance and Human Rights: South Asian Experiences Anisur Rahman, Niharika Tiwari, 2022-01-01 With increasing geo strategic importance in contemporary scenario the South Asia can be accorded as a region of special relevance in context of globalization and international politics The present book delves deep into the pros and cons of inter linkages between globalization governance and issues of human rights in South Asia The book discusses an array of issues relating to globalization governance and issues of human rights The micro level issues are discussed in a way that it will give an insight to develop a framework and better understanding at macro level In this book readers will find the debate between proponents and critics of globalization in detail to comprehend the context in toto The governance and its connection with globalization is also dealt with accordingly The issue of human rights in the globalized world needs to be given proper attention so as to understand all indispensable aspects to have a complete understanding of South Asia in a globalized world The book throws light on issues and challenges like conflicts human rights issues poor governance gender imbalance poverty and unemployment This will certainly help readers to understand the South Asia through post development perspective It will also be helpful for scholars general readers and policy makers in understanding and developing their own perspectives and formulating policy on South Asia in contemporary globalized scenario

Rethinking Refugees Peter Nyers, 2013-11-15 Rethinking Refugees Beyond State of Emergency examines the ways in which refugees have been made objects of the complex discourse practices and strategies of humanitarianism making visible the link between our knowledge of refugees and questions about the changing status of political power space and identity The author draws upon post structural analytical tools to develop a critique of humanitarianism and to sketch a bio political framework for understanding the relationship between the humanity of refugees and their capacity or lack thereof for political voice and action Rethinking Refugees is a radically fresh approach to understanding refugees their movements and their place within an increasingly globalized international politics The Future of U.S. Foreign Policy in the Post-Cold War Era United States. Congress. House. Committee on Foreign Affairs, 1992 Postcolonial Theory and the Arab-Israel Conflict Philip Carl Salzman, Donna Robinson Divine, 2021-04-26 Postcolonial theory is one of the main frameworks for thinking about the world and acting to change the world Arising in academia and reshaping humanities and social sciences disciplines postcolonial theory argues that our ideas about foreigners the other particularly our negative ideas about them are determined not by a true will to understand but rather by our desire to conquer dominate and exploit them According to postcolonial theory the cause of poverty tyranny and misery in the world and of failed societies around the world is Euro American imperialism and colonialism Previously published as a special issue of Israel Affairs this work examines and challenges postcolonial theory In scholarly research based papers the specialist authors examine various facets of postcolonial theory and application First the theoretical assumption and formulations of postcolonial theory are scrutinized and found dubious Second the deleterious impact on academic disciplines of postcolonial theory is demonstrated Third the distorted postcolonial view of history its obsession with current events to the exclusion of the historical basis of events is exposed and corrected Fourth an examination of Middle Eastern culture challenges the assumption that these societies have been shaped entirely and victimized by Western intrusion Finally exploring the Arab Israel conflict the one sided case of postcolonial Arabism is explored and found to be faulty
